

FRANK J. LAHR
OUT TO REGAIN
JUVENILE BENCH

Judge for Sixteen Years
Seeks Nomination in G. O. P. Primary.

Frank J. Laehr, former judge of the Marion county juvenile court for sixteen years, will seek the Republican nomination for judge of this court, he announced today.

Mr. Laehr was graduated from the Teachers' college at Terre Haute and was principal of the Shelbyville high school four years. He is a graduate of the Indiana law school. He is a member of the Presbyterian church and has been associated with philanthropic and religious organizations. Mr. Laehr lives at 4910 Washington boulevard and is the father of six children.

"The court has a great opportunity to serve as a 'life saving' station for the restoration of children to their proper place in society," he said.

Schumacher Files

John A. Schumacher filed a declaration of candidacy for the Republican nomination for Second district city councilman yesterday.

Mr. Schumacher is a graduate of the Chicago high school and Indiana university. He is president of the Phi Delta Theta Indianapolis alumni chapter and is a member of the Indianapolis Symphony orchestra, the Shrine, the Scottish Rite and the American Business Club. Mr. Schumacher is married and resides at 1019 Guilford avenue.

Recorder Seeks Post

Tra P. Haymaker will seek the Democratic nomination for county recorder, he announced today.

Mr. Haymaker is the incumbent county recorder.

Mr. Haymaker has been actively identified with Indianapolis and Marion county real estate business for twenty-five years. He served as a member of the Indianapolis safety board in 1928 and 1929.

The candidate pointed out a saving of approximately $60,000 which he has effected in administration of office duties during his term as compared to the previous four years of the Republican administration. He is a member of the Masonic order, the Odd Fellows and the Indiana Democratic Club.

Seeks Treasurer Post

Frank Cones announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Marion county treasurer today.

He was the party nominee for the office in 1930 and 1932.

Mr. Cones has been in the real estate and finance business twenty-nine years and has lived in Marion county all his life. He is a member of the Millersville Masonic lodge, Scottish Rite, Knights Templar, Shrine, Grotto, Knights of Pythias and Red Men. He is married and lives at 3642 Coliseum avenue.

Hosea Enters Race

Max E. Hosea, local attorney, will seek the Republican nomination for state representative from Marion county. He is 30 years old, married, has one daughter and lives at 3015 North Meridian street. He was graduated from Butler university, took a post-graduate course at Purdue university, attended the Indiana law school and was graduated from the Benjamin Harrison law school. He is a member of the Masonic order.

Files for Representative

Thomas J. Dobson Jr., attorney, announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for state representative today.

He was graduated from Technical high school and Benjamin Harrison law school. He attended Butler university. He is a member of the county and state bar associations, Democratic clubs and Our Lady of Lourdes church.

Mr. Dobson, if elected, will seek repeal of the beer importers' law and will advocate a reduction of the gasoline tax and motor vehicle registration fees. He favors consolidation of county, city and state police units.

Spaan Names Butler

Ralph Spaan, a Republican candidate for criminal court judge, named Frank A. Butler of the C. B. Cones Overall Company as treasurer of his political campaign yesterday.

The appointment was certified in a petition filed in circuit court.

Denny Flays 'Bossism'

"Domination and control of the party organization by one man" was attacked in a letter by George L. Denny, candidate for the Republican mayoralty nomination, sent to precinct committeemen of the party yesterday.

He declared that the party "boss" system is "out of date" and would react against the party.

Registration Explained

System of registration was explained last night by Charles E. Etinger, deputy county clerk, at a meeting of the Cosmopolitan Democratic Club in the Lincoln. Other speakers were Thomas A. Hendricks, state representative; Judge Clarence E. Weir, candidate for re-nomination as superior court judge, room four; Chalmers Schlosser, for superior court, room five; George S.

IS THERE ANYTHING WORSE THAN A BACKACHE?

A continuous backache takes all the joy out of living. If accompanied by irregular urination and a tired, nervous feeling, backache may be caused by kidney or bladder trouble.

