

LIONEL BARRYMORE HAS ROLE OF 85-YEAR-OLD MAN

'The Warrior's Husband' Is a Satire and Burlesque on the Problem If Women Went to War and Ruled the Nation While Men Remained at Home.

'THE STRANGER'S RETURN' a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production of the currently popular Phil Stong novel of rural life, co-starring Lionel Barrymore and Miriam Hopkins, is on view at Loew's Palace.

Franchot Tone fills a featured spot in the strong supporting cast which includes such noted screen players as Stuart Erwin, Irene Hervey, Tad Alexander and Allen Carbyle.

'The Stranger's Return' is Phil Stong's second novel, following in the wake of his recent best-seller, 'State Fair'.

King Vidor, one of the screen's foremost directorial minds, was in charge of production of the picture. Vidor, who directed 'Big Parade' in the silent days, has such talking pictures as 'The Champ,' 'Bird of Paradise,' and 'Cynara' to his credit.

'The Stranger's Return' is a story of an 85-year-old patriarch, portrayed by Lionel Barrymore, who lives on a fine farm which was founded and pioneered by his family. Distrustful of his relatives, who are waiting until he dies so that they can grab the fine farm, Barrymore is quite happy when his granddaughter, Miriam Hopkins, comes to the farm in order to find the peace and contentment she failed to get in the city because of a marital tragedy.

Barrymore introduces his granddaughter to a college-bred farmer, Franchot Tone, and a clandestine romance begins at once. The romance is destined for a tragic end as Tony already has a devoted wife and baby son, which serves to dramatize a romantic situation that turns into a small town scandal.

Filmed almost entirely out-of-doors, the picture captures the earthiness of the farm and gives to the screen an almost dimensional view of a countryside domain where drama is hidden in the wheat fields. All of the rugged beauty and simplicity of farm life is as real as the scope of photography permits.

As Grandpa Storr, Barrymore is said to have one of the most interesting characterizations of his brilliant screen career. Miriam Hopkins, one of the most popular feminine stars on the screen today, is afforded the best opportunity she has had in her role of the city girl who goes to the farm to find the peace and contentment she failed to find in the city.

Holding the featured spot on the short subjects program is an ever-popular Our Gang comedy, 'Forgotten Babies,' and an interesting, as well as educational short, 'Inflation,' which explains the meaning of the term as well as showing indications of business progress since the passing of the inflation bill by congress, by means of graphic charts.

World events as pictured by the Hearst Metrotone News round out the screen program.

GAY FARGE IS NOW AT PALACE

'The Warrior's Husband,' Fox comedy featuring Elissa Landi, is a photoplay upon the successful stage play of the same name by Julian Thompson. The story is said to be one of the most novel ever portrayed in a motion picture.

The film, as did the play, deals with the era of the mythical Amazons, when the women were what ever passed for the pants of the men in those days, and the men were considered the fair sex.

In what is reported as a new way of handling a comic situation, 'The Warrior's Husband' reveals an intimate love story set amid the pomp and the glories of a strange past. There are legends of fighting women who go out to do battle and conquer, and to bring home for their men the prizes of victorious war.

The featured role of the new photoplay is portrayed by Miss Landi, and Marjorie Rambeau is cast as the towering, dominating leader of the Amazons, Ernest Truex, who will be remembered for his performance in 'Whistling in the Dark,' his first screen role, has the principal masculine part.

Others in the cast are David Manners, Helene Madison, the Olympic swimming champion, Helen Wayne, Maude Eburne, Claudia Coleman, Ferdinand Gottschalk, John Sheehan and Lionel Barrymore among others. Walter Lang directed from the adaptation by Ralph Spence and Sonya Levien.

Short subjects appearing on the bill are Movietone News, 'Beau Best,' a Pooch cartoon, and a sport reel entitled 'The World of Sports.'

AMBASSADOR TO OFFER MACK MOVIE

The penalty of the 'blessed innocence' of youth—a hypocritical terminology for ignorance, according to the learned Judge Ben Lindsey, who contends that 'innocence' of the plain facts of life is absolutely criminal when it can easily be displaced by knowledge—forms the theme of Columbia's vivid and powerful drama, 'What Price Innocence?' which opens Sunday at the Ambassador, formerly the Terminal.

Written by Willard Mack, famous playwright, the production pounds home with tremendous force the wisdom of enlightening youth in matters which they are too often left to learn for themselves—many times much too late.

The story centers around two young girls. One has been warned of the dangers and pitfalls which abound in the path of youth and

Park Will Have Big Attendance

Times Readers to Be Special Guests at Riverside Tonight.

Riverside amusement park will be host to Indianapolis Times readers tonight, and the management has arranged to care for many thousands of the big rides and other fun concessions, where the fare will be cut in half to all who present Times Fun Night coupons.

These coupons are printed daily in all editions of The Times and will be accepted as half of the fare on the Thriller, Motor Speedway, Aerial Swing, Pretzel, Whip, Mill Chutes, Merry-Go-Round, Flash, Dogem, Fun Castle and Topsy Town.

