

Fruit With Meat Gives Gala Touch

Bananas, Oranges, and Pears Add to Dish's Attractiveness.

Miss Ruth Chambers, whose articles are featured in The Times, is a home economics lecturer and writer of wide experience. She is a member of the staff of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, has done considerable work in experimental cookery and is a director of note.

BY RUTH CHAMBERS

Have you ever wished to serve some extra-special dish for a gala occasion, to entertain your choicest guests, to celebrate an anniversary or just because you felt an urge to "step out" in a culinary way? Not only do you want your dinner to taste delicious, but you want it to look specially well, something a little different from the kind of roast or steak you've served so many times.

This "dressed" appearance, as well as new and delicious flavoring, may be achieved by the use of fruit in the main dish.

Oranges with roast pork, cranberries with ribs of beef, apples and pork chops, pears and leg of veal, mint apples and leg of lamb, bananas and steak, these are a few of the possible combinations, and here are recipes.

ROAST PORK WITH ORANGES

- 1 pork loin
- 6 oranges, uniform in size
- 6 sweet potatoes
- 6 marshmallows
- Butter
- Flour
- Salt
- Pepper

Having a loin of pork prepared at the market with the chine bone sawed loose from the ribs. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, dredge with flour and season with salt and pepper. If you have a meat thermometer, insert it so that the bulb reaches the center of the roast. Place roast on a rack in an uncovered roasting pan. Score for fifteen minutes in a hot oven (480 degrees F.). Reduce the temperature to 325 degrees F., and continue cooking until the roast is done. Allow thirty minutes per pound for roasting.

Cut a slice off the top of the oranges and scoop out the pulp. Scalloped the edges with a sharp knife. Pare and boil sweet potatoes. Mash. Mix with some of the orange pulp, season with salt, pepper and butter. Fill the orange cups with this mixture and place in oven to heat. Two or three minutes before serving remove from the oven, top each orange with a marshmallow and put back in the oven to puff and slightly brown the marshmallows. Serve

DASHING!

Chic takes a zig-zag course in Paris! A bright red felt hat from Le Monnier has cutouts through its crown through which grosgrain ribbon shows in a zig-zag design.

The sweater costume follows suit and is knitted with fascinating white stripes trailing down the long, tight sleeves, from the high, plain collar.

orange cups around roast pork on a large platter.

ROAST VEAL, STUFFED PEARS

One leg veal, 6 pears, halved; 1 package cream cheese, 1 teaspoon paprika, salt, pepper.

Wipe veal carefully. Rub with salt and pepper and place on rack in roasting pan with the skin side up. Insert meat thermometer so that the bulb reaches the center of the roast. Place in a very hot oven previously heated to 500 degrees Fahrenheit and sear without covering for fifteen or twenty minutes. At the end of this time reduce the temperature rapidly to 250 degrees Fahrenheit. Cover the roast and continue cooking until the roast is done.

Veal always is cooked well done. When the thermometer registers 160 degrees Fahrenheit, the roast is well done. Allow twenty-five minutes per pound. Do not add water.

Work paprika well into the cheese. Form into balls and place in the center of the pear halves. Place around the roast a few minutes before it is done. When the cheese melts, remove and serve around the roast.

Wedding of Miss Weyl Solemnized

Candle-Light Ceremony Is Conducted at Highland Club.

An impressive candle-light ceremony was solemnized this afternoon at the Highland Golf and Country Club when Miss Helen Weyl became the bride of Edward Paul Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gallagher of Terre Haute. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Weyl.

The Rev. George Dunn officiated before an altar banked with ferns, cathedral candles and shower candelabra.

Miss Margaret Harrison, violinist, and Mrs. Helen Harrison, Daily harpist, played "Song Without Words," by Mendelssohn, "Calm Is the Night," by Carl Bohn, and "The Enchanted Hour," by Hahn. "Lohengrin" by Wagner was played as the processional, and the "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn as the recessional. During the ceremony, they played "Speed Thee My Arrow."