Durex Pills will help you as they helped Mrs. Lillian Noble Graddock, Pa. She says: "Durex will help any one suffering from kidney trouble caused by kidney trouble. I have taken two boxes of Durex and my backache is almost gone. I would pay gladly twice as much as you ask for Durex, if necessary, because it is a wonderful medicine."

L. C. MORGAN LAUDED FOR G. O. P. EFFORTS

Group Urges Candidacy for Prosecutor.

Praised for his work in overcoming factional difficulties in the Republican party, Leland C. Morgan today had the endorsement of the Young Republican Organization to become a candidate for the nomination as prosecutor.

Members of the organization adopted a resolution lauding Mr. Morgan for building up the Young Republican Organization to its present strength and for consolidating it with the regular county Republican organization.

Mr. Morgan has served the Young Republicans as precinct committeeman, ward chairman and county chairman.

SCHOOLGIRL'S SLAYER IS GIVEN LIFE TERM

Ex-Navy Boxer Saved From Chair by Sanity Hearing.

BOSTON, March 20.—Seemingly facing the electric chair as the slayer of a schoolgirl, Francis Vigneau's life had been spared today by a psychiatric report that found him criminally irresponsible.

A jury had been picked in the record time of fifty minutes and the state had virtually completed its case in the youth's first-degree murder trial yesterday when, after a bench conference, he was allowed to plead guilty to second-degree murder.

Vigneau, 23, a former Navy boxer better known as Francis (Colorado) Bennett, was sentenced by Superior Judge John M. Gibbs to state prison for life for the murder of Victoria David, 14, Feb. 19. The girl had been criminally assaulted and beaten to death.

Alienists reported that "this man's criminal responsibility is at the present time and has always been impaired because of mental defect."

Two Young Bandits Are Outsmarted by Woman Cashier, 74

CHICAGO, March 20.—Miss Catherine March is 74 years old. Her fighting weight is somewhere around 92 pounds.

Sitting in the little cubby-hole where she works a short shift as cashier for the elevated lines, she was approached by two young gunmen.

"Open up that door," said one, thrusting a revolver through the change aperture, "or we'll fill you full of lead." Miss March leaned back in her chair, folded her arms and shook her head.

"Go ahead," she invited. "I guess I've lived long enough anyway. I'm not unlocking the door." The robbers went away.

UNITARIAN GROUP TO SHOW SOVIET MOVIE

Film Shows Effect of Chinese Revolution.

Effect of revolution in China on different classes will be shown in the first Russian-made movie to be seen in Indianapolis. Thursday night, at All Souls Unitarian church, the movie, "China Express," is being shown under auspices of the Jocoseria Club. It was directed by one of the leading movie directors of Russia.

The entire film takes place in different carriages of the same express train. Conditions have placed three members of the same family in different classes of life. They are all traveling on the train in different class carriages, and accidentally meet while on the train. Events that transpire bring on revolution.

The Jocoseria Club is an organization of young people of All Souls Unitarian church.

STEEL REPORT GIVEN BY FEDERAL PROBERS

Commission Finds NRA Has Caused Price-Fixing.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The federal trade commission, after an extensive investigation, informed the senate today that the NRA has caused price-fixing and increased product prices in the steel industry.

The steel code has caused a tendency to eliminate small enterprises and to revert to monopolistic practices, previously outlawed, the report said.

The senate ordered the inquiry Feb. 2, under the Borah resolution to determine the effect of NRA codes on the steel industry and to ascertain if gasoline prices have been increased during the last six months.

85 FACE JUDGE TOMORROW IN FEDERAL COURT

3 Former City Postoffice Workers Among Those to Be Arraigned.

Eighty-five persons, indicted last week by the federal grand jury will appear before federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell tomorrow morning at 9:30 for arraignment.

Among the persons who will be arraigned are three former Indianapolis postal employees charged with embezzlement, six Muncie men alleged to have circulated counterfeit money in the state, and Mrs. Moe K. Briton, alleged to have embezzled $21,500 from the First National bank of Clay City.

Other indictments charge persons with violations of the narcotic laws, impersonation of federal officers and theft of government property, mail theft and transporting stolen automobiles.

