

BANDIT HANDS KIDNAPED MAN 25-CENT FARE

Gunman Donates Quarter to Victim: Saves Him Long Walk.

"Ride a bus back to town" was the curt order a bandit gave as he handed back a quarter last night after kidnapping and robbing Howard Smallwood, 341 Orange street, attendant at a filling station at Belmont avenue and Morris street. Mr. Smallwood said the man, driving an automobile with a Kentucky license, drew a revolver and forced him into the car at the station. At Tibbs avenue and Morris street Mr. Smallwood was robbed of $25 and compelled to get out of the car with the quarter.

Gripping a revolver with one hand and holding a handkerchief against his face with the other, a bandit obtained $45 at a Standard grocery at 702 East New York street. Dorey Hedge, 31, of 351 East North street, store employee, was forced to remove the money from a cash register.

A Negro robbed him of $25 in a West Eleventh street speakeasy, Coleman Davis, 32, of 726 Ft. Wayne avenue, told police, who arrested him on a drunkenness charge. Joe Hockett and William Wells, Negroes, were held on vagrancy charges. They were found at a West Eleventh street address.

On his way to work as a factory watchman, Samuel Tompkins, 48, of 1222 Nordyke avenue, was robbed of $3.80 at White river and Oliver avenue by three men, one of them armed with a blackjack.

Dewitt Parker, 113 North Sixth street, Beech Grove, reported he was robbed of $30 in his home, by a man living on the near north side here, who has not yet been arrested.

GOVERNOR SPEAKS ON STATE MINE WARFARE

McNutt Advises Peace Agreement in Rotary Club Address.

Mine warfare, such as exists in Indiana today, is an age-old problem that should be settled by both sides getting together in a rational manner, Governor Paul V. McNutt told the Rotary club members Tuesday at the Clapploft.

"When you see the children of nonunion miners walk out of school when the children of union miners walk in and union miners' children walk out when the nonunion miners' children walk in, you have some idea of the difficulty of the situation," the Governor said.

JUNE KNIGHT DENIES ROMANCE WITH BAER

'I Like Him, But...' She Says at Hollywood.

By United Press
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 11.—June Knight has nothing more than an academic interest in the Max Baers' divorce.

The actress-dancer, whose name once was linked with that of the pugilist, laughingly denied she would welcome his attentions, now that he is free of matrimonial ties.

"I like Max," said June, "but I have no thought of resuming any so-called romance with him—or with any one else for that matter. I am interested only in my work."

Shoe Theft Brings Arrest

A pair of shoes left on the running board of an automobile at Pennsylvania and Maryland by a Negro who fled resulted in the arrest of Preston Lane, 38, Negro, of 552 Agnes street, charged with vagrancy. Police declared the shoes were stolen from an East Washington street store.

Indiana in Brief

Lively Spots in the State's Happenings Put Together 'Short and Sweet.'

By Times Special
FRANKFORT, Ind., Oct. 11.—With the arrest in Indianapolis of Joseph Wisdom, Clinton county authorities have as prisoners three men whom they believe are all the members of a gang which made a specialty of committing burglaries in churches.

Others held are Harrison Rector and Jason Cook. According to authorities, Rector and Cook were arrested while they were on their way to break into the Farmer Chapel church.

It is said that Wisdom's arrest followed sale of a rug stolen from a church in Pickard to an Indianapolis woman, who demanded a receipt. It was signed with Wisdom's name. He also is accused of selling two Bibles.

Festival to Be Held

By Times Special
LEBANON, Oct. 11.—Annual Leabon festival, of the Crawfordville district of the Epworth League will be held here Saturday, with nearly forty leagues represented. Each will bring supplies of food to be given to the Indiana Methodist children's home here.

The Rev. C. H. Loveland of Ross-ville, district president, will be in charge. The festival last year drew an attendance of 450.

Trial Date Is Set

By Times Special
TIPTON, Oct. 11.—H. R. Pauley of Indianapolis will be tried in Tipton circuit court Oct. 30 on a charge of failure to stop after an accident, on a road near here. As a result of the accident, Carroll Spradling, former Purdue university basketball star, lost his left arm.

