

ATHEARN ACTION IS APPROVED BY FACULTY GROUP

Adopt Resolution Backing Trustees' Ouster of College Head.

The opinion of the junior class, notwithstanding dismissal of Dr. Walter Scott Athearn as president of Butler University is approved by the faculty of two colleges of the institution.

Dr. Athearn was dismissed without hearing by the board of directors last Monday. He refused to resign and in a public statement charged that the policies of the university were controlled by the "downtown office."

A resolution supporting the board's action was adopted at a meeting of the college of liberal arts and sciences faculty and a similar resolution unanimously was approved by the college of religion faculty.

Pledge Support

The liberal arts college resolution, drawn up by Dr. Paul V. Haworth, follows:

"Resolved, That the faculty of Butler College recognizes the efforts by Dr. Walter Scott Athearn while president of this institution and wishes him well in any future field in which he may labor."

"In view of a great number of reasons, some tangible and others intangible, we approve the step taken by the board of directors in severing his connection with the institution.

"We pledge our utmost endeavor and support to acting President James W. Putnam in the arduous task he has undertaken. He long has enjoyed both our confidence and affection. We want the friends of Butler and the public in general to know that under his wise and sensible leadership the institution will move on harmoniously to larger fields of influence."

W. C. T. U. Takes Action

"It is our desire that this resolution be given to the newspapers."

The Meridian Women's Christian Temperance Union yesterday adopted a resolution commending Dr. Athearn for his fight against the use of liquor on the Butler campus, and asked directors of the university "to give to the friends and patrons of this Christian institution a reason for sudden dismissal of this Christian gentleman."

The resolution was signed by Mrs. A. C. Hawn, president, and Mrs. H. N. Garris, secretary.

New J. C. Penney Store Opens Doors Today

600 Jobs for City Workers

Created: Building Is Remodeled.

Opening of the J. C. Penney department store, newest recruit to swell the Indianapolis NRA campaign with more than 600 jobs for city workers, was held today.

The store, located at 33 East Washington street, occupies all of the upper floors of the building of the old Pettis Dry Goods Company.

With the opening of the new store, Indianapolis will see a completely new establishment in fittings, interior decorations and window display space. The entire building has been remodeled and redecorated.

O. E. Campbell, general manager, an old resident of Indianapolis, said of the opening of the store:

"In establishing this store, I am realizing an ambition to return to my old city and make my permanent home here. There is something of a coincidence in the fact that in this building, my older brother started his merchandising career with the New York store."

Penney stores represent, in substantial part, the ownership of the men who manage them. Men who make a success in one locality are open for partnerships in other localities as the opportunities arise.

"The store will handle a complete line of apparel for men, women and children with dry goods and personal accessories."

Producer Seeks to Buy Only Dialog.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 2.—Charley MacArthur tells this story of the shrewdness of some producers. Said one after reading a MacArthur script:

"I don't like your story, Mr. MacArthur, nor the way you developed the plot. But I think the dialog is swell."

The producer paused.

"How much," he asked craftily, "will you take for just the dialog?"
