

BLAST THEORY THAT JOBLESS REFUSE WORK

Claim of Some Is Branded
Unfounded by State
Road Chairman.

Experience of the state highway department with the "made work" program has proven that the contention that unemployed "don't want to work" is absolutely unfounded, it was asserted today by Chairman James D. Adams of the state highway commission.

"We had a unique experience in testing this theory in the northern Indiana districts last week," Mr. Adams declared. "It rained there constantly for two days."

Our foreman announced that any of the men who didn't want to work would not jeopardize their job by remaining away until the rain ceased.

"Not a man fell out."

"On the second day the group assembled, as usual, at 5:30 a. m. It was pouring so hard that the foreman suggested taking the day off."

The men protested. They wanted to work and get paid. One of them told the foreman that he hadn't had a job with pay for more than two and one-half years and weather meant nothing to him in comparison with working again and getting paid for it."

More than 6,000 men are working in all parts of the state now and more will be added daily, the chairman said. About 300 are working out of Indianapolis. Many more could be working here, if it were not for failure of farmers to cooperate in obtaining right-of-way, Mr. Adams explained.

In many sections of the state, they are co-operating 100 per cent he said.

Fourteen survey crews now are working on city paving projects to be federally financed and plans are expected to be completed by Nov. 1, according to Mr. Adams.

Three of the crews are working on Indianapolis streets, seven miles of which have been included in the program which has received federal approval.

PALESTINE NOT JEWISH HAVEN, EXPERT CLAIMS

Far From Being Promised Land, Assertion of Dr. Duncan.

By Science Service

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Palestine is not necessarily the Promised Land for the Jews. The Promised Land for which the Jews must look today is the land that offers the most promise to them. From this standpoint the most promising lands today are the United States and British dominions.

This is the view expressed today by Dr. George S. Duncan, specialist in oriental studies at the American university in Washington. Dr. Duncan just has returned from Palestine where he checked up on the results of ten years under British mandate, and the signposts towards Palestine's future.

So far, Palestine has not proved a place that can absorb Jewish people in great quantities. There are about 175,000 Jews in the land, and 760,000 Moslems.

One hundred seventy-five thousand Jews are a tenth of the Jews in New York City. As for the future, Dr. Duncan points out that the population of Palestine is nearing its saturation point so rapidly that within thirty years the country will be unable to support more people, judging by the present normal rate of increase.

The relation of Moslem and Jew in Palestine is extremely strained," added Dr. Duncan. "It is indeed said that if British should withdraw from Palestine there would not be a Jew there in twenty-four hours."

WHEN playing the constructive game over one system of bidding, after first and second hand have passed and it comes to you third hand, you naturally do not wish to pass.

Without tricks or a good bid, suit, we generally bid a club or a diamond. This bid simply is made to give partner a chance and quite often it is nothing more or less than a psychic bid. As a result, some interesting situations develop.
