

Ayres' Downstairs Is Fashion Conscious

We've every opportunity in the world for knowing what's what in Fashion. Twice a year our fashion experts go to New York to a famous fashion clinic. They learn what new fashions, what new colors, what new fabrics are going to be smart for the coming season. They return and instruct our buyers and our salespeople. Then we're ready to pass correct and authentic information along to you to help you select the newest and smartest wearables for every occasion.

Smart "Junior-Miss" Coats and Suits

THE COATS

are a classic for details and for low price. Whenever you think of spring, you'll think of these new coat fashions. Dressy and sporty types in navy, black, beige, gray and green. Wool crepes and tweeds in the windblown silhouette. Some wide military collars lined with red are our newest spring tonic . . . And, of course, they're all slim, trim, streamlined and slick as a whistle. Sizes for women and misses also!

A  $\frac{3}{4}$  length coat suit in a deep rich dark blue. Note the "cute as a button" bow tie and rows of buttons on coat . . . . . \$13.75

A very smart affair inspired by the "Little Corporal's" officers coats. The large collar is lined with red. Buttons are red too . . . . . $13.75

THE SUITS

new as tomorrow's paper are here to stimulate your spring wardrobe, at a really exciting low price. Mostly navy blues with a few pastels are included in the group. Dressy types in swagger styles predominate. Some have a handsome fur trim, others changeable pique trim. Tweeds, wool crepes and diagonal tweeds are the stunning fabrics used. Windblown and streamlined as fashion decrees.
