

NEW CHIEFS OF STATE O. E. S. TO TAKE POSTS

Installation Will Be Held at Murat Temple This Afternoon.

Grand officers of the Indiana Grand Chapter, O. E. S., elected at the fifty-ninth annual convention of the grand chapter, at the Murat theater, were to be installed this afternoon by Mrs. Abbie Hanson, Hammon, past worthy grand matron.

The new officers are: Mrs. Rose Malcolm, Indianapolis, worthy grand matron; Alphonse C. Wood, Indianapolis, worthy grand patron; Mrs. Hazel Coats, Veedersburg, associate grand matron; Harry Emma, Indianapolis, associate grand patron; Mrs. Blanche Regett, Indianapolis, grand secretary; Mrs. Mamie Conrad, Warsaw, grand treasurer; Mrs. Josephine Brown, Rushville, grand conductress, and Mrs. Mary Frances Price, Vincennes, associate grand conductress.

Five other appointive officers were to be named this afternoon by Mrs. Malcolm.

The convention will close tonight with the Little Ramsford Memorial Fund dance in the Egyptian ballroom at the Murat. The annual pilgrimage of the new officers to the Masonic home at Franklin, will be made Friday.

ATTEMPTS TO END LIFE

Young City Woman Takes Six Tablets of Poison.

Mrs. Mary Gaston, 18, this morning attempted unsuccessfully to end her life by taking six tablets of poison at the home of Mrs. Pearl Morris, 126 South Missouri street, where she and her husband are roomers.

Mrs. Gaston, refusing to tell police the reason for her act, was forced by them to drink two glasses of milk as an antidote. She declared the poison she swallowed was potash, but the box was labeled permanganate. Doctors said her condition is serious, if it was the latter poison.

DE PAUW DAY PLANNED

Methodist Churches to Hold Special Programs Sunday.

"De Pauw" day will be observed by Methodist Episcopal churches in the Greencastle district Sunday, with members of the De Pauw university faculty acting as guest passers.

Special programs appealing to the young persons are being arranged, with De Pauw alumni planning to attend.

G. Herbert Smith, De Pauw dean of freshmen, will speak at the Pen Davis church at 10:30 Sunday and at the Speedway church at 7:30.

C. D. W. Hildebrand, professor of philosophy, is scheduled to address the St. Paul M. E. church at 10:30 and Fiverside Park church at 7:30.

PRISON GOODS UPHELD

Right of Manufacture for Sale Backed by Supreme Court.

Right of state penal institutions to manufacture goods for sale finally was upheld by the state supreme court Wednesday. Rehearing of the case brought by the Ove Gnat Company, La Porte, to restrain making of baskets at the Indiana state farm was denied.

OOH, MAMA, LOOK AT THE PRETTY SKATES!

THE INDIANAPOLIS TIMES

ASK T. B. TEST FOR ATHLETES IN HIGH SCHOOLS

Ban From Participation If Reaction Is Shown Would Be Provided.

A tubercular skin test for Indiana grade and high school pupils taking part in competitive sports was recommended today by the Indiana Tuberculosis Association. The recommendation was adopted at the twenty-second annual meeting and conference of the association, at the Indiana Hotel.

School authorities will be asked to adopt the tubercular skin test in the physical examination of all grade and high school athletes, prohibiting them from participation if found to have a well defined skin reaction to the test.

The establishment of a thoracic surgery clinic in the Robert Long Hospital also is to be asked by the association.

Directors nominated for three-year term are:

Dr. Paul D. Crim, Evansville; Dr. W. N. Culmer, Bloomington; Dr. Giles Mowrer, Jeffersonville; Miss Mary Rankin, Greensburg; Louis Kiefer, Terre Haute; Carl Bimel, Portland; Dr. A. E. Stinson, Rochester, and Woodson Carlisle, South Bend.

