

Aid Sought for Project of League

Funds in Trading Post Solicited by Group of Members

BY BEATRICE BURGAN, Times Woman's Page Editor

TELEPHONE wires will be busy for one group of Junior League members who have begun a campaign for donations to the League Trading Post, Mrs. Beaumont Eno is supervising calling of old and new donors.

The intensive campaign during the spring house-cleaning season came coincidentally with the league's decision to close its shop at 158 East Fourteenth street. Sale of merchandise at the shop began yesterday.

While members of the shop committee are directing sale of the merchandise, other groups will be concentrating on enlargement of the trading post at 1507 North Illinois street.

The trading post began as an experiment five years ago at 514 North Illinois street. Its establishment was motivated by the idea of raising revenue for the occupational therapy department at James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children.

The post fills a two-fold need. The hospital is benefited by its revenue, and individuals who need checks are small may buy the clothing and household articles they need at low prices.

The league in closing its shop expects to serve an even larger clientele of individuals who need to stretch a small income.

Cynthia Test, Dorothy Metzger and Joan Metzger will defend their first place positions in the junior, intermediate and senior classes of the monthly children's riding tournament Friday night at Bob Brown's riding stable.

The three girls have won first places in the first two tournaments and hope to win the cups to be awarded at the final tournament in May.

Date of the stable summer tournament will be decided at a gathering of riders tonight at the stable.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Bartlett will be honor guests at a reception and tea at 3 Sunday with members of the Art Association of Indianapolis as hosts. The reception will be held in connection with the opening view of an exhibition of paintings by Mrs. Bartlett.

Mrs. Charles Latham, chairman of the activities committee, will be in charge. Members of the committee are Mesdames Robert A. Adams, Henry Butolph, Bowman Elder, Robert B. Pailley, Theodore B. Griffith, Elsa Pantzer Haerle and Homer Hamer.

Others will be Mesdames Hubert Hickam, Sylvester Johnson Jr., Frank F. Powell, Robert Scott, G. H. Shadinger, R. Hartley Sherwood, W. Richardson Sinclair, Anton Vonnegut, Herman Wolff and Evans T. Woolen Jr.

Directors Will Meet

April meeting of the Indianapolis Flower Mission board of directors will be held at 10 tomorrow morning in the Architects and Builders building. Mrs. David Ross will preside.

A Day's Menu

Breakfast—

Halves of grapefruit, cereal cooked with dates, cream, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—

Cream of onion soup, croquettes, fruit salad, brown bread and butter sandwiches, old-fashioned bread pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—

Stewed rabbit with gravy, mashed potatoes, French fried onions, cabbage and green pepper salad, deep dish apple pie, milk, coffee.

BEAUTE-ARTES

601 ROOSEVELT BLDG. Cor. Illinois and Washington Streets LI-0670. No Appointment Necessary

GIRLS !!!

WHY GO STRAIGHT

When you can have Irresistible Alluring—Wavy Hair, with masses and masses of curls, "Hair you love to touch" at Pin-Money Prices.

The Sensational Wonder

FRENCH TONIC

LIVE STEAM

PERMANENT

Original $3.95 Value, Complete With Shampoo, and Set.

This Is Not Our Standard $1.00 Wave. It Is An Original $3.95 Value. Write a Friend—Divide the Cost

Lavender Oil Wave Complete, $3.00 Value, $1.50 Value.

La-Gloria Vite-Oil Wave, $3.00 Value, $1.50 Value.

9 for $3.00 12 for $5.00 Complete

New Pads • Fresh Solution • Expert Operators • Gray Hair Our Specialty.

Aid in Home Show Ticket Selling

Left to Right—Mrs. E. E. Martin, Mrs. Luther E. Brooks.

Yesterday and today members of the Indiana Saddle Horse Association promoted advance ticket sales for the Indianapolis Home Complete Exposition, April 6 to 14, in the manufacturers' building at the state fairground. Mrs. E. E. Martin, member of the association committee co-operating with exposition officials, and Mrs. Luther E. Brooks, sold tickets yesterday at L. S. Ayres & Co.

Manners and Morals

BY JANE JORDAN

Everybody knows the help that comes from talking out difficulties with a sympathetic person. What's troubling you? Write a letter to Jane Jordan and read your reply in this column.

Dear Jane Jordan—I am leaving Indianapolis within the next few days and before I go I want to make one try to straighten things out with a young man. I became interested in him several months ago and he showed some liking for me. We never had any dates, but I used to see him at his work and we would talk for a while. Several nights ago I saw him with another woman at his work and he told me to scram. I just wanted to say good-by to him and when he told me that it made me feel that I should not leave town before I had told him good-by. Please tell me what to do. I sent him this poem yesterday.

"Just a warning for you,
Dearest One, Beloved and true
Wishing for you, wondering when
You'll be coming back again
Under all a warning for you,
Just a warning for you."

RUTH.

Answer—You have overestimated the man's interest in you. As a casual acquaintance whom he met at work, he found you pleasant enough, but had his interest equalled yours, he would have made the effort to see more of you.

There is something repulsive to a young man about the girl who makes an obvious effort to win his interest. He is inclined to be snicker when she wears her heart on her sleeve. The smart woman knows how to reveal her interest by a glance, a gesture, an attitude or a chance remark, but she never definitely puts all her cards on the table as you have done. It might be said that for every two steps she takes forward she runs back three in order to stimulate the man to the chase.

If you're wise, you'll make no further effort.

