

GOVERNOR GIVES SCHOOL FINANCE TALK IN KANSAS

Similar Address Planned for Oklahoma City Next Week.

More mileage and more talks to teachers are Governor Paul V. McNutt's program this week.

His office reported Saturday that he had gone to Wichita, Kan., to talk to teachers and taxpayers regarding the Indiana plan of state financing of public schools.

This subject also will be dealt with by the Governor in an address to the Oklahoma state teachers' association at Oklahoma City, Feb. 8. Governor McNutt, who is reported to entertain presidential aspirations, is building himself into the national picture by such talks to educators throughout the United States.

During 1933 he traveled more than 25,000 miles, much of the mileage being on such missions. He returned from Florida Jan. 15, and since has made one trip to Washington. More than 20,000 teachers and taxpayers heard his speech at Tampa, Fla., and the Governor of that state is said to have changed his stand on education in advising the legislature, largely because of Governor McNutt's visit.

Governor McNutt points out that Indiana is one of but three states where all public schools are functioning full time this year. Other states are New York and California. The gross income tax is used here to aid school financing. It was passed under orders of Governor McNutt by the 1933 legislature, which he dominated.

LINDY, 32, SPENDS BIRTHDAY WITH SON

Colonel Plans No Celebration, Gets Many Messages.

By United Press

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Feb. 5.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was content to celebrate his thirty-second birthday yesterday by playing with his infant son Jon at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow.

There was no birthday party. The only visitors were messenger boys who delivered congratulatory messages.

Postal Substation Robbed

Thieves entered a drug store at 200 South State avenue and ransacked the postoffice substation, stealing $75 from a strong box and several pints of whisky. Roy Lagenaar, 4821 East Washington street, operator, told police yesterday.

BANDIT KILLED BY DETECTIVES; PAL ARRESTED

Companion Faces Possible Murder Charges in Kentucky.

One man is dead and another faces robbery and possibly murder charges as result of an attempt to evade police seeking them in connection with a drug store holdup on Saturday night.

The dead man is Malcolm S. Kountz, 22, of 428 East Michigan street, who was shot to death by detectives in the vicinity of Crow's Nest, when he disobeyed a command to halt. One bullet struck him in the back of the head and he fell dead.

Clyde Short, 20, of 515 North New Jersey street, surrendered. Police said he admitted of murder at Burksville, Ky., but that he would sign a statement that he actually committed the crime, for which another man is said to be under arrest. The two were wanted for holdup of the Binkley pharmacy, 5902 College avenue, Saturday night. Spectators obtained license number of the bandit car, which had been reported stolen earlier from Hubert Harold, 605 East New York street.

Police, who took up the chase, found the car wrecked at Sixtieth street and Kessler boulevard. Officers under Lieutenant Donald Tooley searched the vicinity, finally catching up with the fugitives and shooting Kountz when he refused to stop.

Both Kountz and Short were armed, police said, and $30.56, mostly in silver money, was found on Kountz. Both men served time at the Indiana state reformatory for robbery, officers said.

When Mr. and Mrs. Curt Stempel, 1245 South State avenue, heard reports of the shooting over the radio, they went to the scene. Returning, they found a thief had ransacked their home, stealing $58.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Feb. 5.—Death of William Scott, father of twelve children, at first believed to have been caused by the truck of a hit and run driver, is to be investigated by the Monroe county grand jury on a theory that he was slain.

He died in a hospital here a few hours after being found unconscious with a head wound on State Road 37 north of Bloomington.

Authorities vary widely in theories of the cause of death. Sheriff J. Lester Bender and the widow, Mrs. Hannah Scott, believe a truck was responsible.

However, Dr. Ben R. Ross, coroner, is inclined to a belief Scott was a slaying victim. He cites the testimony of four physicians who said the victim apparently had not been drinking. The widow has said she believed her husband was under the influence of liquor and inadvertently walked into the path of a truck.

James Nichols, stepson of Scott, who is said to have been walking with the victim, has disappeared. The family at first said another stepson, Fred Nichols, had been with him.

The missing man, authorities declare, is wanted at Muncie in connection with a slaying and at Columbus on a criminal assault charge.