Directors nominated for re-election for the three-year period are:

G. O. Ballinger, Richmond; Dr. E. M. Amos, Indianapolis; Dr. Will J. Martin, Kokomo; Miss Anne M. Lutz, Lafayette; Mrs. Karl Gilbert, La Grange, and Dr. J. O. Parramore, Crown Point.

John S. Wright of Indianapolis was named to fill a two-year term vacancy in the Seventh district, and Ray Kuhn of Plymouth a one-year term for the Thirteenth district.

Official Eligible for Parole

FRANKFORT, KY., April 27.—Frank H. Ehmann, former county official, sentenced to three years in Eddyville penitentiary on a charge of misappropriating public funds, was eligible for parole today as the result of commutation of his sentence to twenty-one months by Governor Ruby Laffoon.

JUST A FEW days left in which to list your rental in Times May First Rental Guide, out Saturday, Call RL 5551 for details.

WHAT KIND OF MEN DO WOMEN ADORE?

Doctor Tells How Limp, Weak Men Get Vigor, Endurance with Vigovite, Wine-Like Elixir.

Maybe you think there's nothing in this case man stuff, but just let your wife or sweetheart find that you're weak, lacking in vigor and endurance, and you'll get contempt, pity and the gate—instead of love and adoration. Women adore men of force, action—not softies! When your arms encircle them at the dance they want to feel solid, vigorous, healthy flesh and muscle—not flabby skin and gaunt bone. No girl finds romance in skinny, puny arms and legs. No wedded bliss results from weakness in either sex.

That's why divorce courts are crowded. That's why divorce booths sell—New York physician: "This preference on the part of women is as old as the world. It's natural for a woman to seek the male strength on which to lavish her admiration and affection—men who have the ability to SET the pace as well as KEEP it. Women can't make men like this. This causes many divorces. But by far the majority can and will if only they take this plain, simple advice.

HOOK'S DEPENDABLE DRUG STORES

MONEY-BACK TRIAL OFFER

Get yourself a big bottle of Vigovite Elixir today, and take it regularly according to the plain, easy directions.

You'll like its bracing wine-like flavor.

It gives you vim, energy, the driving power and semiglow of a young man.

It gives you even more. Unless you return the remains of your bottle, money will be refunded. Specially priced. The

HOOK'S DEPENDABLE DRUG STORES

PROPOSE BAN ON RADIO NEWS

Publishers Take Action to Meet Competition by Broadcasters.

By United Press

NEW YORK, April 27.—A resolution dealing with various phases of the radio problem was adopted Wednesday by the forty-seventh annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

The resolution was drafted by the radio committee headed by E. H. Harris of the Richmond (Ind.) Palladium.

The resolution held that:

1. Newspapers should publish radio programs only when paid for as advertising.

2. The association should protest against the selling or giving away of news in advance of publication by press associations, since papers pay a large part of the news collecting cost.

3. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

4. All newspapers owning or affiliated with broadcasting stations should be requested to limit local news to brief bulletins so as not to work in the detriment of nonaffiliates.

5. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

6. All newspapers owning or affiliated with broadcasting stations should be requested to limit local news to brief bulletins so as not to work in the detriment of nonaffiliates.

7. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

8. All newspapers owning or affiliated with broadcasting stations should be requested to limit local news to brief bulletins so as not to work in the detriment of nonaffiliates.

9. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

10. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

11. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

12. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

13. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

14. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

15. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

16. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

17. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

18. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

19. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

20. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

21. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

22. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

23. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

24. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

25. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

26. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

27. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

28. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

29. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

30. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

31. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

32. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

33. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

34. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

35. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

36. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

37. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

38. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

39. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

40. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

41. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

42. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

43. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

44. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

45. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

46. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

47. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

48. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

49. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

50. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

51. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

52. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

53. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

54. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

55. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

56. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

57. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

58. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

59. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

60. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

61. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

62. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained through the newspapers."

63. News bulletins "in fairness to newspapers should be in the briefest form and prepared to whet the appetite of the listener for more news to be obtained