

KNIGHTS PLAN ANNUAL BALL; HAYES HONORED

Many Distinguished Guests Attend Testimonial Banquet.

Plans are under way to make the annual Thanksgiving Eve ball of the Indianapolis council of the Knights of Columbus the most successful event of its sort in the history of the local chapter of the order. The lecture committee, headed by William Greener, has devoted much time and effort to arranging an entertainment program which will attract and delight a large gathering.

Connie's band has been procured to furnish music and more than a little of the entertainment. The council hall, where the party will be held, is being decorated in harmony with the season. Tables will be arranged around the floor in cabaret fashion. Both members and their friends are invited to attend. The price of admission will be 50 cents.

The council will suspend all other activities tonight, to hold the annual memorial exercises for members who died during the past year. The ceremony, a part of the ritual of the Knights of Columbus, has been held annually by the local chapter for many years. Members of the council, whose memories will be honored are: Frederick G. Beckman, Fred W. Ashbaugh, James G. Flaherty, John T. Rice, William J. Finn and Joseph P. Zimmerman.

Edward A. Hayes Honored

The eleventh annual "Old Melody" concert will be held in the council auditorium Sunday night, Dec. 17. The event customarily attracts more than 1,000 music lovers. Harry Calland is in charge of arrangements for the concert.

The testimonial dinner held Tuesday night in the Marott in honor of Edward A. Hayes, national commander of the American Legion, by his Indianapolis fellow members in the Knights of Columbus, was attended by more than 300. Mr. Hayes is the first member of the order to head the American Legion.

In his address to the assemblage Mr. Hayes said, "Charity, the first and foremost principle of the Knights of Columbus, is identical with the first principle of the American Legion. In essence, it is the same. It is the love of our fellow man. I, therefore, thank the local council for himself and Mrs. Hayes, who also was present, 'for making us welcome to this wonderful community in this splendid manner. It is indeed gratifying to be the guest on this occasion.'

Prior to the dinner, an informal reception was held at which members and guests were introduced to the honored couple. Grand Knight John J. Minta opened the program, welcoming Mr. Hayes in behalf of the Knights of Columbus. John J. McShane acted as toastmaster.

Judge Chambers Speaks

Speakers during the evening included the Right Rev. Monsignor Raymond Noll, pastor of St. Philip Neri parish; Plans Greenlee, secretary to Governor Paul V. McNutt; Judge Smiley N. Chambers, James E. Deery, speaking for Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan, who was called with Governor McNutt to Washington to attend the national relief conference; John P. O'Donnell, Bloomington, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, and Frank Klozza, Jeffersonville, southern Indiana commander of the legion.

The Rev. Father S. Joachim Ryder, F. Wayne, state chaplain of the American Legion; Otto Ray, Twelfth district commander of the legion; Joseph M. Nurre, Bloomington, master of the Fourth degree of Indiana; Frank Monahan, Indianapolis council, wearer of the Distinguished Service Cross, the Purple Heart, and the Croix de Guerre with Palm, and Peter Hickey, Indianapolis council, uncle of Mr. Hayes.

Letters were read from the Most Rev. Joseph Charles, bishop of Indianapolis; the Most Rev. Joseph E. Ritter, bishop auxiliary of the local diocese; Governor McNutt, Mayor Sullivan, Senator Arthur Robinson, Supreme Knight Marvin H. Carmody, and Congressman Ludlow and Larrabee.

EAGLES EXPECT FIFTY TO TAKE WORK MONDAY

Athletic Show and Annual Christmas Program Also Scheduled.

Three major events are on the schedule of Indianapolis Eagles aerie for the remainder of the year. Next Monday night, a class will be initiated. Already forty applications are on file, according to Secretary Leonard Thiel, and it is expected the candidates will number at least fifty. The membership campaign committee is headed by William S. Miller.

The ritual will be exemplified at the lodge home, 43 West Vermont street, by the aerie officers headed by President William M. Grady.

Athletic Show Set

Another in a series of athletic shows will be given Nov. 29, under the direction of Frank L. Buchanan. Annual Christmas entertainment will be given Dec. 27, when several hundred children will be guests of the Eagles. Guy Woodruff is general chairman for the entertainment, and has called a meeting of his committee for Friday night.

Among aerie projects under consideration is formation of a drill team and band.

National Head on Trip

During the past week the aerie was represented at meetings in live Indiana cities at which George Nordin, St. Paul, Minn., national Eagles president, was the guest of honor. The city delegation included Otto P. Delius, past national president; J. Pierce Cummings, national trustee; Fred J. Snyder and John J. Pfarr.

Mr. Nordin visited aerie at New-castle, Peru, Kokomo, Vincennes and Evansville and witnessed the initiation of more than 100 men into the order.

Mothers, Mix This At Home for a Bad Cough

Needs No Cooking! Big Saving!

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this simple home mixture and try it for a distressing cough. It's a triple to mix, national president; J. Pierce Cummings, national trustee; Fred J. Snyder and John J. Pfarr.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water for a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugstore, put it into a pint bottle, and fill up with your sugar syrup. The pint thus made gives you four times as much cough remedy for your money as is far more effective than ready-made medicine. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membranes, loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and clears the air passages. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get on with your day. Pinex is a compound of Norway Pine, in concentrated form, famous as a healing agent for throat troubles. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.
