

KIDNAP SCARE IN HOLLYWOOD PROVES HOAX

Suspect Admits Lying
About Pretty Boy Floyd
Plot to Nab Film Children.

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—A brief sensation caused by reports that Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd planned to kidnap the two children of Richard Barthelmess was branded as a hoax today by federal agents.

The report, investigators said, came from a Texas aviator who was detained secretly after he is alleged to have confessed he manufactured the "plot."

It was reported that the flier approached Barthelmess to warn him that Floyd, a notorious midwest character, would abduct the children and fly across the Mexican border, holding them for $250,000 ransom.

Barthelmess provided a bodyguard for the children while federal agents took the Texas man into custody.

He then named another man as author of the plot, it was claimed, but when this second man was arrested the Texas man was said to have admitted the hoax was his own.

Sued for Divorce

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—Ernest Torrence Jr., son of the late film character actor, was sued for divorce Monday by Mrs. Lillione Green Torrence, Beverly Hills socialite, who charged he told her she no longer charmed him.

Torrence left their home last May 26, she said, after she accused him of being rude to their guests at a party. He frequently embarrassed her by refusing to attend social functions, she added. They married in Beverly Hills in 1930.

Veteran Producer Dies

By United Press
HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 1.—Sam Rork, 30, veteran screen producer and once manager of the Flamingo nightclub, died of a heart attack on Monday, after undergoing an operation.

Rork came to Hollywood in 1918 as an associate of Mack Sennett. He was a producer in other studios, his last picture being Clara Bow's "Call Her Savage."

Mae May 'See the Judge'

By United Press
HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 1.—Mae West expressed herself entirely willing today to "come up and see the judge any time" about that $206 fur bill.

Told about the suit of a Chicago furrier against her, the actress declared that "they weren't fox furs; they were catskins; I didn't do him wrong; he did me wrong."

Miss West said she took a $425 coat to the furrier to have a white fox collar added, and that a controversy arose over the kind of animal that contributed the skins.

She has filed countersuit for $425 as the furrier kept the coat, she said.

Engagement Confirmed

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—The engagement of Dorothy Poynton, 18-year-old Olympic diving champion, to Nelson L. Hill, Hollywood business man, was confirmed today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Poynton.

The young swimmer was to arrive here today from New York where she has appeared in several aquatic meets.

Poynton said that while he was not opposing the engagement, he felt that it should be a long one "because of Dorothy's age."

Asked about reports that the two already had married, Poynton said he and his wife "had not been informed of it and do not believe it."

Seeks Reno Divorce

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—Gus Sonnenberg, former Dartmouth athlete, who became one of the world's wrestling champions, has disclosed that he will seek a Reno divorce from his screen actress wife, Judith Allen.

"Although I love my wife we just don't seem to be able to get along," Sonnenberg explained.

Mrs. Sonnenberg, the former Marie Elliott, Boston society girl, adopted the name of Judith Allen when Cecil De Mille chose her as leading woman for one of his pictures.

BENEFIT BY RULES OF NRA

Farm Bureau Awaiting Wheat Slash Instructions

Organization of Marion County Farmers May Start This Week.

The Indiana Farm Bureau today is awaiting receipt of instructions and material for organization of wheat farmers in Marion county, expected this week from M. L. Wilson, wheat production administrator, Washington, D. C.

The federal wheat control program requires appointment by the county agent of a temporary committee of from seven to nine growers, who will conduct community meetings, explaining the program and benefit payments, and inviting farmers to make applications.

A permanent organization will be formed by applicants to make allotments of acreage for fall seeding and determine benefit payments.

The quota of Indiana for benefit payments on the 1933 wheat crop is 14,290,877 bushels, which is 54 per cent of the five-year average production in the state.

Indiana wheat farmers signing contracts to reduce acreage up to 20 per cent, if asked to do so, will be eligible to receive benefit payments of 28 cents a bushel on 54 per cent of their average production for the last five years.

A total of $4,001,445.66 will be available in the state if all Indiana wheat growers sign contracts.

The bureau has urged all farmers to support the program as part of the NRA drive.

MARION MAN NAMED HOME LOAN MANAGER

Jack Strickland to Direct Office in Farmers' Trust Building.

Jack Strickland of Marion today was named manager of the Indianapolis office of the Indiana Home Owners' Loan Corporation, and state headquarters here in the Farmers' Trust Company, 150 East Market street, opened officially.

No loans will be considered until offices are opened in White, Wayne, South Bend, Evansville, and Gary, said E. Kirk McKinney, Indiana manager of the loan corporation.

Other office aids here are yet to be named, said McKinney. The Indianapolis district, comprising the central section of the state, will serve the following counties:

Marion, Greene, Monroe, Bartholomew, Decatur, Ripley, Union, Dearborn, Brown, Switzerland, Franklin, Fayette, Wayne, Henry, Hancock, Hendricks, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, Tipton, Clinton, Tippecanoe, Warren and Jay.

FIRE TOLL IN CITY IS BIG ECONOMIC DRAIN

Annual Per Capita Cost $9 to $11, Survey by C. of C. Shows.

Cost of fires in Indianapolis was classified today as one of the greatest economic drains, according to a survey made by the community plan committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Joe Rand Beckett, chairman of the committee, declared that tabulation of costs of fires reveal that in the areas of greatest economic drain $183,000 was spent for the period of May 1, 1932, to May 1, 1933.

Only 10 per cent of the city's population lives in the areas of greatest economic drain and 1.7 per cent of the total cost of $1,097,000 spent for fire protection is chargeable against these areas. It was estimated that between $9 and $11 per capita was spent annually for fires in these areas.

