Following an illness of three weeks, Mrs. Emma V. Attkisson, 58, lifelong resident of Indiana, died Monday in her home, 309 East Fall Creek parkway, south drive. Mrs. Attkisson was born in Seymour and came to Indianapolis twenty-four years ago. She was a member of Roberts Park Methodist church and the Dulcet Club of the Shrine. Surviving her are three daughters, Miss Doris Jean Attkisson, Mrs. Paul Burget and Mrs. Robert Clarke, and two sons, Roy and Merrill Attkisson, all of Indianapolis.

WILD ANIMAL DISPLAY IS FEATURE AT FAIR

Cage of Buffaloes From Pokagon
Park, Attracts Interest.

One of the best-patronized exhibits at the Indiana state fair is the collection of wild animals, game birds, fish and snakes displayed by the state conservation department. The greatest novelty in the exhibit is a cage containing two buffaloes, and a buffalo calf, one being nearly half as big as an elephant.

In an adjoining pen are three huge elk, also brought from Pokagon park. A deer and two young ones complete the Pokagon group.

Nearby are smaller animals, including ferrets, gray squirrels, rabbits, skunk, a variety of owls and foxes, woodchuck, opossum, eagles, wolves, badger, hawk, beaver, wild turkey, scores of pheasants, quail and 100 raccoons.

In the conservation department building are an assortment of snakes and a fish aquarium.

BUILDING ACTIVITIES IN CITY INCREASING

Last Week's Permits Show Large
Gain Over 1932 Period.

Building activities in Indianapolis are on the increase, asserted William F. Hurd, building commissioner, today as he released figures of last week.

Permits granted last week totaled 152, as compared to eighty-six issued during the same week last year. Fees from the permits last week totaled $702.65, compared to $183.85 of the same week last year.

Valuation on the permits totaled $447,543 last week, and increase of $423,131 over last year's figure of $24,412.

Valuation for the year, however, still is behind last year's figures by $383,000, said Hurd. The commissioner expressed confidence that this year still will surpass last year's totals.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Sept. 5.—Robert A. Grafton, Michigan City artist, and member of the state prison board of trustees, was offered a commission by the Rumanian government today to paint a portrait of King Carol.

Grafton said he might not accept, because it would necessitate a trip to Europe. He has painted portraits of former President Coolidge and Hoover and Cardinal Mundelein.

FALLS 100 FEET; LIVES

William Hoyt Seriously Injured In Smokestack Tumble.

Although he fell a distance of 100 feet today, William Hoyt, 44, of 1524 Pleasant street, is expected to recover.

Hoyt was repairing a brick smokestack at the Union stockyards when a rope broke on a swinging stage. Fifteen feet from the ground, he struck a widened part near the base of the stack, then toppled to the ground.

After first aid had been administered by police, Hoyt was taken to city hospital.

SHE GETS A CHANGE OF HEIR

Divorced but five days before from the heir to Coca Cola millions, Mrs. C. P. Whitehead has chosen as her next husband Andrew Pierce III, with whom she is shown in New York following announcement of their engagement. As Pierce has "a job and little else," according to Mrs. Whitehead, "it'll be love in a cottage" for them. Pierce is son of the head of the American Woolen Company, the nation's largest textile concern.

Annual Kennel Club Dog Show Is Opened at Fair

Large Audience Witnesses
Judging of Entries in State Event.

The annual Hoosier Kennel Club dog show was opened Monday night at the Indiana state fair before a large audience.

In the wire-haired fox terrier class, judges awarded the prize for best of breed to Champion Tip Topper of Wildoaks, owned by Mrs. William P. Palmer, Cleveland. Heatherington Follow Up, owned by Peaceville kennels, Glendale, O., was a close second.

In the puppy and novice classes, Punch Drunk, owned by Hardie Albright, Hollywood, Cal., nosed out Black Eagle, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon B. Wallace.

