

HIT-RUN DRIVER SUSPECT HELD BY CITY POLICE

Quiz Man Despite Story of Youths That Car Had
Red Wheels.

Russell Webb, 21, of 1040 South Ewing street, is held today on a vagrancy charge in connection with the death of Mrs. Mayne Walters, 52, of 1001 East Michigan street, who died yesterday morning from injuries suffered when she was struck by a hit-and-run driver.

Police received a report last night that four youths were in a car at the time of the accident, near the scene, 1000 block East Michigan street.

The youths, according to police, informed them that the driver of the hit-and-run car drove a red-wired wheel roadster.

The car Webb was driving was a coupe with black wheels.

Webb, according to police, is said to have been riding with his brother Arthur and two other youths at the time the accident occurred.

Webb's car was sent to the Plaza garage by police.

Bert Walters, husband of the dead woman, is in a critical condition at city hospital from injuries suffered when he and his wife were knocked to the pavement.
