

FOUR EXHIBITS ARE OPENED BY SCIENCE CHURCH

World Progress During Past
25 Years Shown in City
Displays.

World progress during the past twenty-five years, as recorded in the Christian Science Monitor, is shown in four local exhibits, under the auspices of four of the Christian Science churches of Indianapolis.

The displays, which mark the progress of the Christian Science Monitor, since its first issue of twenty-five years ago, include scrap books, issues of the paper, and posters.

An interesting feature of the display, prepared by the committee from the Third Church of Christ, Scientist, is a collection of unique rocks from a cavern in the Ozark mountains.

The exhibit is at 115 East Thirty-fourth street. Others which will be open to the public during this week have been prepared by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, and is shown at 1608 North Illinois street; Second Church of Christ, Scientist, 35 East Ohio street, and the Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, 5420 East Washington street.

The week's daily issues of the paper will carry supplements, showing in pictures and features progress of the Christian Science publications during the last twenty-five years.

CANADA TO SHIP FINE TURKEYS TO ENGLAND

Million Pounds of Best Fowls on Christmas Export List.

By United Press
MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—One million pounds of the finest Canadian turkey available will be exported to Britain for the Christmas trade.

Arrangements are being made through the department of agriculture here for the assembling, inspection and grading of the birds, to insure that the highest Canadian standards are maintained. While in London, Honorable G. Howard Ferguson, Canadian high commissioner, is taking steps to see that the turkeys go on the market in the best condition.

AUTOIST SPEEDS UP: BANDIT THROWN OFF

Thief Leaps on Running Board,
Falls as Driver "Steps on It."

A bandit who jumped on the running board of a car driven by Roy Shaw, 930 West Thirty-third street, as he drove on West River boulevard near Twenty-sixth street last night, and slapped Mr. Shaw, was thrown from the car when Mr. Shaw sped up, he reported to police.

ARSON INVESTIGATOR FOR STATE IS DEAD

Phil Veatch, 56, of Evansville, Is Heart Disease Victim.

A telegram was received today by Al Feeney, director of public safety, of the death last night in Evansville of Phil Veatch, 56, inspector and arson investigator of the state fire marshal's office. Heart disease is believed to have caused Mr. Veatch's death.

Stabbing Suspect Is Sought
Police today were searching for Howard Crenshaw, Negro, of 1451 East Twenty-fourth street, who is alleged to have stabbed his wife, Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw, about the face and body in their home today. Mrs. Crenshaw is in city hospital in a dangerous condition.

'Curves' for Walkathon

Mae West a Resident of Indianapolis? Her Name Is One of Many Celebrities on Petition.

WHY, I wouldn't treat a pig in the manner those Walkathon contestants are being treated," indignantly exclaimed Michael Abrams, attorney, when he appeared last night before city council in behalf of an ordinance banning the state fairground contest.

Councilmen and spectators roared with glee as they realized that Mr. Abrams was using the strongest words at his command to express his contempt for the Walkathon.

Speaking for "the good citizens of Indianapolis," Mr. Abrams asserted what he termed the "terrible moral effect" of the Walkathon on the young generation of Indianapolis.

The council meeting was the signal for another episode in the Abrams-Weiss duel as Jacob Weiss, attorney for the Walkathon operators, appeared in behalf of his clients.

DR. EINSTEIN LOSES ALL

Nazis Confiscate Entire Property of Famed Scientist.

By United Press
BERLIN, Nov. 21.—The entire property of Professor Albert Einstein was ordered confiscated today by the state "because of Dr. Einstein's hostile attitude toward Germany."

Mr. Weiss countered Mr. Abrams' label of "silly Walkathon" with a petition containing the names of 6,000 fun-loving residents of Indianapolis who, unisoned, signed the petition in favor of the Walkathon's continuation."

Mr. Weiss prefaced introduction of the petition with the assertion that all the signers are

'CLOUD LIFTING,' M'NUTT STATES IN PRAYER PLEA

Governor's Proclamation of Thanksgiving Refers to Better Times.

Plea for prayers of thankfulness that "the cloud of depression is lifting" was asked today of all Hoosiers in a Thanksgiving day proclamation by Governor Paul V. McNutt.

"Let the wheels of industry and business cease, and all public offices be closed," the proclamation read.

"Let us display from our homes the flag of our country, that all who pass by, seeing it fluttering in the breeze, may know that the symbol of the faith of our fathers still marks our faith in the fundamental principles of sound government, the integrity and unfailing loyalty of our citizenship."

"May we renew our consecration to the service of our fellow-men in a spirit of sacrifice and mutual helpfulness, that knows no race, creed or class, but yields a beautiful expression of brotherhood such as the Savior of mankind sought to bring."

Drink More Milk!

When Every Cent

Must Be Carefully
Spent . . .

Pasteurized Milk Dealers of Indianapolis

"Be Sure It's Pasteurized"

Says Miss Ruth Chambers at the
TIMES COOKING SCHOOL
At the MURAT TEMPLE TUES., WED., THURS.

RUTH CHAMBERS CHOOSES PILLSBURY'S BEST The "balanced" flour

Whether at cooking school or at home, you'll find good cooks using Pillsbury's Best Flour—because they know it will work perfectly for anything they want to bake, from bread to the most delicate pastry. The secret is in the "balance"—a scientific blending of different types of fine wheat into one perfect flour. Visit the cooking school this week, then try Pillsbury's Best yourself.

THE FAVORITE OF GOOD COOKS AT COOKING SCHOOL OR AT HOME

The Roosevelt Touch

Keeps Newsmen in Suspense and Withholds Story of Recognition to the Last.

By GEORGE ABELL
Times Special Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—President Roosevelt's sense for the dramatic was shown clearly the other day when he kept a press conference in suspense on the question of Soviet recognition.

Newsmen crowded into the President's oval-shaped office with its green walls and marine prints, until the comparatively small space was filled almost to suffocation.

On the tip of every one's tongue hung the question: "What about recognition, Mr. President?" Each newspaper man was eager to bolt out of the door and to the nearest telephone as soon as the expected pronouncement was uttered.

It wasn't uttered immediately. In his clear, well-modulated voice, the President calmly began to read a resolution concerning the steel and iron code.

Impatient correspondents sighed. An air of tension seemed to hang over the conference. Mr. Roosevelt perfectly sensed the atmosphere and a semi-smile played about his lips as he finished reading.

Then—abruptly, startlingly—he made the momentous announcement which terminated sixteen years of nonrecognition. After explaining briefly the terms of the agreement, he added, with a real smile, "That'll be all for today, boys."

It was enough. Impatience was over.

Two more men were admitted.

Mr. Roosevelt's smile faded.

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men and said:

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you what it is."

He turned to the two men