A truck alleged to have been driven by Pauley sideswiped an automobile in which Spradling was riding.

Dog Stealing Charged

By Times Special
LEBANON, Oct. 11.—Charged with the theft of four valuable coon dogs, James Morrill, 52, living south of Scarville, is held in Boone county jail here. The dogs, belonging to Kenneth Neidlinger, east of Lebanon, are said to have been sold in Illinois.

Woman, 92, Is Buried

By Times Special
ELKIN, Oct. 11.—Funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Hettie Coppock, 92, believed to have been the oldest woman residing in Tipton county.

Brands Husband Drunkard

By Times Special
BLOOMINGTON, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Eva J. Goss, mother of six children ranging in age from five months to seven years, has filed suit for divorce in Monroe circuit court against Luther F. Goss.

She alleges he is an habitual drunkard; that he made home brew, and on one occasion gave beer to a son, Donald, 3, in such a quantity that the child became intoxicated.

Business Is on Gain

By Times Special
SHELBYVILLE, Oct. 11.—Decided gains in sales are reported by several Shelbyville stores, manager of one stating that in one day receipts were larger than at any time since 1929, even including the Christmas shopping period.

Gypsies Rob Aged Man

By Times Special
SHELBYVILLE, Oct. 11.—Gypsies robbed Louis Meyers, 70, near Boggs town, of $9 which he had earned cutting wood and had intended to use in buying clothing for himself and wife.

Four women and a man from a gypsy band approached Mr. Meyers while he was cutting wood in a farm lot and after they had left, he discovered a pocketbook containing the money was missing.

BAPTISTS WILL HOLD 'VICTORY RALLY' TONIGHT

Senator Robinson Deplores Spiritual State of Nation in Talk.

Indiana Baptists today centered their interests in a gigantic "victory rally," to be held at Cadle tabernacle in connection with the annual convention of the Baptist church.

More than 10,000 people are expected to attend this rally tonight, which will be addressed by Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, pastor of the Third Baptist church of St. Louis, Mo. Hundreds of singers will take part in a great united choir drawn from the Baptist choirs of the city. The program will begin at 6:30 p. m. with an organ recital.

Senator Addresses Session

Last night, Senator Arthur R. Robinson addressed the convention in session at the First Baptist church.

"The nation," Senator Robinson said, "is in sackcloth and ashes. Today on the centenary of the Baptist denomination in Indiana we see the role of the church more than ever before. We must get back to the influence of the church and of Jesus Christ."

"The money changers must be driven from the temple. There can be no economic recovery until spiritual values are recognized—otherwise our government will fall and take its place in history, with Greece, the Roman Empire, Babylon, India, Persia, Assyria, and others."

Urges Spiritual Challenge

"Nations live and die. Honor, character, decency and spiritual values must prevail or we have chaos and death."

"That is the challenge which the Baptists and all other churches today must hurl to the people of the United States and the world. On response to that challenge depends the future of civilization—only alternative is a return to the dark ages."

LAWYERS NAME TWO NOMINATING GROUPS

'Red' and 'White' Tickets to Be in Field.

At a luncheon meeting of the Lawyers' Association at the Washington yesterday, two nominating committees were appointed by James C. Jay, president of the association.

Joseph Sexton, Fred Steiger and Will Welter will draw up the "red" ticket, while a "white" ticket will be nominated by Donald LaPuz, Miss Bess Robbins, and Carl Vandivies. Nominations will be reported at the November meeting and the election will be held in December.

CONVERT 8,000 ACRES OF BEETS INTO SUGAR

340 Men Recalled to Work at Decatur Plant.

By United Press
DECATUR, Ind., Oct. 11.—Conversion of more than 8,000 acres of beets into sugar was under way at the Central Sugar Company here today.

Approximately 340 men have been recalled to work at the plant for the seasonal run—an increase of more than one-third in the working force.
