General Shift in National Guard Organizations Is Made by Straub.

Abandonment of the East Chicago armory and a general shift in national guard organizations and their geographical locations has been announced by Adjutant General Elmer F. Straub.

Units may be built in Terre Haute and Crawfordsville, saving $2,400 in rent each year, General Straub said. When guard units were set up in the state in 1921, they were established wherever armories could be obtained at least cost and in cities most enthusiastic to obtain the units, with little geographical consideration, Straub explained.

SCIENTISTS QUESTION MINISTER'S TALE OF BULLET-PROOF APES

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Smithsonian Institution said today that it didn't want to cast any aspersions on the Rev. Harold Young, but that it would like to see one of the bullet-proof apes he claims infests Yunnan Jungle in China.

Mr. Young reported in Los Angeles that he personally had had encounters with gigantic, silver-haired ape-like creatures, which loot graveyards and laugh at bullets.

Smithsonian scientists said that Mr. Young must have encountered some apes, which are tough, but which aren't bullet-proof. If Mr. Young goes back to China, however, and captures one of the monsters, the museum will be glad to examine it and tell him exactly what it is.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will speak at the conference on the crisis in education at Columbus, O., April 5 and 6, but she is going there primarily to learn rather than to teach.

"The only way I could get there was to agree to make a speech," she explained today, "but I want to learn and that is why I am going." Mrs. Roosevelt said the purpose of her visits to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, to prisons and schools, to conferences and conventions is "largely to educate myself."

NEW YORK FAILS TO IMPRESS GOLD MINER FROM CANADA WILDS

By United Press

NEW YORK, March 21.—Fred M. Wells, Vermont farmboy who ran away from home to become a wealthy gold miner in the Caribou country in British Columbia, left New Yorkers thoroughly disillusioned today. He didn't seem to know the right answers to the usual questions.

"What do you think of our skyline?" he was asked. "Are you trying to impress me?" he snorted in reply.

"Do you intend to visit Wall street?"

"What for? Do you think I believe that stuff about it being the money heart of the nation?" There was an awkward silence broken by the prospector.

"I don't think so much of your cops," he said. "I walked over to one of 'em and asked him the name of a building—you see, I was interested in the marble work in the corridors. I don't know what it's called," he tells me. So I said, 'Wa here and I'll find out and let you know'."

LA FOLLETTE TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR HIGH TAXES

Schedule With 77 Per Cent Levy on $1,000,000 Is Aim of Senator.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Defeated in the senate finance committee, Senator Robert M. La Follette (Rep., Wis.), said today he would carry to the floor of the senate his fight to impose higher surtaxes and estate taxes.

Senator La Follette said he would not attempt to get committee approval of his estate tax plan. His proposed amendment to the revenue bill which would increase maximum surtax rates to 77 per cent on incomes in excess of $1,000,000, was defeated in the committee, thirteen to five.

The United Press learned that the vote on the La Follette amendment, taken in secret executive session yesterday, was as follows:

Result of Voting

Opposed—King, George, Barkley, Gore, Loneragan, Byrd, McAdoo, Reed, Keyes, Metcalf, Hastings, Walcott and Harrison.

For the Amendment—Connally, Costigan, Clark, Couzens, La Follette.

The progressive Republican from Wisconsin is one of a group of liberal senators who think that extraordinary expenditures by the federal government for relief and public works must be continued for a long time and consider increased tax revenues as essential to the maintenance of government credit.

Although drastic by comparison with the present income tax rates, which are altered only slightly by the tax bill that has been passed by the house and is now before the senate committee, Senator La Follette's proposed rates are moderate, compared to the income assessments of Great Britain.

Rates Start at 6 Per Cent

Senator La Follette's rates start with a normal tax of 6 per cent on incomes up to $4,000, allowing the existing exemptions of $2,500 for a married person and $1,000 for a single person. Our present normal tax, as well as that in the house bill, is 4 per cent. The British tax is 12½ per cent, with $600 as the exemption for a married person.

The La Follette schedule runs up to 77 per cent on incomes in excess of $1,000,000, as compared to our present tax of 55 per cent and the house bill tax of 59 per cent.

Rates in the house bill are higher on incomes in excess of $20,000, but slightly lower on incomes of less than that.

Would Add $185,000,000

There is practically no difference in the amount of income tax revenue to be expected from the present law and the house bill. But the treasury, which has been trying to discourage proposals for higher income taxes, has estimated that the La Follette rates would add about $185,000,000.

Later Senator La Follette will propose higher taxes on inheritances, going up to 60 per cent in the upper brackets, and yielding $100,000,000 additional.

The La Follette schedule, providing a normal tax of 6 per cent, calls for the following surtaxes on income in excess of that amount.

Income	Per Cent	Income	Per Cent
$4,000-$8,000	6	$50,000-$56,000	45
$8,000-$10,000	7	$56,000-$62,000	48
$10,000-$12,000	9	$62,000-$68,000	51
$12,000-$14,000	10½	$68,000-$74,000	54
$14,000-$16,000	12	$74,000-$80,000	57
$16,000-$18,000	15	$80,000-$90,000	60
$18,000-$20,000	18	$90,000-$100,000	63
$20,000-$22,000	21	$100,000-$150,000	65
$22,000-$26,000	24	$150,000-$200,000	66
$26,000-$32,000	27	$200,000-$300,000	67

$38,000-$44,000	35	$400,000-$500,000	69
$44,000-$50,000	40½	$500,000-$1,000,000	71

Excess of $1,000,000 77 per cent.

SUSPEND RULES FOR VOTING REGISTRATION

House Allotting Changed to Aid Officers in Work.

Suspension of the rule allotting houses with odd numbers to Republican deputy registration officers and even numbered houses to Democratic deputy registration officers was ordered today by Glenn B. Ralston, county clerk in charge of Marion county voters' registration, in an effort to speed up the process.

"Deputy registration officers are paid 5 cents for each registration they obtain in the house-to-house canvass, but are naturally discouraged when they get no results after calling four or five times at the same house," Mr. Ralston explained. It is hoped that with the suspension of the allotment rule, officers will be given more incentive to keep up their efforts.
