

The Indianapolis Times

HOME EDITION

PRICE TWO CENTS

Partly cloudy tonight; Thursday fair; not much change in temperature.

VOLUME 45—NUMBER 94

INDIANAPOLIS, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1933

Entered as Second-Class Matter at Postoffice, Indianapolis

FORD WARNED TO SIGN MOTOR CODE OR PAY PENALTY

American People May 'Crack Down' on Auto Magnate if He Refuses, Declares Administrator Johnson.

FLIVVER CHIEF SILENT ON COURSE

No Corporation Rich Enough to Block National Program, NRA Leader As- serts at Press Conference.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Henry Ford, first individual Industrialist to hold out against the NRA, today faced the alternative of signing the automobile code or operating without a blue eagle, under threat from Administrator Hugh S. Johnson that "The American people may crack down on him."

"Ford is mistaken if he thinks he can obtain the eagle without signing the code, even though he has a code of his own containing higher wages and shorter hours," Johnson said.

The administrator voiced his warning at his press conference. Several hours later when no word came from Ford, vacationing in Canada, or from his son, Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company, who is in Maine, Johnson enlarged on this thesis in a public address at the recovery celebration in the nation's capital.

"No corporation is rich enough," Johnson thundered, "and no group strong enough, to block this nation. There will be provision to take care of the man who chisels."

Ford was represented in Detroit at the first preliminary conference held to formulate a code for the automobile industry. The representative did not participate in the discussions, however, and did not attend future conferences.

Ford is not a member of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, which drew the code, and which was designated to administer its provisions.

Johnson was asked when he was going to crack down on Ford. The American people may crack down on him when they see blue eagles on all other automobile manufacturers' plants," the administrator replied.

Johnson said, however, that if Ford comes in here and signs the code and then makes better labor provisions than those in the code, we'll be very happy."

Although Johnson has discretion in fixing codes for subdivisions of industries, he said he did not intend to in the case of Ford.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes contin-

GREY SERIOUSLY ILL

Viscount Grey

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Viscount Grey of Fallodon, whose secret diplomacy is credited with having led Great Britain into the World war, is dangerously ill here.

REPEAL WINS IN WASHINGTON

Victory for Wets by 2-1 Majority; No. 24 for Anti-Prohibitionists.

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes continued to dribble in, it appeared certain that ninety-three repeal delegates of a total of ninety-nine had been elected to the ratification convention Oct. 3.

Returns from 1,296 precincts of 2,663 in the state showed 317,075 votes for repeal and 133,264 against repeal.

Only one county, Whitman—named for the famed Methodist missionary, Dr. Marcus Whitman—in far eastern Washington, elected two delegates pledged to vote "dry."

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Washington today the nation's repeal forces to- day with better than a 2-to-1 vote to withdraw the eighteenth amendment from the Constitution.

It was the wets' twenty-fourth consecutive victory.

As outlying county votes contin-

CITY SCHOOL TAX RATE OF $1.02 IS SET

Levy Is 6 Cents Lower Than for 1932-1933; State Aid to Be Given.

BUDGET CUT HEAVILY

Principal Slash Is Made in Salaries of Teachers for Coming Term.

City school tax rate of $1.02 for 1933-1934, to provide a budget of $5,775,583, tentatively was approved Tuesday night by school commissioners, following submission of figures by A. B. Good, business director.

Hearing at which objections can be presented will be held Sept. 12, when final action will be taken. The figures then will go to the county tax adjustment board, which will meet Sept. 18.

The $1.02 rate is 6 cents lower than for the 1932-1933 school year, and the budget less by $779,897. However, the budget provides for only about $350,000 less than was spent in the 1932-1933 period.

Tax basis for 1933 is 92 cents, but there is a deficit of about $425,000. This was absorbed by depriving teachers of twenty-one days' pay prior to the close of schools in June this year.

Further Cuts Made

Further reduction of teachers' salaries accounts for $600,000 of the $779,897 budget reduction. This brings the total reduction of teachers' salaries in the last two years to an average of about 16 per cent.

Local taxpayers' burden will be $528,088 less for the school city, because of increased revenue to be received from new taxes. Benefiting from the new state aid bill, the school city will receive from the state $200 a teacher in January, or a total of $324,800.

