

POLICEMAN IS VINDICATED IN 'BEATING' CASE

Accuser of Sergeant Kruse Is Sentenced to 30 Days on Farm.

Sergeant Ed Kruse, accused of beating up James Jordan, in arresting him, was vindicated today in criminal court on an appeal by Jordan.

Criminal Judge Frank P. Baker fined Jordan $1 and costs and sentenced him to thirty days at the penal farm for resisting an officer. The municipal court sentence on this charge was $50 and costs and six months. Baker also assessed a $3 and costs fine on a profanity charge, the same as in the lower court.

Jordan was arrested when he is

CITY COUNCIL PUTS TAX ON POULTRY SALES

Ordinance Includes License Fees Ranging Up to $200.

Ordinance for regulation of the sale of poultry was passed by city council Monday night and includes license fees ranging from $1 to $200 a year.

Farmers selling poultry and eggs from their own land will be required to pay $1 for a card. Retailers will pay a license fee of $25 a year. All others selling poultry and eggs will be classed as itinerant peddlers and required to pay an annual license fee of $200.

Other ordinances adopted include:

Permission for sale of a $161,000

After five days of captivity in the hands of kidnappers who demanded $75,000 for his safe return, August Luer, 77-year-old, Alton (Ill.) retired banker and broker, was returned safely to his home after payment of a sum reported to have been $10,000. The aged man was unharmed. He is shown above with his wife after they had been united at their home.

alleged to have used loud and abusive language late at night in the office of Dr. Tell C. Waltermire, 1339 North Pennsylvania street.

Residents of the neighborhood upheld Kruse, asserting Jordan was drunk and attacked the officer.

bond issue to obtain funds to pay past due water and light bills.

Permission for purchase of an ambulance for the city hospital.

Ordinances introduced include one to make Fairfield avenue from Central avenue to Woodland drive a preferential thoroughfare, and the same classification for the entire length of Michigan street.

PRESIDENT REMAINS IN

Still Suffering From Cold Caught on Week-End Trip.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Still suffering from the effects of a cold he caught while on a week-end yachting trip, President Roosevelt today remained in his study at the White House, where he worked on his domestic recovery program.

CLAIM CONFESSIONS IN BANDIT CASES

Two Alleged Members of Gang 'Crack' Police Say.

Confessions from two of an alleged bandit gang declared by police to have committed fourteen robberies in Indianapolis recently, including the stickup on the Hugh McK. Lanigan estate, July 7, have been obtained, according to the police.

Paul Parker, 21, of 1225 East Sixteenth street and Richard Turner, 21, of 2030 Ludlow avenue, both in Marion county jail charged with robbery, are alleged by the police to have admitted their parts in the holdups.

Noble Claycombe, 30, of 1233 North State avenue and William Shaw, 19, of 1225 North State avenue, two other alleged members of the gang, are being held in Muncie. James Turner, 51, father of Richard, is held on a charge of conspiring in the robberies, though not actually participating in any.

Among the palace treasures of Persia is mentioned a $10,000 gold globe on which the seas are made of emeralds, countries are of rubies and other stones, and the frame is of gold, crusted with diamonds.
