

GOLFERS WARM UP FOR TOURNAMENT

Stonehouse Leads Off in Georgia Links Play

Sixty Professionals and Nine Amateurs Entered in Masters' Meet: Event Marks Return of Bobby Jones to National Fairways' Battles.

By United Press
AUGUSTA, Ga., March 21.—Most of the brigade of big-time golfers, assembled for tomorrow's start of the four-day masters' invitation tournament polished up their strokes today in a two-ball foursome tourney.

It will be the last chance for the sixty professionals and nine amateurs from the United States, Canada, England and Panama to practice over the Augusta course before the big four rounds of medal play.

Bobby Jones played with Ross Somerville of Toronto, who won the United States amateur title in 1932. Other combinations included Horton Smith of New York and Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. J.; Bill Mehlhorn and Wiffy Cox of Brooklyn and Johnny Golden of Norton, Conn., and Billy Burke of Cleveland.

Tomorrow Jones will pair with Runyan for the Masters' tourney, according to the official combinations announced last night. The thirty-four pairs and one loner start the procession at 11 a. m. (E. S. T.). Ralph Stonehouse and John Kinder will stand the competition and other tandems will follow at seven-minute intervals. Here's the way they team up:

Ralph Stonehouse, Indianapolis and John Kinder, Asbury Park, N. J.; Horton Smith, New York, and Al Houghton, Washington; Fred McLeod, Washington, and George Stenstrom, Atlanta; Ernie Ball, Mobile, and Tom Kerrigan, New Vernon; Bobby Jones, Atlanta, and Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. CROWN POINT, March 21.—Semi-finals of the state independent basketball tournament were to be played here this afternoon with Crawfordville and Logansport meeting two Indianapolis teams. The final will be at 9 o'clock tonight.

The Hilgemeier Packers of Indianapolis were paired with Crawfordville in the first semi-final encounter, and the Flanner & Buchanan Morticians of Indianapolis with Logansport in the second contest.

Crawfordville won its way to the semi-final with a 28-20 victory over Marion, after winning a first-round game from San Pierre, 34 to 26. Marion had eliminated Bridgeport, 27 to 18, in an earlier game yesterday.

The Packers defeated Elkhart, 34 to 18, and then downed Tennyson, 30 to 13.

The Flanner-Buchanan quintet had little trouble in disposing of Etta Green, 32 to 19, but was forced to make a spectacular last half rally to eliminate Company D of Gary, 30 to 25.

Logansport defeated Lafayette, last year's champion, 29 to 20. In a first-round game, Tennyson won from the Gary Sportsmen, 21 to 17.
