PLAN OF CITY
FIRM APPROVED

Trustees System Gold Note
Holders to Control
New Program.

Plan for reorganization of the Trustees System of Indianapolis as submitted by a reorganization committee of gold note holders and preferred stockholders today was upheld by Superior Judge John W. Kern, who ruled against objections of an opposing group.

Judge Kern said security holders have reported being misinformed about the plan by others, and threatened contempt of court proceedings, if "untruths concerning the receivership, to impede it," are continued.

In his finding, Judge Kern pointed out that under the receivership, begun a year ago, cash position of the company has been improved 300 per cent and the reorganization has been proved practical.

Unless the reorganization is carried out, liquidation is faced, causing heavy loss to preferred stockholders and gold note holders. The receivership was brought about by "gross mismanagement of its absentee officials, operating out of Chicago, and by means of a complicated interlocking system of operating and holding companies," the court said in his opinion.

He pointed out that by this system, $200,000 of the local firm's money had been loaned to other companies and worthless notes given in return.

In denying petition to intervene in the case, filed by William E. Moran, representing the Trustees System Security Holders Reorganization committee, and John A. Royce, its attorney, Judge Kern said the group's objections had no merit, and it had not indicated it would co-operate in a reorganization plan, no matter how modified.

Under the reorganization plan, control of the local firm would be in the hands of local investors.

102 STATE HIGHWAY
PROJECTS SUBMITTED

Employment of 17,000 from Relief
Rolls Is Proposed.

State highway commission today submitted 102 projects for federal funds under the emergency public works program. The projects would give employment to 17,000 men.

The Governor's commission on unemployment relief, which must pass on state projects, decided to hold the proposal over until the present federal public works completes its hiring of men. The state highway commission project would then take care of the surplus unemployed.

U. S. TREASURY HEADS CHANGED

A monumental task changes hands here, as outgoing and incoming United States treasury heads meet. Secretary W. H. Wake Up, Sleepy Head!

Fleet Commander and His Officers Inject New Life Into Staff at British House.

By GEORGE ABELL
Times Special Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The British embassy seems to be humming with news since the departure of corpulent Vice Admiral the Hon. R. A. R. Ernle-Erle-Drax, commander-in-chief of His Majesty's West Indies fleet.

Admiral Drax and his glittering retinue of officers started the excitement. Until then, the staid embassy had mostly dozed over highballs (Sir Ronald actually fell asleep at a debts conference).

Came Admiral Drax and the dawn! Dignified Sir Ronald tripped a fox trot. Young Michael Wright, who used to be private secretary to ex-Ambassador Sir Esme (now Lord) Howard, suddenly popped into town. The adventurous Earl of Chichester temporarily left his job as embassy attache and whizzed out west to take a job as an obscure "extra" in Hollywood.

MR. C. J. W. (Tony) Torr, British diplomat and fancier of Great Danes, has been appointed out of a clear sky to the British embassy in Santiago, Chile, and expect to sail for his new post in January.

His pet Great Dane will go with him, in a special crate, with about twenty pounds of salted meat to be devoured en route. Tony hopes the dog will fancy Chile and the Chileans will fancy the Great Dane. If they don't, the dog will sail anyway. A Britisher who loves his dog—Tony will feed the big brute some chile con carne during the voyage, just to get him acclimated.

PLUMP, pink-cheeked Sir Adrian Baillie, who used to be attached here, is giving a series of house parties at historic Leeds castle which his wife (the daughter of Lord Queensborough, formerly Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Wilson Filmer), bought and renovated to the tune of $5,000,000.

Use Cultural Basis for Marriage, De Pauw's
President Urges.

A common intellectual and cultural basis for marriage was stressed by Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, president of De Pauw university, at the Central Christian church last night. "This foundation should be built during the period of courtship," Dr. Oxnam declared.

The lecture was the third of a series on "Marriage and the Home" sponsored by the Indianapolis Council of Federated Church Women.

Praising the co-educational college, Dr. Oxnam said, "The couple sees each other in respect to their intellect rather than when they are on dress parade."

"If no care were taken in preparation for marriage, we wouldn't need to worry so much over the ever-increasing divorce rate. The intellect should be used as well as the emotions when decisions regarding love are made."

"The enforced announcement of intention would bring more time for deliberation and often stop ill-fated marriages. An adequate program of sex education in the schools should be instigated."

Dr. Frank Hatch Streightoff will deliver the final lecture on "Marriage and the Home as the Economist Sees It."

Mrs. Ernest N. Evans is chairman of the department of marriage and home of the local council.
