'TIME OF END' NEAR, VOLIVA WARNS WORLD

This Dying Age to Expire Completely in 1935 and 1936, Is Claim.

By United Press
ZION, Ill., Aug. 11.—The "time of the end" already is upon a troubled world, Wilbur Glenn Voliva predicted in a final warning today.

"The world stage is all set, and the final characters are coming into view," proclaimed the religious overseer of Zion, and most prominent proponent of the theory that the earth is flat.

"The world has had panics, but never a depression like the present one, which has the whole world except Palestine in its grasp, and gradually will ripen into the Great Tribulation, the terrible day of the judgments of God the Almighty, the 'time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation.'"

This dying age will expire completely, Voliva declared, in 1935-36. He based his computation upon Biblical passages which already have fulfilled, he said, predictions plainly inscribed centuries ago.

"The world is indeed very sick," he said. "We are rapidly approaching a climax. It can not be avoided. The disease will have to run its course."

The general overseer of Zion's religious cult, successor in 1917 to John Alexander Dowie, has long been prominent in Zionist affairs. Ordained to the ministry in 1889, he was at various times theological student, church elder and pastor.

His Zionist activities took Voliva to Chicago, Cincinnati and to Zion, Australia, where he was overseer for six years.

After each trip "around" the world, the religious leader has insisted that he did not go "around," but across. A suit seeking involuntary bankruptcy was filed against the leader and his cult.

Using a "measuring rod" 2,520 years long, Voliva warned that four epochal years now are ending the "Times of the Gentiles."

"Men, deceived by Satan, dream of a warless world, but feverish preparations are going on among all nations for the great battle of Armageddon, which will take place at the end of Daniel's Seventieth Week," Voliva said the Scriptures had promised.

"It will be followed by the beginning of the millennium, the golden age, under the personal rule of the Son of David, the Lord Jesus Christ."
