Oswald Jessup, 83, Passes
at Camby; Funeral
Is Tomorrow.

Last rites for Oswald Jessup, 83, Camby, former city ice cream dealer, who died Monday in his home after an illness of two weeks, will be held tomorrow afternoon in the home. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mr. Jessup, a lifelong resident of Marion county, formerly was a member of the Jessup & Antrim Ice Cream Company, Indianapolis, and also had conducted his own business under the name of O. Jessup & Co.

Mr. Jessup was born in Friendswood. He spent most of his life in Indianapolis, going to Camby about a year ago. Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Belle Jessup; two daughters, Mrs. Ethyl Breedlove, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Inez Keenan, Detroit; a son, Lysie Jessup, Camby, a sister, Mrs. John Q. Hitch, New Hudson, Mont., and a brother, R. C. Jessup, Atlanta, Ga.

Pioneer Resident Dead

A resident of Indianapolis since 1888, Mrs. Mary F. Kenny, 78, of 115 East Thirteenth street, died yesterday in the home of a daughter, Mrs. L. E. Rush, Lafayette, following a long illness.

Mrs. Kenny was the widow of William F. Kenny, who died nine years ago. She was born in Derry, Pa., and lived in Pittsburgh for a number of years before coming to Indianapolis. She was a member of SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral parish.

Last rites will be held in the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. S. Sweeney, 1512 North Meridian street, tomorrow morning at 8:30 and in the SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral at 9. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery. Survivors are the two daughters and five grandchildren.

Retired Contractor Passes

Following an illness of eight weeks, Thomas Graham Scott, 83, of 3247 North Capitol avenue, retired brick contractor, died in his home yesterday.

Mr. Scott was believed to be one of the oldest members of the bricklayers union. He had lived here many years and worked on construction of the Lincoln and Claypool hotels. He was a member of the Disciples of Christ brotherhood. Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Adeline L. Scott, and two stepdaughters.

Last rites will be held in the home tomorrow morning at 10:30. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Bohannon Dead

Last rites for Mrs. Anna L. Bohannon, 68, of 1723 Hall place, who died in her home Sunday, will be held in the Harry W. Moore funeral home this afternoon at 2. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Bohannon, a resident of Indianapolis forty-six years, was born in Bloomington. She was a member of the University Park Christian church and the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital Guild.

Surviving her are the husband, Owen L. Bohannon; a daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Cohee, and a son, Edgar J. Baron, both of Indianapolis; a sister, Mrs. Frances White, Bloomington; two brothers, Robert McLaughlin, Bloomington, and Charles McLaughlin, Perry, Ill.; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Thrasher Funeral Friday

Last rites for Ralph D. Thrasher, 35, of 1434 North Mount street, attorney, who was injured fatally in an automobile accident Monday night, will be held in the Memorial Baptist church Friday afternoon at 2. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mr. Thrasher died in the city hospital three hours after his automobile was in a collision in the 5200 block, Madison avenue. His wife, Mrs. Anna J. Thrasher, and two passengers were injured. Occu-

Indiana in Brief

Lively Spots in the State's Happenings Put Together 'Short and Sweet.'

By Times Special

ANDERSON, Dec. 6.—Enforcement of NRA code is beyond his jurisdiction, George O. Chambers, justice of the peace, ruled in a case in which Benjamin Wexler, Anderson restaurant proprietor, was defendant. The proprietor was sued by two former employees, Miss Jessie Oakes and Theodore Barker, who said that despite signing of an NRA code by Mr. Wexler, he paid them $8 and $11 weekly. They asserted they should have received $14 a week.

In dismissing the suit, Justice Chambers took occasion to score NRA "chiselers," but declared his belief that his court and all other tribunals were powerless to act.

Knock Out that COLD!

Give It No Chance To Get Going!

A cold once underway is a cold hard to drive away! Let no cold endanger you. At the first chill or sneeze, take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. It usually makes short work of a cold because it is expressing a cold remedy and because it gets at a cold from the inside. A cold, you know, is an internal infection and calls for internal treatment.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine means COMPLETE relief because it is COMPLETE treatment. It does all the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and hippy feeling and tones and fortifies the entire system. That's the action you want and anything less is taking chances. Get Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine at any drugist, 30c and 50c. Ask for it by the full name and accept no substitute. — Advertisement.
