

U. S. PRISONER CAN PUT BLAME UPON CURIOSITY

Inquiries About Mann Act
Case Brings Raid by Police Squad.

Edward Renaud, alias Jack Pringle, languished today within the confines of the Marion county jail, cogitating on the inscrutability of fate.

As he sat and pondered, the thought came to him that while curiosity may not have "killed a cat," it certainly played a part in his present predicament.

It was the curiosity of a young man, whose name is being withheld by authorities, that resulted in federal officials getting a lead on the hideout of Renaud, or Pringle, who was wanted on a Mann act charge.

Two young women had been arrested in the case and when the unnamed young man visited the United States marshal's office and exhibited too much interest in the case, he was held and taken before the grand jury, where he decided to talk.

As a result, Harry E. Gates, deputy marshal; a department of justice operative and a police squad under Sergeant Martin Fahey conducted a raid on a rooming house at 424 West New York street, where Renaud, or Pringle, was arrested.

As Fahey entered the rear yard of this premises, his hair stood on end and nearly turned gray, when a police dog, described by Gates as being "as big as a pony," lunged at him.

Fahey's heart gradually slowed up to a nearly normal beat when he discovered that the dog was chained and its lunge was brought up short.

Renaud was said by police to have served terms in three prisons in New York, one in Michigan, and at the Indiana state farm, from which he escaped July 10 after serving only a few weeks. He is reported to have wounded a guard at the Elmira (N. Y.) reformatory in an escape attempt.

MAYOR ANXIOUS TO HEAR TALKS ON FEDERAL AID

Sullivan May Go to Chicago for Convention of City Executives.

Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan will attend the United States Conference of Mayors, at Chicago Friday and Saturday of this week, providing the adoption of the budget by the county advisory board is completed by that time.

An invitation to attend, designating this meeting "the most important ever held," was received by Sullivan early this month, but budget troubles has caused him to delay acceptance.

Mayor Sullivan is anxious to attend and hear the explanation by Harold L. Ickes, interior secretary and public works administrator, on public works programs for cities.

This may be beneficial as Sullivan has a definite program in mind to obtain public works money from the federal government, for improvements at the city hospital and sanitary district and street improvements. He has hesitated in applying for the funds, however, because of his determination "not to bond the city into bankruptcy."

The mayor also is interested in the proposed address of Ray T. Miller, Cleveland mayor, who will tell of the housing and slum clearance activities in that city, which along with Indianapolis, is one of the three cities to comply with requirements for obtaining money for the work.

Indianapolis already has been allotted $4,460,000 by the government for slum clearance. An additional 15 per cent is to be raised by a local committee before the money is forthcoming, however.

Clay County Cuts Budget Half

Machine guns were trained on prisoners to forestall escape attempts as Harvey J. Bailey (above) and eleven others went on trial in federal court at Oklahoma City on a charge of kidnapping Charles F. Urschel, oil millionaire.

$60,900 SOUGHT AS SEQUEL TO TRAGEDY

Damage Suits Follow Death in Auto Collision.

Damage suits totaling $60,900 are on file in superior court against George Warner, Chicago, as aftermath of an automobile accident in which an Indianapolis woman was killed and four of her relatives injured.

Plaintiffs in the suits are Louis Bassler, his wife Mary and daughters Margaret and Alice, together with Joseph Bassler, administrator of the estate of Rose Bassler.

The complaints allege that the family was riding in their automobile on State Road 41 near St. Johns in Lake county when the accident occurred, Aug. 13.

An engineering company has turned out for a rubber mill a 1,000-horsepower motor that can be brought from full speed to a dead stop in less than two seconds.

BANDIT ROBS HOTEL IN CITY; $105 IS LOOT

Clerk Forced to Lie on Floor as Drawer Is Ransacked.

Brandishing a revolver and carrying a paper sack to hold the loot, a bandit held up the night clerk at the Graylynn hotel, 1043 North Pennsylvania street, shortly before midnight and obtained $105.

The clerk, Carl Craft, 1413 Fletcher avenue, told police the holdup man forced him to go behind the counter, open the cash drawer, and then lie on the floor while the bandit systematically looted the drawer, and placed $80 in cash, two checks and a money order in his sack.

Craft said the bandit was about 23 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches, weighed about 145, and wore a small dark mustache, dark blue suit and light cap.

It takes Healthy Nerves

TURNER BREAKS OWN AIR MARK; WINS BENDIX CUP

Nerves Never Waver

LOS ANGELES—Colonel Roscoe Turner flashed across the finish line here 1 hour, 30 minutes out of New York, breaking his own coast-to-coast record for the westward flight and winning the annual running of the Bendix Trophy.

Forty-eight thousand spectators were on hand to greet the plucky aviator, healthy nerves had won the day.

For a second time, Turner was for a Caman if steady nerves, Turner

"I watch my nerves as carefully as I do my plane," Colonel Turner says. "I smoke Camels for the sake of healthy nerves, and I enjoy them more because of their mildness and better taste."

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

Discussing healthy nerves and cigarettes, Colonel Roscoe Turner says: "Breaking air records is an exciting business—and a nerve-wracking one! I know because I have gone out after a whole flock of records—and managed to pick off quite a few. Like most pilots I smoke a lot—before I jockey my plane into position for the take-off—after the flight is over—in fact, I enjoy smoking any time. But I watch my nerves as carefully as I do my plane. I smoke Camels for the sake of healthy nerves, and I enjoy them more because of their mildness and better taste. To me Camels are a much finer cigarette, and being a faithful Camel smoker, I never have to give a thought to jangled nerves."

Are you nervous? Irritable? Try Camel for a change, and get a fresh slant on your smoking. Being a milder cigarette, Camels are better for steady smoking. You will find it a fact that Camels never get on your nerves... never tire your taste.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.