NRA OIL CODE FAILS TO ORDER PRICE FIXING

Major Companies Program
Also Hit in Decision
Against Licensing.

BY MARSHALL McNEIL
Times Special Writer
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The oil states may produce as much oil as they care to under the petroleum production code drafted by NRA.

But the federal government, protecting all states, will step in and tell them how much they can send across their borders.

These states will learn from an unbiased federal agency the facts regarding national production and consumption. They may be guided by them or not.

If they produce more oil than they can consume at home or export under the federal regulation, they will be permitted to "steal in their own oil."

Thus Hugh Johnson, recovery administrator, explained the production code to sweltering oil men gathered in the ornate flag-draped United States Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

Oil Men to Talk Tonight

Tonight the oil men will be given a chance to talk; to protest or acclaim the NRA plan for regulating their industry.

The NRA oil code was a blow to the program of the American Petroleum Institute, which is dominated by the major companies, for it contained no provisions for price fixing or licensing, those items that Harry Sinclair is reported to have wanted so badly.

It does not provide for regulation of petroleum production from above, from Washington, except where oil enters into interstate commerce. It does not require that the wildcatter in Texas, Oklahoma or California has to come to Washington and say, "Please, Mr. President, may I dig a well?"

Lease System Is Considered

And of particular importance to motorists everywhere it is silent on the "lease and agency" system whereby major companies control filling stations to the detriment, so they claim, of the independent producers, refiners and marketers.

But General Johnson explained this: The case for and against the "lease and agency" system is before the federal trade commission. The President will ask that a report be made within thirty days. If the trade commission finds the system is an unfair trade practice, it will be outlawed without NRA stepping in.

If it approves the system, the oil code drafters may decide on their own whether to include any mention of it.

Forty-Hour Week Provided

As to labor, the code carries out the agreement reported last week: For reduction, refining, drilling and pipe line operations, forty-hour week for clerical employees and thirty-six hours for others, with the right to work a maximum of forty hours per week for any six-week period within any twenty-six-week period, but not more than eight hours a day. Minimum rates of pay have a regional spread of from 45 to 55 cents per hour.

'Good' Idea?

Vacations for Janitors in City Schools Depends on Diligence.

INDUSTRY is its own reward, the Indianapolis school board believes.

Janitors who have their school buildings cleaned will get vacations with pay this summer, according to A. B. Good, school business director.

"Those that have, will; those who don't, won't," stated Good in answer to the question as to the probability of vacations.

The procrastinating janitors who have failed to clean up their buildings are expected to spend their time working in order to prepare for the September opening.

CLEMENCY PLEA IS AIDED BY SPRINGER

Former G. O. P. Governor Candidate Urges Leniency for Convicted Thief.

Raymond S. Springer, who was the Republican candidate against Governor Paul V. McNutt, appeared before the state pardon board today on behalf of Jess E. Derringer of Connersville, Springer's home city.

Derringer was one of a trio sentenced from Ripley county to the Indiana state prison for grand larceny. He was given one to ten years for theft of a sow with ten suckling pigs and eighteen sacks of wheat.

The other two men involved already have been paroled, Springer told the board.

Several other cases, including three life term murderers were under consideration.

Cops Trap Two in Act of 'Laying In' Winter's Clothing Store.

FIRST harbinger of a prospective long, cold winter, was reported by police today.

Imitating animals which some observers insist grow heavy coats of fur when a cold, cold winter is coming, two burglar suspects, who believe in the Boy Scout motto, "Be Prepared," were stocking up for the winter in a store owned by C. H. Jackson, at 1652 Hoyt avenue, early today, when their labors were interrupted by police.

Called to the store at 2:40 a. m., officers arrested Bernard Johnson, 21, 329 Leeds avenue, and Paul Fuller, 22, of 306 North Lynhurst drive.

In a vacant room at the rear of the store, officers said they found fifteen pairs of men's trousers, valued at $37.50, and sixteen pairs of shoes, worth $48, piled up and ready to be hauled away.

Police said both Johnson and Fuller were wearing gloves, when arrested, avoiding the possibility of fingerprints.

Officers were informed a third man left in a car before they arrived.

ARREST FOUR IN PORCH ROBBERY

Woman, 3 Men Suspected in $640 Holdup in City Home.

Three men and a woman were held under high bond by police today following holdup of William Moore, 68, of 416 North Oxford street, Monday night by two bandits who, Moore said, robbed him of $640.

Moore reported he found the two men in his porch swing when he returned home late Monday night, from a bank a few days before.

the men explaining they were walking and had become tired.

One of the men asked for a drink Moore said, the two accompanying him into the house where one drew a gun and robbed him.

A few hours later police arrested Clarence Cook, 2337 1/2 East Washington street, and Harold Dwiggins, 4106 East Tenth street, who the officers said they were informed had visited another man last week and invited him to participate in the robbery.

They also arrested Paul Tooley, 459 West Thirty-first street, and Miss Rose Bailey, 2337 1/2 East Washington street, Cook's address. All four were held on vagrancy charges.

The informant told police the men who visited him said they knew Moore had withdrawn $800 from a bank a few days before.

COUNTY MAY GO ON SHORT WEEK

Study 40-Hour Schedule for Adoption by Office Employees.

Marion county employees may go on a 40-hour week in an effort to place the sign of the blue eagle on the windows of the courthouse.

Ernest Marker, county commissioner, said today that the commissioners planned to discuss, within the next few days, placing all offices and employees on a 40-hour basis and, at the same time, hold down the number of employees.
