

HITLER STORM TROOPS MAY TURN MILITARY

Nazi Chief Studies Plans to Reorganize His Followers.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Chancellor Adolf Hitler, strengthened by the tremendous vote in his favor in the Sunday plebiscite, plans drastic reorganization of his Storm Troop organization along military lines, it was understood today.

Hitler was reported to be planning to practically disband his organization of picked men, the elite Storm Troopers, leaving only a nucleus of the best men to serve as bodyguards for Nazi chiefs.

Next, it was understood, the regular Storm Troop organization would be reduced materially. Discipline would be intensified and uniforms probably would be changed to gray—reminiscent of the field gray of German World war uniforms.

Storm Troopers remaining in the organization, it was reported, would be expected to live in barracks. Men dismissed would be permitted to wear their uniforms only at Nazi festivals, it was said.

The aim of the Nazi chieftain in reorganizing the force, it was explained, was to keep the Storm Troopers under more complete control.

It was yet to be learned whether, if the plan were pursued, it would meet with the approval of the countenance of World war allies, increasingly suspicious of Germany's efforts to force reduction in their military establishments or to attain equality with them.

NATIONAL FARM ADMINISTRATOR TO TALK HERE

George N. Peek to Address Indiana Farm Bureau Session Thursday.

George N. Peek, national AAA administrator, is scheduled to address the fifteenth annual convention of the Indiana Farm Bureau at noon Thursday in the Odd Fellows hall. The convention will open tomorrow with an address by W. H. Settle, Indianapolis, bureau president, on "Accomplishments of Organized Agriculture."

Three thousand delegates and representatives are expected to attend the two-day sessions. As a pre-convention activity, the insurance department of the bureau is holding sessions in the Traveline room of the Lincoln today. Speakers on the program include Harry E. McLean, state insurance commissioner; J. G. Mesherie, Bloomington, Ill. president of State Farm Insurance Companies; and Judge Ralph N. Smith of the appellate court.

Featured on tonight's program is the state championship public speaking contest among farm bureau women on the topic, "What the Farm Bureau Means to Me," under the direction of Mrs. Charles W. Sewell, Ottoburn.

The sessions will close with an entertainment by the Eighth district, directed by Mrs. H. B. Ogden, Greensburg.

M. Clifford Townsend, Lieutenant-Governor, will welcome the delegates to the farm convention tomorrow. The important address of the afternoon meeting will be by Ernest Rice, president of the Federal Loan Bank, Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Peek will speak Thursday. Also included on the program are Senator Arthur R. Robinson, T. A. Coleman, Purdue university, and E. A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Indiana in Brief

Lively Spots in the State's Happenings Put Together 'Short and Sweet.'

By Times Special

FRANKFORT, Nov. 14.—Insanity is the defense pleaded by Nelson T. Amos, 45, former Clinton county surveyor, to charges of issuing fraudulent checks, agent's embezzlement and automobile banditry.

While attorneys made the plea in circuit court, Amos waited in an anteroom, and after the hearing, was remanded to jail.

A total of $2,000 was obtained in the alleged forgeries. Arresting officers said they halted a deal whereby Amos intended to dispose of an automobile. He was taken into custody near his home in Kirklin.

Checks alleged to have been issued by Amos were against the account of the Camden Cement and Tile Company, which had employed the former official as a salesman.

According to Arthur Richey, vice-president of the company, Amos had been given some blank checks for use only in bidding as part of his work as a salesman. He is said to have represented the checks to be for payment of his salary and expenses.

Hoosier Lauds La Guardia

GREENFIELD, Nov. 14.—Fiorello LaGuardia, elected mayor of New York last week, often remarks regarding his marriage to his secretary, "I married a good secretary and got a bum cook," according to Mrs. Mildred S. Wheeler, formerly of Greenfield, who last year served as his secretary.

Statements that the new mayor is a foreigner are incorrect, Mrs. Wheeler, now residing at Cambridge City, says.

"He is an American born of Italian parents," Mrs. Wheeler points out, "and was reared at an army post in the west where his father was an officer. He is very fond of horses and is an expert in the saddle; appreciates to the fullest all music and especially grand opera; is a friend of all children; has a most remarkable vocabulary and is a brilliant lawyer."

Injured: Asks $10,000

LEBANON, Nov. 14.—Damages of $10,000 are asked by William C. Long, Hamilton county resident, in a suit filed in Boone circuit court here against the Northern Indiana Power Company.

Mr. Long alleges that while he was employed with a threshing crew, a separator on which he was riding passed under a line of the company on a farm and he incurred severe burns when he came in contact with the wire. He alleges negligence in that the wire was placed too low.

Holds Sweet Corn Title

SHELBYVILLE, Nov. 14.—Shelby county grows more sweet corn than any other county in Indiana and only fifteen in the entire nation surpass it, according to statistics of the United States bureau of the census.

Among the highest fifty counties in the nation are three other Indiana counties, Bartholomew, ranking thirty-first, Jackson thirty-seventh and Miami fiftieth.

Industrialists to Meet

LAFAYETTE, Nov. 14.—Social and economic trends of the present will be discussed at the fourth annual industrial research conference to be held here Friday and Saturday under auspices of Purdue Research Foundation, of which G. Stanley Meikle is director.

Industrial leaders from various sections of the middle west will attend. Speakers will include R. M. Plaister, Chicago, director of the bank, supervisory department of Moody's Investors' Service, and H. G. Knight, chief of the bureau of chemistry and soils, United States department of agriculture.

LARRABEE WILL SUPPORT TRACK ELEVATION PLAN

Congressman Promises to Work for Federal Board Hearing.

Support of the Belt railroad track elevation project has been assured by Representative William H. Larrabee, Eleventh district, E. H. Wischmeyer, committee chairman, said yesterday.

Mr. Wischmeyer and J. Ed Burk, committee secretary, have discussed the proposal with Mr. Larrabee frequently since July. The congressman said that he would give his full support to the project before the federal public works administration in Washington, as a means of providing employment for Marion county's jobless.

Mr. Larrabee was to call on Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan this morning to express his views, prior to a meeting of the central executive committee of the league backing the project with city and county officials in the mayor's office.

FEUDAL TREND HERE RAPPED BY SPEAKER

Professor Asserts America Would Not Tolerate System.

Despite the severe economic crisis through which we now are passing, the United States never will revert to the feudal system for the protection of our citizens, Dr. Walter Slifer, professor of political science at Butler university, declared last night.

Dr. Slifer, speaking on "The Feudal System," addressed the freshman class on elementary law at the Benjamin Harrison law school. Three corollaries of such a system, a weak government, continued disorder and a lack of specie, never would be tolerated by the American people, he said.

CAMELS—THEY NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

How are YOUR nerves? TEST No. 9

Hold a needle with a large eye between thumb and index finger of left hand—upright position. Take a piece of strong cotton thread, roll it until it is firmly pointed. Hold the thread through the eye without touching the needle with the fingers of the right hand. The average score is hitting the eye on the third try.

Frank White (Camel smoker), famous pilot, member of Adventurers Club, threaded his needle the first time.
