

DEATH CLAIMS
WIDOW, 20-YEAR
CITY RESIDENT

Funeral of Mrs. Kate G. Leake Held; Burial in Illinois.

Funeral services for Mrs. Kate Gage Leake, 84, widow of John B. Leake, and resident of Indianapolis for twenty years, were held at 10 today in the Husey & Titus funeral home, 951 North Delaware street. Burial will be in Charleston, Ill.

Mrs. Leake died Thursday at her home, 2545 North Alabama street. She was born in Patriot, Switzerland county, and came to Indianapolis in 1875. After living here a short time, she moved away and returned here twenty years ago.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. S. H. Wright, Indianapolis, and Mrs. William H. Fowler, Central City, Ky.; a son, B. J. Leake, Chicago; and a daughter, Mrs. E. W. Ormond, Dallas, Tex.

Following an illness of several months, Mrs. Margaret Schreck Swan, 68, wife of James M. Swan, secretary and treasurer of the Sentinel Printing Company, died Thursday in her home, 1102 Eugene street.

Funeral services will be held at 2 Saturday in McNeely & Sons mortuary, 1828 North Meridian street. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Swan was born in Marion county and had lived all her life here except a few years of her early womanhood, which she spent in northern Indiana. She had been a member of the Methodist church since 1884 and attended Central Avenue M. E. church.

Survivors, besides the husband, include two daughters, Mrs. Earl W. Wells and Miss Louise E. Swan; a sister, Mrs. Emma R. Zimmerman; and three grandchildren, Margaret, Jean and Alberta Wells.

NEW TAVERN TO OPEN ON OLD SALOON SITE

Restaurant, Beer Room to Be Located at 117 North Illinois St.

The once-popular Dan Smith saloon, 117 North Illinois street, which died a sudden death as result of prohibition, will be reborn Saturday in Swiss tavern style, with opening of the Pretzel-Bell tavern on the site of the famous saloon.

The new establishment will be divided into two rooms, with a restaurant in front and beer room in the rear. It is owned by Russell Johnson, Indianapolis, and Philip Stapp, Richmond, and will be managed by Henry W. Schmidt, a native of Germany and formerly with some of the nation's most famous hotels and restaurants.

The tavern will open at 11 a. m., serving lunches and dinners and bottled and draught beer, the latter being cooled four days before being tapped.

A bell said to have been found on an old Spanish frigate will be rung to signalize the tapping of each new keg.

HUNT MISSING BARBER

John Tyler, 46, Missing from Home for Three Months.

After three months in which no trace of him has been found, police today were asked to search for John Tyler, 46, who lived and operated a barber shop at 1568 College avenue.

According to members of his family, Tyler left his home the last Saturday in May, after telling his wife, Mrs. Marie Tyler, that the shop barely had paid enough to meet expenses.

He said he was going to the corner drug store, but friends there said he never appeared.

His disappearance was reported by a daughter, Mrs. Louis Nuebling, Chicago. Tyler is five feet eight inches tall and weighs about 170 pounds. He wore shell-rimmed glasses.

Going-to-the-Sun highway in Glacier National park, has been opened to the public, providing a scenic route across the Rockies linking the east and west sides of the park.
