

'REBOUND' WILL BE STAGED AT CIVIC THEATER

Lilith Baur, Walter Pfaff Are Headliners in Shaw's Cast.

"Rebound," the Civic Theater's second production of the current season, which opens at the Playhouse tomorrow night, is a play in which each member of the cast has an equal opportunity to display his particular talent.

Lilith Baur and Walter Pfaff, who became so popular as a comedy team with their portrayal of Laura and Augustus Merrick in "The Vinegar Tree" last season, head the cast.

Mrs. Baur, as Mrs. Jaffrey, very firmly and very patiently knows everything; and Mr. Pfaff, fortunately cast, has in the role of Mr. Jaffrey, a charming and sympathetic characterization, far removed from his recent role of Herman Glogauer in "Once in a Lifetime."

Martha Pittenger Has Role

Although playing husband and wife, they never appear on the stage simultaneously. For Mr. Jaffrey many years previous left his impossible wife and went to Europe where he hasn't been quite sober for twenty years.

Martha Pittenger, who appeared as "Sister Joanna of the Cross" in "The Cradle Song" last season, has the leading role of Sara Jaffrey, a restless, modern girl being driven into a marriage by her overzealous mother.

Harold B. Sharp is making his second appearance with the theater in this production as Lyman Patterson, the very wealthy and successful head of a Wall Street banking house. Mr. Sharp played Max Lawrence in "The Vinegar Tree" last year.

Elsinore Funk is cast in the role created by Katherine Leslie on the stage and Myrna Loy in the motion picture version of the play—Eve Lawrence, an attractive, slow-moving individual, sure of herself and her hold over men.

Grotendick in Cast

Dick Grotendick, who appeared as Kruger in "The Front Page" last season, plays the role of Les Crawford, Liz Crawford's husband, a pleasant, but not particularly exciting person.

Adrian Reiter who was seen in "As Husbands Go" plays Pierre, a French hall porter.

Other members of the cast, all of whom made their debut with the civic in "Once in a Lifetime," include: Mary Jane Alsop as Liz Crawford, Sara's older sister; James Larmore as Bill Truesdale, the great lover; Lionel Wiggam as Johnnie Coles, a careless, irresponsible person with whom Sara is in love; Rita Conors as Maria, the Crawford's maid; and Delmas McConnell as Jules, a French waiter.

Hale MacKeen has directed the production.

SCIENTISTS SEARCH FOR VIOLENT QUAKE

Intense Temblors Recorded;
Location Unknown.

By United Press

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 21.—An earthquake centering in Central America or the mid-Pacific was recorded on the seismograph at the Carnegie laboratory of the California Institute of Technology at 3:25 p. m. yesterday. A second tremor was recorded eight minutes later. Seismologists reported the disturbance as severe, centering at a point 3,170 miles distant.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Scientists throughout the world sought today to locate the origin of a violent earthquake which last night vibrated seismographs in widely scattered places.

The quake was of violent intensity, described by scientists at Gonzales observatory, Victoria, B. C., as comparing in intensity with the quake that devastated the city of Yokohama.

Instruments at Georgetown university still were vibrating three and a half hours after the first shock was recorded.

European seismographs also recorded the quake.

State Woman, 96, Is Dead

By Times Special
SHERIDAN, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Lucy Thompson, 96, who never had ridden in an automobile, is dead at her farm home near here, where she had resided eighty years.

IMPORTANT things are discussed. That marvelous cranberry and orange relish
may be the interesting topic
—Here's how it's made:—

CRANBERRY ORANGE RELISH

(No Cooking)

The aristocrat of relishes.

1 pound cranberries, 1 to 1 1/4
oranges, 2 cups sugar. Put cranberries through meat grinder. Pare orange with sharp knife, remove seeds; trim off white membrane (leaving the pulp exposed on the surface). Put rind and pulp through grinder, mix with sugar and berries.
Let set a few hours before serving.
For future use, pour in glasses, cover with paraffin.
