

Five Events End Fair Harness Card Today

His Majesty Turns Mile in 2:00 1-2, Best Time of Meeting, to Annex Governor's Pace; Marshall's Morley Frisco Cops Ayres' Trot.

Harness racing bids adieu to Indianapolis for another year today, with five events on the final program at the Indiana fair oval.

Two early closing events headed the program, a 2-year-old trot and a 3-year-old pace, with stellar fields competing in each. A 2:18 pace for half-mile track performers promised plenty of action, while two consolation events for non-money winners were carded, one in each gait.

The fastest time of the meeting was turned in Thursday by His Majesty, sensational 3-year-old pacer, who conquered a fine field of older performers in the Governor's 2:15 pace.

With Walton driving, the youngster traveled the first mile in 2:00 1-2, and might have cut this time if forced at the finish. He took the lead soon after the start and held it all the way.

In the second mile, Dr. H. M. Marshall drove a brilliant race to bring Lady Vonian down in front in 2:00 1-2, with the Walton star second. His Majesty trailed the leaders in the final mile until he stepped out on the back stretch. Near the wire he was challenged by The Great Miss Walnut, but finished in 2:02 to win by half a length.

Another Marshall victory was tacked up in the L. S. Ayres 2:10 trot, when Morley Frisco defeated Selka Worthy and the favorite, Senator McKivoy. The first heat was turned in 2:02 1-2, with Frisco, McKivoy and Traveler finishing in that order. Selka Worthy, running her second race of the week, broke early and was out of it.

Morley Frisco increased the edge in the second mile, covered in 2:01 1-2, with McKivoy just beating Selka Worthy for the place. Sep Palin, local driver, finally scored with Selka Worthy in the final mile, nosing out Frisco in 2:02.

The first four-heat battle of the week developed in the 2:15 trot, one of the best events in the meeting. Mary McElwain came up from nowhere to win the first mile in 2:03 1-2, with Erskine driving. Latic, a reformed pacer, with Smith up, nosed out the daughter of Mr. McElwain in the second mile, the time being 2:04.

The third heat produced another winner, when General Douglas led all the way to the wire. The time was 2:09 1-2. He repeated the performance again in the final mile in 2:07 to get first money. Tallman driving.

Roulette and The Druid staged a real duel in the 2:22 pace, the former repeating his win of Saturday. The first heat produced a head-and-head finish with the former getting the nod. In the second heat the rivals engaged in another bitter battle, with The Druid holding the edge at the finish. Roulette, driven by Sep Palin, came back in the final mile to get the edge again by a nose. The time was 2:04 1-2, 2:03 1-2 and 2:08.

Doc Marshall turned in his second win of the day when he drove Mac Hanover to victory in three straight heats in the 2:13 trot. The time was 2:05, 2:05 and 2:06 1-2. Voio Dear and Peter Goldfinch were the chief competitors.

Cochet Denies He Is Pro; Charity to Get Proceeds

By United Press

PARIS, Sept. 8.—That man Henri Cochet will turn the hairs of officials of the French Lawn Tennis Federation gray.

First comes the announcement by Martin Piau, tennis pro, that Cochet will turn professional. Voila! For seven years who has drawn the frances at the gate for French tennis tournaments? Sure, Cochet. A terrible blow to the association.

Cochet announced he was not turning professional, but would merely play in professional tournaments and donate his share of proceeds to charity.

The officials are aghast. How can Henri play with professionals without becoming a pro? But he receives no money, so he isn't commercializing his game. Would he still be an amateur? When does an amateur become a professional?

The distraught officials must decide these questions before Sept. 22, when Cochet has an engagement to play in a Paris professional tourney, his principal opponent being Bill Tilden, American pro.

Hauser Sets Bat Record

By United Press

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 8.—Joe Hauser, first baseman of the Minneapolis Millers, had added another American Association record to his laurels, when he stretched the loop's total base mark for a single season to 423.

In a game with Milwaukee Thursday in which Hauser also raised the world's home run record to 8, the slugging first baseman pounded out two singles as well as his circuit smash to eclipse the old total base record of 422, set by Jay Kirke, who played with Louisville in 1921.
