

ROBBERS TAKE $111; DRIVER OF TAXI MENACED

Five Holdups Reported During Week-End; Life Threatened.

Barbecue places, lunch stands, and motorists were victims of five holdups over the week-end. The total money reported stolen to police was $111.

Early today two men held up the Ziegler barbecue stand, Emerson avenue and Raymond street, and rifled the cash register of $21. Otto Ziegler, owner of the stand, fired a shot at the men as they escaped, but it proved ineffective.

Two Negroes robbed John Lane, 24, of 805 Fletcher avenue, taxi driver, of $9 when he picked them up as fares at 902 West Twenty-seventh street. The Negroes threatened to cut Lane's throat with a razor.

H. M. Johnson, 24, operator of a hamburger stand at Fountain Square, was held up by a bandit and $18 taken from him as he closed his lunchroom Sunday morning.

Ben Pfaff, 23, of 710 1/2 River avenue, reported to police that he was robbed of $4 Saturday at Pratt and Blake streets by a Negro bandit he picked up while driving his taxicab.

A hitchhiker picked up Saturday evening at Rural and Washington streets by Leotis Gregory, 22, of Brookville, Ind., robbed him of $39 at East street, commandeered his auto and escaped. The auto was found later at New Jersey and Walnut streets. Four electric motors, which Gregory had purchased, still were in the car.

G. A. R. HANDS TORCH TO SPANISH VETERANS

Surviving Members Pass Down Relics to Younger Group.

HUNTINGTON, Nov. 20.—The task of carrying on the patriotic activities of the G. A. R., whose ranks are slowly fading, has been entrusted to the United Spanish war veterans.

A few surviving members of the James R. Slack post of the G. A. R. have assigned all equipment and relics, now in the courthouse, to the Spanish war veterans. Possessions also include a cannon and flag pole in the courthouse lawn.

TURKEY FARM RAID ENDED BY GUN FIRE

Five Robbers Miss Loot as Owner Opens With Shotgun.

Plans for a big Thanksgiving day dinner were spoiled for five men yesterday when H. A. Hartman, living two miles northeast of New Bethel, on the Chapel road, opened fire on them with a shotgun.

When the robbers fled in a truck, Mr. Hartman found thirty-five live turkeys tied beside the fence, and five guinea hens, which had been smothered to prevent them from giving alarm, he told deputy sheriffs.

Mr. Hartman said he believed he hit one of the men.

Suffers Severe Injuries

Clark Payne, 1227 South Dakota street, was treated at city hospital last night for severe head injuries incurred when he fell at his home.

QUARRY MILL BURNED

Loss Estimated at $50,000; Fire Spreads From Timber.

By Times Special

BEDFORD, Nov. 20.—The Robin Roost mill, west of Oolitic, was in ruins today as result of a fire believed to have spread from a nearby patch of timber. Loss was estimated at from $50,000 to $60,000. The mill was one of the oldest quarry mills in the section. It has been unused for several years.

BANDIT CAUGHT IN STORE WITH LOOT AT SIDE

Hanover Shoe Shop Robber Drops Revolver as Police Appear.

Captured during a holdup attempt at the Hanover shoe store, 33 South Illinois street, Saturday night, Harry Beebe, 45, St. Louis, tomorrow will be taken into criminal court for trial on robbery charges, as result of his request to "get it over with quickly."

He was identified last night by John Partlow, proprietor of a restaurant at 23 West Ohio street, as the bandit who trussed up Partlow and stole more than $100 Oct. 30. Criminal Judge Frank P. Baker set the case for tomorrow because the arresting officers were asleep at their homes today and could not be notified to appear.

Arrest of Beebe resulted from a "hunch" of Carl Parr, 42, of 5903 Downey avenue, manager of the Hanover shoe store, at 14 East Washington street, who was held up by Beebe four years ago and robbed of $1,800.

Surrenders to Police

Beebe attempted to enter Mr. Parr's store Saturday night just as the store was being closed and asked about a box of hosiery, but left hurriedly when Mr. Parr refused him admittance.

Suspecting that Beebe might attempt to hold up the other Hanover store, Mr. Parr hurried to the store, saw Beebe, and called police.

When police squads entered a minute or two later, Beebe dropped his revolver and surrendered, saying he "wouldn't shoot a policeman."

Woman Bound With Wire

When police arrived, Beebe was forcing Manager Frobel Utterback, 47, of 449 North La Salle street, to tie himself with picture wire. Mrs. Utterback, the only other person in the store, already had been trussed up. The store receipts for the day were beside Beebe.

He was arrested four years ago after holding up Mr. Parr, but escaped. Shot later by a policeman in Ohio, he recovered and escaped again. He is reported to have held up Hanover stores in Cincinnati and Louisville in the last few days.

The robbery charge carries a penalty of ten to twenty-five years in prison.

AUTO THIEF BREAKS AWAY FROM CAPTORS

Paroled Convict Begs for Release, Escapes Shot.

An automobile thief, captured by George Wilson, merchant policeman, and Mark Golas, Rivoli theater manager, at Tenth and Gray streets Saturday night, broke away and escaped, after having begged to be released, saying he was on parole from the Indiana state prison, police were told. Wilson said he fired once at the fugitive, but missed him.

Indiana in Brief

Lively Spots in the State's Happenings Put Together 'Short and Sweet.'

By Times Special

BLOOMINGTON, Nov. 20.—The "distinguished" Boy Scout leader who met some of Bloomington's best people, including young women with whom he had dates, has vanished.

A check he gave for $20 has come back from an Indianapolis bank, marked "No funds."

The man, who said he was Harry C. Calman, and also is said to have used the name of Dick Runeson, wore a Scout leader's uniform. Appearing unheralded, the man said he was a Boy Scout commissioner from Holland, and was a graduate of the universities of Heidelberg and Oxford.

At night he slipped away to sleep in a filling station, the operator of which said the man told him he was an army officer.

Charges Aid Fraud

By Times Special

SHELBYVILLE, Nov. 20.—Charging several persons have sworn to false affidavits to obtain Addison township poor relief, Trustee Clark McKenney announces that any further falsification will result in prosecution.

The trustee says that some persons who have income make affidavits that they have none. He cited one case in which a poor relief recipient obtained a judgment, using part of the money to buy an automobile.

In making application for aid, the man did not mention the judgment, Mr. McKenney declared.

Clinic Opened

By Times Special

BLOOMINGTON, Nov. 20.—Aside from seven counties which have tuberculosis sanatoria, Monroe county is the first in Indiana to establish a tuberculosis center and clinic, located in the Central school here. The center is composed of four rooms, two for examinations, one for taking X-ray pictures and one for developing plates.
