Quality Apparel That's NEW and FASHIONABLE

Gorgeous Furs and Rich Fabrics Tell the Story of Quality in Our New Winter Cloth Coats $29.75 to $59.75

Even in the "lean" year of 1932 we were not able to offer so much real VALUE in coats as we do right NOW! Our cloth coats are creations of exquisite beauty, of sleek luxury, and remarkable quality. We particularly call your attention to the thick, luxuriant fur trimmings—qualities that would have graced "Frenchrooms" coats of a year ago!

There's an unusually fine assortment to choose from, too! Collars, sleeve details and fabrics are here in such infinite variety as to allow every woman to pursue her individual taste. If you choose one of these coats YOU'LL BE SMART whether you're thrifty or not!

A—Classic black—in fur and fabric! Has a very high collar and winged shoulder of Pointed Wolf (dog). $32.50.

B—A gorgeous Fitch collar adds a note of sheer luxury to this coat. It's both high and wide . . . and has fur appliqued on sleeve. $39.75.

C—Genuine Beaver—rich and soft and thick—forms the high collar and "wings" on this brown coat. $48.75.

D—A smart Ascot scarf collar and winged shoulders bear a burden of lovely Caracul. Unusually distinctive sleeve treatment. $39.75.

F—Rich brown boucle is trimmed with Marmink collar designed to frame the face—yet spread out shawl-like to widen the shoulders. Note the interesting sleeves! $32.50.

The material—a rich brown faille—lends individuality to this frock! Also note the pleated shoulder, the high neck and the lace jabot! $7.95.

Another opportunity to be individual! This is a heavy sheer in classic black; sleeves and setin neckline are black satin, sleeveless jacket. $7.95.

This dress follows the fashion for geometric necklines. Yoke and bow are embroidered crepe. The dress is a distinctive faille weave in brown. $10.75.
