Variety Marks Christmas Wrappings

Merry Christmas packages this year have variety and gaiety. Home-made preserves become tall pots of flowers when wrapped in red tissue paper, with a fringed top and holly berries furnishing the blooms. Blocked designs are stylish, whether they are candle and star motifs or quaint Victorian black and white silhouettes. A very new paper is purple black with the Virgin and Child and church tops in pastel colors. Silver modernistic boxes are in high favor. Glossy papers include the scarlet background-gold star design, the crinkled blue celophane with silver stars.

The Biggest user OF FINE TURKISH TOBACCOS

—why Luckies taste
better, smoother

On certain mountains in the Near East is a limited collar of earth—called in Turkish, "Yacca." Tobaccos grown there cost as high as $1.00 a pound. Carefully they are examined, leaf by leaf. Often it takes a man a whole day to select two pounds of certain of these fine tobaccos. Lucky Strike is the world's biggest user of fine Turkish tobaccos. For these tender, delicate Turkish leaves are blended with choice tobaccos from our own Southland—to make your Lucky Strike a cigarette that is fully packed—round and firm—free from loose ends. That's why Luckies taste better, smoother.

ALWAYS the finest tobaccos

ALWAYS the finest workmanship

ALWAYS Luckies please!
