

—Let's Go Fishing— FOUR ANGLERS REPORT GREAT SPORT IN NORTH

THE large gathering of women at Highland last Friday for an eighteen-hole invitational tournament brought the realization that less than a month away is the women's state championship, to be held over the same course, July 24-28, inclusive.

Mrs. Penn G. Skillern, who so pleasantly entertained the women at her club, Coquillard, in South Bend, last year, and proceeded to ascend to the title throne over the golf protests of our own Elizabeth Dunn, will be back in defense of her crown.

While Mrs. Skillern produces a very steady and sticky golf game, odds are about two to one she will not repeat as champion this year. While Miss Dunn is a favorite to regain her lost laurels, principally on the basis of her performance in the recent city championship at tricky Meridian Hills, still the reason for the odds being against Mrs. Skillern is not entirely piled up by Miss Dunn. Instead, she likewise finds herself faced with the onrush of youth for the title.

Last year Mrs. Skillern conquered Miss Alice Bells English of Lafayette. Miss English also was runner-up the year before at Avalon, when Miss Dunn regained her crown.

Some day Miss English is going to shake off this runner-up complex, because she has too good a golf game to do otherwise.

Henry Tolley and J. Barnhardt were the scene of a dandy catch of a weasel hunt on the main street of Frankfort Sunday. Mr. Weasel made the mistake of coming to town in daylight, and the chase was on.

He eluded the full pack for some time, but finally made the mistake of darting into a restaurant, where a sharpshooting cook sent him to weasel heaven.

Billie Cummings proved to local friends that he was as good with the rod and reel as he is on the race track, returning with enough bass, red eye and pickerel to supply them all.

We fear very much that the unknown species of fish caught by L. H. Roesel in White river Sunday was dogfish.

Then there is Miss Dorothy Ellis, who was a semi-finalist at South Bend last year and runner up to Miss Dunn in 1929 in '29 in her first trip around the place.

Mrs. Frances Weiler of Gary has a great golf game and ideal temperament, while a little South Bend golfer, Miss Dorothy Gill, is now making a bid to win over her geniality and get a little fire to change from a semi-finalist to a champion. These are the odds and ends of the tournament as being more than just threats.

Besides Miss Dunn, there will be other contestants, including Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Mrs. Stevenson won in 1922, Mrs. Fred Holmes of Lafayette captured the title in 1923, Mrs. Robert Gipson of Naomi Hill, now Mrs. Robert Gipson of Highland, took the title in 1925, year before Mrs. Stevenson. Mrs. Stevenson first winning at the Indianapolis Country club in 1926. Miss Dunn won her fifth state title in 1928, but Mrs. Stevenson did well at South Bend last year, but Mrs. E. Bulson of Ft. Wayne, who won the title in 1929, did not put in a year and with Mrs. Bulson shares the honors of the field. She last defended her crown in 1929.

After Mrs. Stevenson won in 1922, Mrs. Stevenson held the first match play tournament held by the South Bend Country club president, Mrs. Harold M. Bennett of Highland. Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Gipson of Naomi Hill, now Mrs. Robert Gipson of Highland, the corresponding secretary for this year's tournament, met after the play last year and after a year of hard work, one of the things discussed was the individual entry fee. That figure being $10.00. The individual entry fee will stand for this year as it can not be changed until after the business meeting.

There will be the usual four-player team championship again this year, won every year by Mrs. Stevenson, but this year when Coquillard took the trophy, and in 1927, when Ft. Wayne won the honors.

The records show that Miss Elizabeth Abbott fired the lowest score ever to capture medal honors, an 81 over her home course, Avalon, in 1931. Miss Dunn had an 82 last year.

When the officers of the association, Mrs. L. H. Cooper of Ft. Wayne, and Mrs. M. Bennett of Highland, received the invitation to the annual meeting of the Indiana State Association, the correspondence secretary for this year's tournament, met after the play last year and after a year of hard work, one of the things discussed was the individual entry fee. That figure being $10.00. The individual entry fee will stand for this year as it can not be changed until after the business meeting.

Report of calls to The Times that we have missed are plentiful, so we will again ask you to call Belmont 3948 after 10 a. m. or mail a letter to Lefty Lee, in care of this newspaper.

M'ADOO IS CHAMPION OF SENATE'S FLIERS

Californian Has Crossed Continent

45 Times in His Own Plane.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—William G. McAdoo is close to 70, yet he holds the high speed and distance records for senatorial flying.

He flies his own, a $20,000 Lockheed-Vega with a top speed of 191 miles an hour.

Senator McAdoo has his own pilot, Harry Ashe, former army flier. Ashe has piloted Senator McAdoo across the continent forty-five times, and more than 275,000 miles without an accident.