For the first time in fifteen years no persons will be arraigned for violations of liquor laws in the Indianapolis division.

Val Nolan, United States attorney, and Howard Caughran, his assistant, will represent the government.

BARE SPY RING DETAILS, SAY POLICE

Two young Americans, Robert and Marjorie Switz, breaking under a merciless cross-examination, were declared by Paris police today to have revealed details of the greatest espionage ring in history, reaching across the Atlantic to the United States.

Jubilant, the French secret service asserted officially after months of reticence that police charged the ring operated in behalf of Germany and Soviet Russia against France, Great Britain and the United States.

NEW STOCKS BILL IS GIVEN SUPPORT

All in Accord With Rayburn Measure.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, March 20.—Treasury, RFC and federal reserve board officials are in complete agreement on provisions of the new stock market regulation bill, Representative Sam Rayburn (Dem., Tex.) said today.

"There was one point in disagreement Sunday night," Chairman

Rayburn told the house interstate commerce committee, "and I assumed responsibility for that provision and now every one is agreed on the bill."

"In this new draft we tried to meet the legitimate criticism of the original bill. We do not hope to pass a bill that will please everybody."

It was believed the new draft would be much more acceptable to the banking interests than was the original Fletcher-Rayburn bill which drew vigorous opposition from Wall Street and departmental officials alike.

New York and Albany were named after Baby Stuart, the Duke of York and Albany, who later became James II.

FRANK DAILEY RESIGNS FROM SAFETY BOARD

Son's Candidacy for County Prosecutor Is Given as Reason.

Frank C. Dailey, Democratic member of the safety board, submitted his resignation yesterday to Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan because of his son's candidacy for prosecuting attorney.

Mayor Sullivan, in accepting the resignation, announced that he probably would not fill the vacancy until after the primary election.

"The reason for this resignation is the candidacy of my son George for prosecuting attorney," the letter to the mayor read. "I feared that I would subject you to criticism if I remained on the board under the circumstances."

Praise for the Sullivan administration was contained in the letter. Mr. Dailey said that the mayor's conduct in office is worthy of emulation by every public servant.

Mayor Sullivan said that he had not yet decided what attitude he would take toward a number of city employees running for various public offices.

He did not request Mr. Dailey to resign from his position on the board, the mayor said, and regrets his loss from the city official family.

SOLD ONLY BY INDEPENDENT GROCERS!

It's so convenient to keep a package of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the kitchen. Serve it as a cereal. Use it also as a healthful ingredient in your cooking. For muffins, breads, omelets, waffles, etc.

ALL-BRAN brings your family the "bulk" that is so helpful in correcting common constipation.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. In severe cases, with each meal. How much better than risking potent medicines!

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" and vitamin B to aid regular habits. This "bulk" is similar to that in leafy vegetables. ALL-BRAN is also rich in iron for the blood.

Special processes of cooking and flavoring make Kellogg's ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable than ordinary raw bran.

And because it is all bran—with only flavoring added—it brings you more "bulk" than part-bran products.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

TAX BURDEN REMOVED

The State of Indiana now exempts shareholders in Building and Loan Associations from paying taxes on shares owned by them.

The taxes formerly paid by the investor now will be paid by the associations themselves.

A new and attractive long time investment is therefore offered for surplus funds, as well as for the individual who is seeking a conservative stock investment.

Invest in Building and Loan Shares.

THE MARION COUNTY League of BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

Over a hundred years of remarkable service are behind the building and loan shares owned by investors in this country. Present economic conditions can not permanently affect the security of LONG TIME first mortgages on improved real estate.

MUSTEROLE

FIVE minutes after you rub on soothing, warming Musterole, a raw, burning throat should feel much easier and free of irritation! Relief generally follows, if the application is continued once an hour for five hours.

Musterole gets such marvelous results because it's NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant"—easing, warming, stimulating and penetrating—quick and helpful in drawing out pain and infection.

Used by millions for 25 years, Musterole is pure, clean, safe and easy to use. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong. Radio: Tune in the "Voice of Experience," "Columbia" Network. See newspaper for time.