Given by Father

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was groomed in ivory bridal satin with a coat of Chard lace, fashioned with puffed sleeves and a wide train. Her tulle veil, caught in the back with orange blossoms, was worn by Mrs. Harry Smith of Lowell, Mass., formerly Miss Florence Elymson of Indianapolis. She carried a bouquet of brides roses, lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Miss Helen Gallagher, sister of the groom, and the only attendant, wore a green chiffon with cape shoulder line and low back. The skirt was tight to the knees, flaring with a slight train. She wore a matching hat and carried a shower bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and blue delphinium.

Miss Weyl wore an Eleanor blue dress with tucked bodice and natty blue accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of pink sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Gallagher was dressed in navy with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Reception Follows

Paul Lee Hargitt was best man and Paul Rochford and Hanley Caraway ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the drawing room of the club, which was decorated with baskets of white bride roses, lilies and white snapdragons. Cathedral candles were used. A tiered wedding cake centered the table which was laid with a green organdy cloth over white satin. Antique Dresden candelabra held gold and white candles at each of the tables.

The couple left for a wedding trip, the bride traveling in a navy blue wool suit with azure fox trim and navy accessories. After May 15 they will be at home in the city.

Mrs. Gallagher was a graduate of Tudor Hall School for Girls, attended National Park seminary and was graduated from Butler university, where she was a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Plaids for Style

Plaid silk dresses are smarter than printed ones this spring. Many of them have jackets of solid colors and it is very chic to have a jacket of the same colored plaid in larger squares.

MINIMUM PAY BILL ASSAILED AS SERF MAKER

Matthew Woll Favors 5-Day Week, but Decries Law to Set Wages.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The proposed thirty-hour week bill would make serfs of American workers through its minimum wage provisions, Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, asserted in testimony today before the house labor committee.

He said he favored the five-day week and six-hour day. But he denounced bitterly Secretary of Labor Perkins' proposal to establish a national minimum wage level. Woll said such a provision would:

1. Deny to the workers the right to strike.
2. Force American labor into the political and revolutionary fields.
3. Make the low wages of unorganized workers the maximum wages of all workers.
4. Place in the hands of the secretary of labor the authority to socialize all American industry.

He suggested the licensing of manufacturers engaged in interstate trade, refusing licenses to those who do not pay good salaries to their workers.

Woll stressed his belief that newspapers and periodicals should be forced to operate under the thirty-hour-week bill if it becomes law.

Kiwanis Resolution Passed After Address by Admiral.

Resolution opposing curtailment of expenditures or abolishing any military or naval operations was adopted by the Indianapolis Kiwanis Club Wednesday following an address by Rear-Admiral T. T. Cluervier, United States navy.

Besides Admiral Cluervier, the last surviving officer of the U. S. S. Maine still in active service, a number of other navy and army, national guard and reserve officers were guests.

High tribute to Rear-Admiral William A. Moffett, who perished in the Akron crash, was paid by Cluervier, who was a lifelong friend of Moffett and who succeeded him as Great Lakes naval station commandant.

A Spring Centerpiece

A lovely centerpiece for a spring table consists of mottled pink carnations interspersed with a few lilies of the valley. Yellow roses mixed with a few taller purple flowers are also charming and spring-like.

SIMPLE TO GET RID OF ACID STOMACH NOW

According to many authorities, some 80% of the people of today have acid stomach. This because so many foods, comprising the modern diet, are acid forming foods.

It usually makes itself felt in sour stomach, indigestion, headaches, nausea, "gas," "biliousness," and most frequently in stomach pains that come about thirty minutes after eating. So you can easily tell if you have it.

Now Quickly and Easily Corrected

If you do have acid stomach, don't worry about it. You can correct it in a very simple manner. Just do this. It will alkalize your acid soaked stomach almost immediately. You will feel like another person. TAKE 2 teaspoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia with a glass of water every morning when you get up. Take another teaspoonful thirty minutes after eating. And another before you go to bed.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

What This Does

That's all you do. But you do it regularly, EVERY DAY, so long as you have any symptoms of distress. This acts to neutralize the stomach acids that foster your "upset" stomach, that invite headaches and that feeling of lassitude and lost energy.

Try it. Results will amaze you. Your head will be clear. You'll forget you have a stomach.

BUT—be careful that you get REAL milk of magnesia when you buy; genuine PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia. See that the name "Phillips" is stamped clearly on the label.
