

WALTER FEGAN, SOUTH BEND, IS KIWANIS CHIEF

Ambrose O'Connell, Farley Aid, Tells Parley of NRA Aims.

Delegates to the Indiana district convention of Kiwanis Clubs today unanimously elected Walter I. Fegan, South Bend, governor.

JOBS PARLEY SLATED

Meeting of the executive committee of the state unemployment relief commission and district chairmen of the commission is scheduled for Friday noon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club, it was announced today by William H. Book, executive secretary.

FAILS TO COLLECT

Fourteen years old now, "Baby Peggy" Montgomery failed in her suit for half a million from James Gleason, comedian, and Norman Sperry, producer, on the allegation of breach of contract. She said they had promised to star her in twelve pictures.

EASY WAY IS FOUND TO SELL BOOZE IN STATE

Liquor Can Be Dispensed by Retailers Under Present Law, Officials Say.

The letter of the law is concerned, has authorized sale of draught beer, proponents of the plan point out.

Their arguments already have been laid before Fred Bechtold, excise department attorney, who admitted great merit in them.

They are based on exceptional powers given the excise director under Section 24 of the beer control law. This deals with sale of spirituous beverages and sets out that they must be sold retail at licensed drug stores which have been established at least three years before the permit is granted.

But an exception is made in a clause which provides that should the excise director deem it advisable he may, in his discretion, waive such requirements.

Taken as a whole, it is contended by proponents of the plan for legalization without further legislative action, that Section 24 gives the excise director power to license any place he "deems advisable," without any pharmacy restrictions.

Under other sections, rules, with the effect of law, can be laid down to specify exactly what kind of places these may be, and thus prevent return of the saloon, they declare.

MR. HUTTON SPEAKING

"I don't need Almee Semple McPherson Hutton . . . I don't need any woman" . . . Yes, those were the very words of David M. Hutton, estranged husband of the California evangelist, when he reached New York to begin a vaudeville tour.

Here you see him busy on the telephone soon after his arrival.

TAX STRIKE IS LAUNCHED BY CIVIC LEADERS

Wayne Township League to Lead Move to Pay Only $1.50.

Monday, according to Lawrence G. Holmes, really board secretary. The adjustment board has the power, under the $1.50 tax law, to declare an emergency in raising the tax rate above the maximum. No indication has been given of the probable attitude of the board, although it will meet for organization Friday.

Holmes declared that if the tax adjustment board refused to reduce the levy substantially, the case would be appealed to the state tax board, the final resort.

If demands are passed to the state board by the county board, the probable occurrence, and the state board refuses to accede to reduction demands, a general call will be issued for the strike, Holmes declared.

Purpose of circulating the pledge cards at present is to show the seriousness of the situation and the determination of taxpayers to obtain lower rates, Holmes said, but there will be no hesitation in carrying out the strike, if necessary.

The Indianapolis Home Builders' Association joined the real estate board in urging taxpayers to strike, at its meeting Wednesday night in the Washington.

According to statements there, the rate should not exceed $2.22, which represents the $1.50 maximum, plus poor relief and refunding levies held mandatory by the state supreme court.

Metal Workers Hear NRA Speaker: Members of the Indianapolis Sheet Metal and Warm Air Heating Contractors' Association heard Frederick I. Barrows of the local NRA office, at the monthly meeting Wednesday night. The meeting, held at the Peerless Foundry Company, was presided over by E. L. Carr, president of the association.
