

MRS. HAYNES, WIDOW OF AUTO INVENTOR, DIES

Paralysis Is Fatal: Wife of State Publisher
Succumbs.

By United Press

KOKOMO, Ind., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Bertha B. Haynes, 75, widow of the man generally credited with inventing the automobile, died Friday night of paralysis.

Her husband, Elwood Haynes, built a horseless carriage in 1893 which now is in the Smithsonian institution museum. In addition to being regarded as the inventor of the automobile, he developed chromium steel and engaged in chemical and other metallurgical research.

Mrs. Haynes was born in Paulina, N. J., in 1858. She is survived by son, March Haynes; a daughter, Mrs. Glen R. Willis; a brother, Harry Lanterman, and five grandchildren, all of Kokomo.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Henry Backes, whose husband is one of the publishers of the Washington Democrat, died late Friday after a lingering illness.

Other survivors include two sons, John and Richard, and one daughter, Mrs. E. G. Brouillette, Washington; one stepson, Mrs. Ida Patch, Washington; Curtis Johnson, a stepbrother, Indianapolis, and her mother, Mary Ellen Johnson, Indianapolis.

Shane Funeral Today

Funeral services for Isadore Shane, 34, of 2058 1/2 Ruckle street, insurance salesman, will be held at 2 today from the home of his father, David Shane, 3626 Salem avenue. Burial will be in Ohev Veledk cemetery.

Mr. Shane died suddenly Thursday in the offices of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, 157 North Illinois street, of heart disease. He was planning a trip to a Century of Progress and was discussing his plans with fellow workers of the company when he was stricken.

Survivors, besides the father, include the widow, Mrs. Sophia Shane, and four brothers, Max, Leo, Albert and Sydney Shane, all of Indianapolis.

Dies After Operation

Following an operation, David Moffatt Kautz, 21, of 4059 North Pennsylvania street, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Kautz, of that address, died Thursday in the Methodist hospital.

Survivors, besides the parents, are a brother, John R. Kautz, and a sister, Miss Katherine Kautz.

Funeral services will be held at 4 Saturday in his home. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Last Rites Saturday

Last rites for Mrs. Rosie Pearl Smith, 38, of 861 Bradshaw street, will be held at 2 Saturday in St. Mark's English Lutheran church. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Smith died Wednesday at her home. Survivors are two daughters, Leona Mae Smith and Iva Louise Smith, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hayworth, and four sisters, Mrs. Lucille Hawkins, Mrs. Ruby Taylor, Mrs. Ruth Oliver and Miss Lena Hayworth, all of Indianapolis.

Funeral Is Set

Orane Postlewait, 58, a native of France, and resident of Indianapolis twenty-two years, died Thursday at his home, 1022 Sterling street, of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 Saturday at the residence. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Orane Postlewait, and a son, Orane Postlewait Jr.

Fall Is Fatal

A fracture of the skull, suffered Wednesday, when he fell from a stairway landing between the second and third floors of the Craig hotel, 328 East Washington street, where he lived, caused the death of Herman Johnson, 35, at city hospital Thursday.

The body has been removed to the F. John Herriman funeral home, 701 North New Jersey street, but funeral arrangements have not been made. Mr. Johnson was a waiter at Blacker's chili parlor on Massachusetts avenue. He is survived by his father and a brother.

MARRIAGES ON INCREASE HERE

August License Total Far
Exceeds Those of Last
Two Years.

Reaching within seven of the traditional high month of the year, marriage licenses issued in Marion county during August totaled 349, according to County Clerk Glenn R. Ralston.

In June, this year, 356 couples affirmed their belief that "two can live as cheaply as one."

The August figures are considerably greater than the total of the same months in the last two years, August, 1931, recorded 298, and August, 1932, 283.

The nine months total of 1935 is well ahead of the same period last year, and there appears little doubt that 1935 will exceed the 1932 total of 2,932.

The increase is ascribed by Ralston to the belief of jobs, higher wages and return of prosperity, expressed by the couples who appear shyly at the marriage license counter.

AUTO PARTS THEFT CHARGED TO TRIO

Suspects Held Under High
Bond for Investigation.

While investigating a report of a car being stripped, police Thursday night arrested three men, finding a quantity of automobile parts, they said.

The men were arrested on charges of vagrancy and are held under high bond for investigation, while the automobile and parts were impounded.

Curtis Toliver, 21, of 638 Locke street; Frank John, 28, of 931 Lynn street, and John Thomas Toliver, 24, of 305 Cora street, are under arrest.

Two men, one of whom had thirteen assorted automobile keys in his possession, were arrested on vagrancy charges downtown and are being held for investigation.

Lawrence Dacey, 19, of 222 East Wabash street, who police say was paroled from Ohio penitentiary for automobile theft recently, and Richard Mescall, 21, of 928 Daly street, are held. Mescall had the keys, police said.

A truck belonging to Joseph Risley, stolen last Wednesday, was recovered at Fourteenth street and Gladstone avenue, but two kegs and two cases of beer, taken with the truck, had been stolen.
