

STERN DENIES HE IS FIGHTING M'NUTT CLAN

Senator's Secretary Claims He Has No Time for State Politics.

Ben Stern, secretary to Senator Frederick Van Nuys, today denied that he is having any "battle of the secretaries" with Pleas Greenlee, secretary to Governor Paul V. McNutt.

In a letter to The Times, he set out that he knew nothing about firing Miss Ruth Bledsoe, Sullivan, from her post of stenographer at the statehouse, nor of her immediately being hired at the federal building.

Almost daily reports are brought back to Mr. Greenlee, from Washington visitors, that Mr. Stern is both talking and working (politically) against the McNutt administration generally and Mr. Greenlee in particular.

"Battle With Greenlee"

According to Mr. Stern's letter, he never takes a hand in appointments, except to carry out the wishes of the senator, an act too busy with his mail there to pay any attention to state affairs here.

He also had something to say regarding his relations with E. Kirk McKinney and Will H. Smith, Van Nuys leaders here. Points set out in Mr. Stern's letter of comment regarding The Times story are as follows:

"1. There is no battle between Mr. Greenlee and myself. Mr. Greenlee, as secretary to the Governor, is in charge, apparently, of the Governor's patronage. I, as secretary to Senator Van Nuys, have nothing whatever to do with patronage, except to carry out the senator's instructions regarding letters of endorsement to the proper departments.

Never Knew Miss Bledsoe

"2. I am not acquainted with, nor have I ever known, Miss Ruth Bledsoe, either by name or person. I did not know she had been discharged from a position at the statehouse and I was in complete ignorance of the fact that she was appointed to a position in the Federal building until I read your article.

"3. Although my relations with Mr. McKinney are exceedingly friendly, because of the fact that through my many years of writing politics for The Indianapolis Times, I have found him to be honest, reliable and of unquestioned integrity, I never have discussed with him the matter of appointments of persons discharged by the Governor or his secretary, Mr. Greenlee—in fact, I have paid very little attention to who was hired or discharged by the state administration.

Busy Answering Letters

"My duties, as secretary to the senator, which daily entail the labor of reading and answering, at the direction of the senator, approximately one thousand letters and telegrams and the other numerous tasks too long to list, give me little time even to think about Indiana politics, much less take an active part.

"4. Permit me to point out to you that I have the highest respect for Mr. Will Smith, an intelligent, revenue collector, and our friendship is close and too well known to require comment here."

Mr. Stern sent a copy of the letter to The Times to Mr. Greenlee.
