INDIANAPOLIS
HOMES Are Going on STRIKE!

YOUR sofas, your chairs, your very walls, are "fed up" with the depression. They've given you service until it hurts. Now they hear talk of better times and they're crying aloud for attention.

The sofa's sick and tired of going threadbare. The one big easy chair is through doing the work of three chairs. That lamp table refuses to go on being chief book and bottle holder. In short, Indianapolis homes are demanding reinforcements and replacements!

Every day here in Ayres Downstairs, new furniture and rugs are appearing fresh and new in design and style—and bought at the last wholesale "lows." The carpenters whom you've seen at work on the floor these past weeks are disappearing, and now we are ready to serve you in peace and quiet—with new furniture and rugs so that you may fix up your home before it takes the final step and goes on strike!