Mrs. S. Segari, Columbus, daughter of John Burke, Indianapolis, won a first and two seconds, taking the American-bred male class with Segari's Sonny Boy; second in puppy bitches with Segari's Sou-sie, and second in novice bitches with Segari's Sans Souci. C. H. Beckett, Spring Mill Kennels, won first in limit dogs and first in local dogs with Bobby Boy II. Mrs. Della Silver, Greensburg, won first in smooth fox terriers, with Deliver Ruby.

Best of breed and best of winners in beagles was won by Charles Schultz, St. Louis, with C. S. Ch. Stripes Drawn A Melvin Wilkerson, Indianapolis, won in females with Nancy Hanks III, and J. Earl Newgent, Anderson, won the American-bred female class with Newgent's Stripes.

In the Boston terrier class, Rockefeller's Aviator, owned by John Trozke, Chicago, was named best of breed.

Judging continued today on pointers, setters, springer spaniels, basset hounds, foxhounds, this morning; doberman, cocker spaniels, dachshunds, wolfhounds and collies this afternoon, and Welsh, Irish, Kerry blue and Scottish terriers tonight.

State Fair Sidelights

Even cake baking has gone NRA at the fair.

A red, white and blue cake, with a blue eagle, symbolic of the National Recovery Act, spreading its wings over the cake top, won third place in the fancy decorated cake division in the women's building.

The cake's ornamentation is completed with American flags at intervals beneath the border of red and blue roses. It was exhibited by Mrs. George Jones, Rockport.

First and second prizes were won by Mrs. Claude Rynerson, Clayton, and Mrs. Chester Davis of near Marion.

Nerves worn to a frazzle by the raucous cries of concessionaires at the fair can find relaxation at the naturalistic camping booth of the Boy Scouts in the Manufacturers' building. The booth contains a bridge built for a pioneering merit badge, a backlog cooking fire, a star fire, a backlog fire for reflector oven, a council fire and a large fire with a floor made of earth and pine needles.

First pictures of the wreck of the Golden States Limited, crack flier of the Southern Pacific Railroad, which plunged through a weakened bridge near Tucuman, N. M., killing eight persons and injuring forty, are to be seen in the current issue of The Indianapolis Times-Universal Newsreel. Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer and the screen's talking reporter, describes these and the other events in the reel in a graphic and dramatic style. Other events reported by McNamee include intimate closeups of President Roosevelt attending the Dutchess county fair at Rhinebeck, N. Y., where his son John wins a saddle horse event on "New Deal," the President's newest mount, and thrilling views of the world's fair championship rodeo, in which the nation's leading cowboys compete for honors in wild horse and steer riding contests.

COMMITTS SUICIDE AS HUSBAND LOOKS ON

Woman Drinks Poison After Threat to End Life.

Mrs. Cecile Usher, 37, of 2117 North Talbot street committed suicide Monday by swallowing poison at the Kenra Laboratory Company, 8 West Twenty-second street, of which her husband, William K. Usher, is manager.

The husband told police his wife had been melancholy for some time and often had threatened suicide. According to the husband and a son, Kenneth, 18, Mrs. Usher was with them in the office of the company when she announced that she was going "to end it all."

She walked to a room back of the office and drank poison from a glass. Usher knocked the glass from her grasp and after calling a doctor, forced Mrs. Usher to take eggs and milk in an effort to counteract the poison. A fire department squad administered first aid. Mrs. Usher was dead on arrival of a physician and a city hospital ambulance.

PROGRAM FOR NRA 'CHISELERS' IS SENT HERE

1,000 Cases of Blue Eagle
Complaints Will Be Probed Carefully.

A definite program for dealing with violators of the NRA was received today from Washington by Francis Wells, Indiana representative of the United States department of commerce, as he announced a total of approximately 1,000 complaints of alleged violation of NRA for this district.

Declaring that "deliberate, willful 'chiseling' will not be tolerated," Thomas S. Hammond, executive director of the blue eagle division of the national NRA, said in his dispatch to Wells, that the country now is entering the "second phase of the President's re-employment campaign with between 80 and 90 percent of all employers in the country under the eagle."

