

By Eddie Ash

N. Y. Ring Fans Hope for Better Results

Many Changes Occur in Gotham Setup

NEW YORK boxing fans are awaiting with no little interest the start of a new indoor fistic season, according to a survey made by the United Press. Just as there are "new deals" in many other things, so is there one in the boxing situation in Gotham. No one would have believed one year ago the drastic changes which have taken place. For one thing there is a new heavyweight champion, Primo Carnera.

Then there's a new guiding hand at Madison Square Garden, the world's boxing capital. Colonel John Reed Kilpatrick has succeeded William Carey as president.

OF the New York boxing commission, which was headed for some time by the dynamic James A. Farley, only one member remains. He is General John Phelan, who succeeded Farley as chairman. William Muldoon is dead. In place of Farley and Muldoon are D. Walker Wear and J. Bill Brown. Jack Sharkey has passed from the championship picture, a victim of Carnera's right uppercut. Maxie Baer from the west coast has succeeded Max Schmeling as challenger to the throne.

MAX SCHMELING may reign as a headliner again for a while if he returns to the ring wars, but it's none too probable that he will get another shot at the crown he won sitting down and lost on a decision. Sharkey is toying with the idea of fighting "frequently and often" this fall and winter, but the guess is that the Boston sailor is through with the bruising sport and will hang up his gloves permanently. He never liked to train anyway, and he has plenty of money saved away.

ALL the principals of this summer's chief heavyweight show have been involved in affairs of the heart recently. Jack Dempsey, the promoter, has married Hannah Williams; Schmeling has married Ann Ondra, blond Czech-Slovakian film comedienne; Max Baer, who romanced with June Knight while his wife, Dorothy Dunbar, sought a divorce, has kissed and made up with Dorothy. And there's Primo Carnera, the Man Mountain, still pursued in a legal way by a London waitress, who obtained a breach of promise judgment against him that looks uncollectable. Satchel Peete can not pay off judgments and still eat.

JIMMY M'LEMORE, matchmaker of the South Meridian street arena wrestling shows, will introduce a grappler from this city Friday night for who a whole year now has been tossing the boys about in the smaller cities over the state. The new grip artist is Walter Hickman, 160-pounder, described by M'lemore as the "Packing House Pig Sticker." Hickman is employed at Kingan's and moved here from Lexington, Ky. He was an amateur rassler in the Blue Grass state and turned pro after he became an adopted Hoosier. M'lemore says the former Kentuckian is sure-fire as future top talent. He will make his Indianapolis debut in the semi-final match at the south side arena Friday night and will tackle the veteran Speedy O'Neal of Shelbyville.

BUZZ BOYLE, Brooklyn outfielder, starred at football and basketball in high school at Cincinnati, drifted into baseball, made good, and climbed the ladder to the big show. Little attention was paid his diamond ability in his home town owing to his greater fame in other sports.

The Eppa or Jephtha part of pitcher Eppa Rixey's name is the fanciful tag given him by a sports writer. The veteran beanpole southpaw has no middle name.

Professional football magnates are considering a world series patterned after baseball's annual fall classic.

It costs $40 less than $1,000 to send a horse to the post in the Hambletonian stakes, the Kentucky Derby of the harness horse world.

Urban Faber and Herb Pennock are the only American League players in active service who were around when Babe Ruth made his debut in 1914.

Moreland Begins Defense of Western Honors at Memphis

By United Press

MEMPHIS, July 26.—Gus Moreland, champion from Dallas, began defense of his western amateur golf crown here today, opposing Sid Salomon, St. Louis, as first round of match play got under way over the rain-swept course.

Moreland, who abstained from medal efforts, missed the drenching rains which harassed qualifiers through the thirty-six holes of the preceding day.

News and Gossip of Semi-Pro, Amateur Ball Clubs

Shelby Service defeated St. Patricks at Beach Grove Sunday. Each team has now defeated the other. St. Pat's won the first game, 9 to 8. P. M. Schenck and Brandt were best for the winners Sunday. McLean and the winners allowed nine hits and scored 12 runs. The team of Givens, Peeler and O'Connell starred for St. Pat's. Burket, Givens and Givens were best for the losers. Three errors and four walks aided Shelby service nine in its run scoring.

Oak Hill Spartans playing in the 18-year-old class have won their last six games and are in a game or two for Friday afternoon or Saturday afternoon. Mustangs and Paul Street Trojans, not far behind, are in the lead. South Meridian street or phone Drexel 6639.

The J. A. A. C. is to be the only all-Jewish team in the state, lost a hard-fought game to the Spartans. They are without a game for next Sunday and desire to hear from a strong state champion. Write to Daniel Merriarty, manager, 1606 Winter avenue.

Belleview A. C. is having strength in their lineup with addition of the Dianes. The team, which includes the dianes, to meet Highland A. C. at 4 p. m. Saturday. The Dianes are the only game and a half ahead of the third-place Corsairs.

George Gibson's Bucaneers, 4 to 3, and 4 to 1, while Chicago's three ace flingers were on the mound.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.

In the men's division, Karl K. Kamrath, seeded No. 8, was beaten by John H. Doeg, former national champion, but unseeded.

Both came through the second round Tuesday along with five other seeded players, and seven seeded stars in the women's singles. One seeded player in each division was eliminated.

Caroline Babcock, third in national ranking and seeded No. 2, was eliminated by Baroness Maud Levi.