Unless patrons have The Times coupons, the regular fares will be charged. No admission is charged to enter the park at any time.

Riverside boasts of a wide variety of entertainment features, and not the least of these is its ideal locale for picnic parties.

The beautiful shady grove adjoining the lagoon is supplied with hundreds of tables and benches for outdoor luncheons, and a free checking service is maintained for baskets or other parcels.

In the picnic grove is located the new Riverside dance palace, under the management of E. W. Murrish, and with Hal Bailey and His Collegians furnishing the music.

For roller skating there is the Riverside roller rink, the largest and most beautiful in the middle west.

There are two immense coaster rides, the Thriller and the Flash; three water rides, the Mill Chutes, the Canals of Venice and the Motor Boats on the Lagoon; the towering Aerial Swing, the good old Merry-Go-Round, the hilarious Whip, the mysterious Pretzel, the eerie Haunted House, the glamorous Fun Castle, the uproarious traffic tangle of the Dogem, the thrilling speed dashes on the Motor Speedway and a hundred and one fascinating games on the half-mile of midway.

De luxe dining rooms of Golding and Grote, Riverside caterers, are located at various places in the grounds, where anything from a hot dog sandwich to a banquet may be obtained on short notice.

The other has been kept in ignorance by a doting mother whose excuse is "but nothing like that could ever happen to our child!"

In spite of the warnings of the family physician, the parents refuse to enlighten their daughter. The result forms the basis of one of the most powerful screen dramas ever filmed.

Willard Mack, the author, also heads the large cast of featured players which includes Jean Parker, Betty Grable, Minna Gombell, Bryant Washburn, Ben Alexander, Maurice Murphy.

ALAMO PRESENTS TWO FILM FEATURES

The Alamo theater will present, starting today, a double feature program. Bob Steele will be seen in his newest first-run feature, 'The Gallant Fool.' This time big Bob picks the big top and sawdust ring for his picture.

As a two-fisted, gun-drawing cowlad, he joins a circus for the fun in it. Instead, he finds himself in a heap of trouble because the circus boss has made certain death of a shady nature. Steele gets an opportunity to iron out not only his problems but also several others especially a pretty rope-walker artist.

He falls in love with her and after a thrilling romance the climax comes to a happy ending.

The second feature will have Slim Summerville and Zazu Pitts in 'Out All Night,' a farce loaded with laughs and funny situations. This picture is said to be the funniest vehicle ever made for the comic pal.

The last and final chapter of 'Whispering Shadow' will also be shown at the matinee performances.

ROUNDING ROUND THEATERS With WALTER D. HICKMAN

Entire carrier organization of the circulation department of The Times will be guests at the Lyric theater Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at a special showing of 'College Humor,' Paramount's all-star musical comedy film which is now playing here in its second and final week.

The newspaper boys and girls, approximately one thousand strong, will march from The Times building to the Lyric via Kentucky avenue and Illinois street. 'College Humor,' which will be shown at the Lyric for the newboys, is enacted by a large and distinguished cast of stage, screen, and radio stars.

Bing Crosby, Mary Carlisle, Richard Arlen, Jack Oakie, Mary Kornman, George Burns, Gracie Allen and Lona Andre are among the leading players in the cast. Wesley Ruggles directed. 'College Humor' utilizes music, songs and romance to unfold its rollicking story of campus activities at a mythical college known as Midwest university.

Three new songs which are rapidly being established as smash hits are introduced in 'College Humor' by Bing Crosby. They are 'Learn to Croon,' 'Moonstruck' and 'Down the Old Ox Road.' The lyrics and music were written especially for this picture by Sam Coslow and Arthur Johnston at the Paramount studios.

The Times carrier organization will also see—in addition to 'College Humor'—the entire short subject program at the Lyric, including a Terrytoon cartoon, a Tom Howard comedy, a thrilling novelty reel entitled 'The Cougar's Mistake,' and the newest issue of Paramount news showing scenes of Italo Balbo and his air armada arriving in Chicago.

The missionary drama, 'Soup, Sand and Sagebrush,' by Maude Hicks Hickman, will be presented by the Christian Endeavor Society of First Evangelical church, corner New York and East streets, on Sunday at 7:30 p. m. This play presents the work of pioneer frontier missionaries among the American Indians in the southwest, and relates the story of the conversion of an eastern society woman into an ardent advocate of Christian missionary work.

It has strong humorous touches, but carries a wholesome spiritual message throughout. The public is invited to this program, which will take the place of the regular Sunday evening services. This will be the last Sunday evening service until August 27.

There will be a display of fireworks at Riverside amusement park Sunday night, it is announced, the pyrotechnic program to be in the nature of a free attraction for the entertainment of patrons. A number of beautiful set pieces and aerial bombs will comprise the program, and the display will be presented in the center of the park.