Few Are Delibate

"There are few deliberate 'chiselers,'" said Hammond in his dispatch. "We are sure that most of the complaints which have come to us will be ironed out if the employer is talked to and shown how he can comply, without ruining himself."

"It is not the plan of the President to put anybody out of business, if complying with the agreement will have that result. There will be adequate relief for every one. We must proceed carefully and slowly and give the employer, the employee and the consumer every chance to comply with the President's re-employment agreement. We have an action for petitions for exceptions and complaints of non-compliance until such time as a more definite picture of understanding has been developed in the field."

Wants Mediation Board

"The government feels that this time has come and it now is planned that local mediation boards be set up in each community in which there is a local committee, if such a local mediation board has not already been set up."

"If, after a thorough investigation of the facts by local authorities, a clear cut case of willful violation of the President's agreement is reported to Washington and no satisfactory settlement may be obtained by further mediation—the federal government will act."

Wells declared that he will adopt the "violation" program as set forth in the dispatch from Hammond as the future policy to be followed in the NRA program for Indianapolis and the state.

Set for Wednesday

Returning from Washington today Charles W. Chase, "general" of the local recovery army, postponed the meeting of the executive committee of the local recovery board until Wednesday morning at which time, Chase said, the matter of naming a committee to hear violations will be taken up.

Wells declared that Indianapolis appeared to be leading the nation in signed employer agreements with a total of 66,000 to date, based on a percentage of registered signs.

Wells also received word from Washington that national NRA officers were considering the plan of the Indianapolis joint recovery board to put inside salespeople on a commission basis under the provision of the blanket code to receive minimum wages of $14.50 a week.

The message said that "the retail code, when adopted, probably will contain a provision for inside salespeople along the suggested lines."

Thursday Is Deadline

Thursday has been set tentatively as the deadline for the drive to enlist business firms and consumers in the NRA program. More than 70,000 housewives and other consumers have signed cards pledging themselves not to deal with any business firms which have not enlisted under the blue eagle, according to J. E. Fischer, "colonel" in charge of mobilization.

Lack of printed cards and other necessary materials have handicapped the workers in many instances, Fischer revealed, while others, out of work themselves, have not even had car fare to bring their returns downtown to local recovery headquarters.

May Sign Cards

Stores in certain localities where consumers, who have been missed in the drive due to vocations and other reasons when the NRA workers called, will be designated today as places where consumers may sign cards.

At a joint meeting of the Indianapolis Restaurant Association and the Indiana State Restaurant Association in Bottlers Cafeteria, 1102 Prospect street, at 8:30 tonight, the fair practice code and other problems of the restaurateurs will be discussed.

"I wanted a clear skin—

I got it...and a happy home, too"

If you long for a better skin pause and reason

A CLEAR, healthy skin is an evidence of good health. Ample red-blood-cells, filled with hemo-globin (skin and tissue purifier), are necessary for good health and a clear skin.

When the hemo-globin is right you feel it... your looks show it. But when sickness, colds or the "flu," tear down your vitality, or you neglect your diet, you get weak, tire easily, lose your appetite. Your resistance is lowered—and your complexion usually shows it.

And here is the reason: When the hemo-globin is reduced, the billions of tiny cells in the body are not getting sufficient oxygen, because it is the hemo-globin that takes the oxygen, breathed into the lungs, to all parts of the body—down to the skin. Also, it throws off the poisonous carbon dioxide.

To clear your skin of pimples and get back that old-time vigor with color in your cheeks, take S.S.S. Tonic just before meals. No need to change your diet... S.S.S. will not interfere with any other medicine you may be taking. You will be happy with the beneficial results obtained.

S.S.S. is a proven Tonic... by experience for over 100 years... and a modern medical research. Start taking it today. At all drug stores in two convenient sizes. The larger size is more economical.
