

PROMINENT CITY SCHOOL WORKER DIES; RITES SET

Mrs. Ada A. Norwood, 74, Was Organizer for Parent-Teachers.

Last services for Mrs. Ada A. Norwood, 74, of 1133 Epler avenue, prominent Parent-Teacher worker, who died yesterday in her home, will be held at 3 tomorrow afternoon in the Center M. E. church. She was the widow of James A. Norwood.

Mrs. Norwood spent her entire life in Perry township and was a member of the Center church. She was a charter member of Southport chapter No. 442, Order of Eastern Star and was active in organizing Parent-Teacher clubs. She was honorary vice president of the State Congress of Parents and Teachers. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Hazel Epler, Indianapolis; Mrs. Hester Bray, Portland, and Mrs. Martha Wentz, Morgantown; two sons, William A. Norwood, Southport, and James Norwood, Indianapolis; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Hester and Mrs. Zella Hardisty, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Hattie Wilson, Greenwood; a brother, Lindy Hester, Greenwood, and ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Retired Policeman Dead
Henry Sandman, retired Indianapolis policeman, died yesterday in his home at Springfield, O., according to word received here today. Mr. Sandman was one of the first members of the force to hold the rank of lieutenant. He served on the department twenty-three years.

Rites for Crash Victim Set
Last rites for John Stein, 60, of 229 South Warman avenue, who died yesterday in the city hospital of injuries suffered in a truck-automobile collision Tuesday, will be held at 9 tomorrow morning in St. Anthony's Catholic church. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

Retired Carpenter Passes
Funeral services for Engelbert E. Kuhner, 82, of 635 North Davidson street, who died in St. Francis hospital yesterday after a brief illness, will be held at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

CITY BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU NAMES HEADS

Officers Elected at Annual Session Today; Reports Heard.

Annual election of officers of the Indianapolis Better Business Bureau will be held at noon today at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Reports of the last year's activities will be submitted by the officers. T. M. Overley is the bureau manager.

ing in the home and at 9 in St. Mary's Catholic church. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. Mr. Kuhner had been employed as carpenter at the Big Four railroad and the New York Central for thirty-six years before his retirement in 1912. He came to this country from Germany seventy-two years ago. Surviving him are two sons, Leo A. Kuhner and Larry R. Kuhner; a daughter, Mrs. Foris Caffey, and a sister, Mrs. Amalie Fritz, all of this city.
