

EMPLOYES MAY VOTE ON UNIONS BY NEXT WEEK

Collective Bargaining to Be Settled by Poll of Workers.

Elections in several city mills and factories to determine the attitude of thousands of employees on representation by a company union or an outside labor group for collective bargaining may be held next week.

Following an announcement made several weeks ago by J. W. Dewey, national labor representative of NRA, plans for elections in several Indianapolis mills and factories have been completed. Dewey, who made a preliminary inspection of industry in Indianapolis recently, is expected to arrive here from Washington Monday.

Stricken with an attack of bronchitis on his last visit to this city three weeks ago, Dewey was forced to return to Washington before finishing his work in Evansville, where he had been asked to attempt an adjustment of labor conditions.

Dewey Calls Elections

In an exclusive statement to The Times on his last visit, Dewey said he would be forced to call elections in several Indianapolis plants due to the divergent opinions as to whether employees wanted company unions or wished to be organized by outside labor groups.

Mr. Dewey, at that time, stated that NRA leaves the matter of representation for collective bargaining entirely in the hands of the majority of workers in a concern.

A mass meeting of employees of six Indianapolis plants has been called for Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. in Tomlinson Hall, according to an announcement today by Fred Galloway, state representative and labor organizer.

Give Ballot Instructions

Mr. Galloway stated that the meeting will be closed and will be held for the purpose of instructing employees in the use of the ballot and other instructions for the forthcoming elections to be held under auspices of Mr. Dewey and other NRA officials.

According to Galloway, employees of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills, the American Hosiery Mills Inc., the National Hosiery Mills, the P. R. Mallory Company, the United States Rubber Company and the Link Belt Company have been invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. Dewey already had an election at the P. R. Mallory Company plant for Tuesday.

CHICAGO LEGION PARADE TO SET RECORD IN U. S.

Mammoth Demonstration to Tie Up Traffic for Entire Day.

By United Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The greatest parade that America ever has seen will swing down Michigan boulevard when the American Legion meets, Oct. 2.

The annual parade of the Legion is unique. It is so vast that it will virtually tie up traffic in Chicago all day long.

There will be 138,000 marchers, with 500 bands and bugle corps. Marchers will require ten and one-half hours to pass a given point.

It will be the biggest parade the Legion ever has had and probably the largest the legion ever will have. Because of the tremendous attendance at the convention, attracted by Chicago's central location and the Century of Progress exposition, thousands more will march than ever before.

Only members of the legion and uniformed members of the auxiliary will take part. The march will begin at 9:30 a. m. The legion marches by state delegations in alphabetical order. At the head of each group are massed all the flags of the posts of the particular state. The entire day will be occupied with the parade.

Canadian Mine Official Declares Death Uled Klondyke.

MONTEAL, Sept. 29.—The true story of the Klondyke gold rush of 1896 yet has to be written, Dr. Charles Cammell, deputy minister of mines, believes.

"When it is penned," he declares, "it will be a story more of tragedy than romance."

The Klondyke rush, Dr. Cammell describes as the most colorful in the history of the world, yet throughout the period that it lasted, starvation, privation and scurvy with the deaths of hundreds of prospectors in search for gold, were the main features.

A speed of 100 to 110 miles an hour has been usual with airplanes for the past twelve years.

Instructions in Contract Bridge

Secretary American Bridge League

WHILE the no trump response to partner's original bid is generally termed a sign-off and indicates weakness, it does not mean that such a bid can not be made with a hand containing some tricks.

In today's article I wish to clear up two points with you—the bidding of a no trump in response to partner's original bid when holding some strength and a jump to game that is not a slam try.

South, the dealer, opens with one spade. West passes, and North has a choice of two bids—clubs or no trump.

South then bids two spades. This is termed a sign-off bid, but remember, that it does not say, "Partner, I do have a five-card suit and am willing to play the hand at this bid, even though you have given me a no trump response."

North now is in a position to make a good constructive bid. He should not bid two no trump, as that will not convey definite information to his partner.

Therefore, his bid should be three slam try because it was not made at the first opportunity. It says, "Partner, I am not afraid to go game with this hand now that I have a little information from you."

In the play of the hand, South easily can make five spades. As a matter of fact, if the diamond finesse works, he would even have a play for six.
