GRAFTERS SELL 'INFLUENCE' IN CAPITOL RACKET

'Fraternity Brothers' and
'Inside Track' Are
Some Claims.

BY WALKER STONE

Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—A very thriving business is being done in Washington these days by gentlemen engaged in selling influence—influence, be it said, which the gentlemen haven't got. It has become almost a major racket, if the stories now current can be believed.
Offices of the racketeers are scattered over downtown Washington.
Some have legal connections, and have established Washington branches for their law firms. Others operate from hotel rooms. In another, and numerous class, are Washington attorneys who belong to the party in power, whichever it may be, and who know their way around among the government departments.

All small individuals and corporations seeking a backdoor entrance to administration favor find no lack of racketeers who claim to have the magic key and promise to use it for a consideration.

Selling influence that you do not have is one of the oldest rackets in politics. Public officials from the highest down are "sold" daily by persons these officials would not recognize if they met on the street.

Take Down Payment

The established practice is to take a certain payment down, for which the racketeer agrees to use his influence to get the government job, contract, ruling, permit or agreement not to prosecute—whatever the credulous client may want. And if the client gets what he wants the racketeer collects the remainder of the fee.

Sometimes the client does get what he wants, generally through a natural course of events, but the racketeer gets the credit and collects the fee. Regardless of whether the client gets what he wants, however, the racketeer already has the down payment, and who could prove he did not try to use his "influence."

Job Seekers Preyed Upon

The ways of creating an impression of influence are legion. Men who have had some prominence in the party back home establish headquarters in Washington, and listen to the propositions of all comers from the home state. Others make their contact through the entertainment route, managing one way or another to be seen with high government officers in public places.
Others are, or claim to be, old college classmates and fraternity brothers. As a rule, the prospective client must depend upon what the racketeer says he can do.

Perhaps the lowest class in the influence racket are the job sellers, persons who prey on the distress of unemployed persons, peddling their alleged influence for whatever price the job seeker can raise.

A case was recently investigated of a man who organized a Such-and-Such Democratic League, an organization not even remotely connected with the party, which the organizer used as a front to sell government jobs for $5, $10, $25—jobs, of course, that were never delivered.

ATTACKS DAUGHTERS; GETS 5 TO 21 YEARS

Monroe County School Bus Driver Makes Plea of Guilty

By Times Special

BLOOMINGTON, Nov. 23—Sentence of five to twenty-one years in prison was imposed on Frank Huffman, 41, school bus driver, in Monroe circuit court yesterday, when he pledged guilty to criminal assault on his two daughters, aged 16 and 14.

Huffman was arrested when school teachers learned the two children are expectant mothers.

ALL-DAY SHOOT TO BE HELD BY LEGION

STOP THAT COLD

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat, that so often leads to something serious, generally eases up in five minutes when soothing, warming Musterole is applied.
Rubbed in once every hour, relief usually follows in five hours.

Better than a mustard plaster, Musterole gets action because it's NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant"—stimulating, penetrating, and helpful in drawing out pain and infection.

Used by millions for 25 years.
Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong.

"My liver was in bad shape, I tried a good many tonics before being advised to take
Dr. Pierce's Golden
Medical Discovery
and I am glad to say that I was surprised at the results. It helped me beyond my expectations. I will do for them what it has done for