The school city estimates that it will receive $158,328 from intangibles taxes and $87,446 from excise taxes. Miscellaneous receipts expected would make a total revenue of $934,777. A reduction of $105,000 under the new act reduces the state apportionment to $465,000.

Other Reductions Made

Besides the salary cut, further reductions were possible in expenditures for debt service, libraries, free kindergartens, art institute, and the Children's Museum. Total education cost has been reduced from $5,770,143 to $4,346,095.

Reduced effectiveness in classroom work will be a direct result of heavy reductions, declared Paul C. Stetson in a statement to the board.

Considering the relationship of the NRA program to the school city, Stetson said:

"The NRA program will mean an increased need for adult education. We cannot meet this new and important demand because of our reduced budget."

Sees Serious Problem

Stetson stated that a serious problem may arise from the decrease in size of the teaching staff and the anticipated increased enrollment in high schools, due to the NRA code discouraging child labor.

The board approves the appointments of Crowell W. Shelton, elementary manual training; Harold F. Irby, printing; Shortridge high school; Louise Headrick, Shortridge high school; Mary E. Walton, Maeland W. Hamilton, George Gray, Florence Brown, Crispus Attucks high school; Virginia Cochran, Washington high school, and Hazel Whiz-land, Emmerich Manual Training high school.

Stil 19 to 19

Hoodlums Spoil Baseball Game With Score Tied; Hundreds Flee.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The score was 19 to 19 in the ninth inning of one of the season's thrillers at a south side sandlot.

Hundreds of spectators crowded the sidewalks. Passing autoists stopped their cars in surrounding streets until all traffic was blocked.

An auto load of hoodlums came speeding down the street, intent on getting some place in a hurry, irritated by the traffic blockade.

Just as the players took the field for the crucial tenth inning, one hoodlum fired four shots in the air. In a moment every player had disappeared, sidewalks were deserted, traffic melted away, and the score still stood 19-19.

Hourly Temperatures

6 a. m. 61 10 a. m. 77

7 a. m. 65 11 a. m. 79

8 a. m. 69 12 (noon) 81

9 a. m. 75 1 p. m. 80

Real Silk Raises Pay by $250,000

J. A. Goodman

Employees to Get Quarter Million Annual Boost, Firm Head Says.

Several thousand employees of the Real Silk Hosiery Company, 611 North Noble street, today voted wage boosts totaling $250,000 a year—and got them!

If this sounds preposterous or unreal in a country struggling out of a depression, skeptics are referred to the executive board of the Employees Mutual Benefit Association of the Real Silk Hosiery Company, or to J. A. Goodman, president of the firm, for confirmation.

Announcement of the wage boosts were made by representatives of the employees and the company to The Times reporter while Goodman nodded acquiescence.

"The wage boosts are based on the fact that business is improving with Real Silk," Goodman explained.

Agree to Pay Request

"After the recommendation for wage raises was made by the employees' association executive board, the management agreed to it because of improvement shown in business and from confidence that business is going to get better in the near future."

This is the second increase since July," Goodman added. "And we have added 600 employees to our pay roll since May."

Today's wage boosts are due only in part to the NRA. Real silk officials declared. Ability of the concern to increase its pay roll at this time also is due, according to officials, to the unusual labor set-up and the fact that the national reputation of the plan when Goodman outlined it to him recently on returning from abroad.

"The employees' association has been in existence for more than ten years," L. L. Goodman said. "In that period it has proved an unqualified success. Our employees know the exact condition of our business. They have access to the books of the company."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

Approved by Hays

In explaining the labor set-up of the concern, L. L. Goodman, secretary, revealed that Arthur Garfield Hays, famed New York attorney and champion of labor, had expressed approval of the plan when Goodman outlined it to him recently on returning from abroad.

"The employees' association has been in existence for more than ten years," L. L. Goodman said. "In that period it has proved an unqualified success. Our employees know the exact condition of our business. They have access to the books of the company."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

Approved by Hays

In explaining the labor set-up of the concern, L. L. Goodman, secretary, revealed that Arthur Garfield Hays, famed New York attorney and champion of labor, had expressed approval of the plan when Goodman outlined it to him recently on returning from abroad.

"The employees' association has been in existence for more than ten years," L. L. Goodman said. "In that period it has proved an unqualified success. Our employees know the exact condition of our business. They have access to the books of the company."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

"In the set-up by which raises or cuts in salary are determined, a board, consisting of four representatives of the employees, meets with four company representatives, also employees. These representatives are elected by the employees annually."

