GOD'S KINGDOM EXISTS ONLY IN MEN'S HEARTS

Words of Jesus Explained True Meaning of Biblical Term.

Text: Matt. 6:1-34

BY W. M. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of The Congregationalist

The message that Jesus brought to men concerned the kingdom of God. It was a message for which many in Israel were prepared, for the religious life of Israel was marked by the hope of a coming Messiah and a Messianic kingdom.

Just what was the nature of this kingdom of God that Jesus came to establish was then, and is now, a matter of much controversy.

To some it was then, as it is to many today, a kingdom of truth and righteousness and justice to be established on earth. To others the kingdom is more remote and spiritual in its nature.

Into these controversies and interpretations it is not necessary that we should enter in order to profit by the teaching of Jesus concerning the kingdom.

The fact is that we may put altogether too much of our interest and attention on questions about the kingdom, while we neglect the realities of the kingdom itself.

It was precisely this attitude that Jesus rebuked. When we approach the kingdom of God in this way, these characteristics are marked rather plainly. The Kingdom of God, the king and his subjects are all very definitely distinguished from the kingdoms, kings, and subjects of this world.

The kingdom of God is a kingdom of the unselfish, of those who are not seeking earthly treasure for themselves, but of those who are seeking the deeper treasures of the kingdom of Heaven—that is, the treasure of loving character and good deeds and true relationships, the things that neither life nor death can destroy and that are always safe and permanent investments.