SULLIVAN LASHES REALTORS FOR BUDGET ATTACK, BLAMES BOARD FOR VALUATION CUTS

Coney Isle Wants Huey

$1,000 a Night to Appear in Sideshow Is Tempting Offer Made to 'Kingfish.'

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Senator Huey P. Long, victim of a socialistic encounter at the exclusive Sands Point (L. I.) Bath Club Saturday night, was offered $1,000 a night today for appearances in a Coney Island sideshow.

Bert Nevins, manager of the sideshow, said Long's "unusual pugilistic activities have contributed to his right to claim the title of the most picturesque man in America."

As business men concerned with profitable exploitation, we believe that Huey Long, if exhibited, would more than pay any compensation that we would give him," Nevins said.

The board of governors of the Sands Point Club, where Long met his mysterious assailant in the washroom, explained in a terse statement that he was struck by an unidentified "gentleman."

Long said he was attacked by gangsters. Other witnesses, who withheld their identities, said he was hit by an unidentified man who objected to his manner of approach.

The blow opened an inch long cut over the senator's eye.

BECAUSE the entertainment which Senator Long attended at the clubhouse was for charity, "the club was without its usual supervision over attendance," the statement, issued by Henry A. Alker, chairman of the board of governors, said.

Members of the club were making a determined effort to identify Senator Long's assailant. Mrs. Dale Parker, chairman of the committee which sponsored the party at which he was struck, said members were "anxious to meet him."

GOOD RECORD SAVES $11 FINE; 60 DAYS

Albert Sterrett Freed in Parked Cars Crash.

Previous good record saved $11 and sixty days of liberty today for Albert Sterrett, 20, of 1020 Bellefontaine street, whose automobile struck three parked cars Tuesday night.

On a charge of drunken driving, Municipal Judge Dewey E. Myers fined Sterrett $10 and costs with a thirty-day term, but suspended the days and suspended all of a $1 fine and costs and thirty-day term for drunkenness.

Richard Fleming, 19, living in the 900 block Dorman street, who was with Sterrett, was discharged. He had been charged with vagrancy.

Automobiles alleged to have been damaged by Sterrett belong to James Crowe, 3620 Stanton avenue; Oscar Caplinger, R. R. 12, Box 367, and F. C. Casper, 519 North Jefferson avenue.

Police are searching for a woman hit-and-run driver who crashed into the automobile of Patrick Arvin, Detroit, at Vermont and Pennsylvania streets, Tuesday.

CASHIER IS ABDUCTED

Bandits Gets $7,000 in Alabama Bank Holdup.

DUBLIN, Ga., Aug. 30.—A bandit with a submachine gun today robbed the Farmers and Merchants bank of Brewton, near here, of between $7,000 and $9,000, and kidnapped J. B. Herndon, cashier of the bank, who was alone in the bank.

Herndon, forced to lie on the running board of the automobile, was released about two miles from Brewton.

Bill Is Sure of a Home

'Rents' Vacant House Without Telling Owner, Tears Down Another for Firewood.

WILLIAM GENTRY, 54, Negro, 1957 Yandes street, who had "dug in" the winter, was dug out today by the law and then put in again.

Evidence before Municipal Judge Dewey E. Myers showed that Gentry had moved into the house at the Yandes street address without knowledge of the owner.

However, entry was not wholly lacking in consideration. He permitted a "For Rent" sign to remain in place.

But the moving was just one of the things Gentry did. A $1,500 house at 1954 Yandes street is only a memory. Material from which it was built now is in the back yard of where Gentry was living and is in the form of kindling.

Gentry was arrested a week ago by officers called to 1954 Yandes street on a report that a house was tearing down a house. Gentry had an ax, officers said, and the job of wrecking the house was about completed.

Gentry admitted all in court. Then Myers asked: "I take it you want a place to stay?" "Yes, sir, that's it," Gentry said. "Well, I'll fine you $50 and costs," the court decreed.

Unable to pay, Gentry faces a sixty-day stay in jail.

Critics Are Ones at Fault in 40-Cent Tax Raise, Mayor Declares.

REFUNDING NOW ASKED

Realty Men Take New Line, Qualifying Demand for Repudiation.

Continuing his vigorous defense of the 1934 city budget prepared by his administration, Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan today charged the Indianapolis Real Estate Board, his