Dear Jane Jordan—I have been going with a young girl just 17 years old. She is in high school and will graduate in one year. I have traveled around quite a bit and have had my experiences. I am now ready to settle down. I love this girl and she loves me, but she thinks too much of her school to leave it now and get married. Would it be a good idea to get married secretly? If she really loved me would she marry me regardless? I know we could get along fine and she said she knew it, too. What should I say to her to win her?

A LOVESICK BOY.

Answer—No, it would not be a good idea to get married secretly. The secret marriage usually is an attempt to enjoy the privileges of matrimony while evading its responsibilities. Your girl has more sense than you have. She sees that she hasn't finished the tasks of her girlhood yet, one of which is to acquire an education. She is not willing to take on a new task until she has completed the first. I imagine she is a fine level-headed girl, well worth waiting for.

Dear Jane Jordan—I am a young woman of 26. I have been married twice and divorced twice. For a long time I went with a nice fellow who would do anything I asked him to do for me and would take me any place I wanted to go. About a year and a half ago I started stepping out with a married man. At first I thought it was smart to put something over on the first man. Then I got serious about this married man.

I became madly in love with the married man and broke my dates with the single man. I got by with it twice. Then he got wise and we quit. Now the married man's wife is always hanging around where he works and this makes me feel terrible. Now I am through. I know he doesn't care for me. I knew it was wrong to go with him but I just went anyway. What can I do to make up for this? Do you think the other fellow will forgive me?

A MARRIED MAN'S FOOL.

Answer—I'm sure I don't know. In your present state of emotional instability he'd be foolish if he did. I wonder if your main kick in going along with the married man did not lie in the fact that you were taking him away from somebody else. You've made two mistakes and seem bent on making plenty of others. A little self-searching would do you no harm. Don't you often wonder what is wrong with you to prevent your achieving any continuity in your life?

New heels—New colors in Nisley Spring $3.95 Styles all priced at except Arch Comforts $4.45 44 N. Penn St.

Card Party and Luncheon to Be Given by Guild

St. Francis Hospital Guild will entertain with a luncheon and card party Tuesday afternoon at the hospital in Beech Grove. Mrs. Leo Steffen is chairman of entertainment, assisted by guild officers.

A membership campaign is being conducted by the guild, which is nonsectarian and organized to assist the Sisters of St. Francis in charitable work in the hospital.

Members sew and prepare surgical dressings for various departments of the institution.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made with the officers, Mrs. Leo Steffen, president; Mrs. Ada Roth, vice-president; Mrs. Albert Stocker, secretary; Mrs. Guy Armstrong, Mrs. John Dransfield, Mrs. Edward Dux, Mrs. Edwin Dwyer and Mrs. James Mugivan, directors; Mrs. A. P. Lauck, publicity; Mrs. Eugene Wodtke, Miss Kate Schmalz and Mrs. Guse Gatto, district promoters. Applications for membership may be made with these also.

MRS. KELLY TO BE CHAPTER HOSTESS

Mrs. Walter C. Kelly, 5859 Forest lane, will be hostess for a meeting of the Lincolnian chapter, International Travel and Study Club, Inc., at 12:30 Friday. Mrs. S. R. Artman will conclude her series of talks on the United States.

Sometimes a woman is wily enough to pretend to share his taste for temporary affection. Later he awakens to find his heart so hopelessly involved that he must have her at all costs. This is not an inevitable reaction but a very frequent one.

Dear Jane Jordan—I have been going with a young girl just 17 years old. She is in high school and will graduate in one year. I have traveled around quite a bit and have had my experiences. I am now ready to settle down. I love this girl and she loves me, but she thinks too much of her school to leave it now and get married. Would it be a good idea to get married secretly? If she really loved me would she marry me regardless? I know we could get along fine and she said she knew it, too. What should I say to her to win her?

A LOVESICK BOY.

Answer—No, it would not be a good idea to get married secretly. The secret marriage usually is an attempt to enjoy the privileges of matrimony while evading its responsibilities. Your girl has more sense than you have. She sees that she hasn't finished the tasks of her girlhood yet, one of which is to acquire an education. She is not willing to take on a new task until she has completed the first. I imagine she is a fine level-headed girl, well worth waiting for.

Dear Jane Jordan—I am a young woman of 26. I have been married twice and divorced twice. For a long time I went with a nice fellow who would do anything I asked him to do for me and would take me any place I wanted to go. About a year and a half ago I started stepping out with a married man. At first I thought it was smart to put something over on the first man. Then I got serious about this married man.

I became madly in love with the married man and broke my dates with the single man. I got by with it twice. Then he got wise and we quit. Now the married man's wife is always hanging around where he works and this makes me feel terrible. Now I am through. I know he doesn't care for me. I knew it was wrong to go with him but I just went anyway. What can I do to make up for this? Do you think the other fellow will forgive me?

A MARRIED MAN'S FOOL.

Answer—I'm sure I don't know. In your present state of emotional instability he'd be foolish if he did. I wonder if your main kick in going along with the married man did not lie in the fact that you were taking him away from somebody else. You've made two mistakes and seem bent on making plenty of others. A little self-searching would do you no harm. Don't you often wonder what is wrong with you to prevent your achieving any continuity in your life?

New heels—New colors in Nisley Spring $3.95 Styles all priced at except Arch Comforts $4.45 44 N. Penn St.

Third Play to Be Seen by Children

Cast of Thirty Begins Rehearsals; Dates April 21 and 28.

Rehearsals have begun for the third presentation by the Children's Theater of Indianapolis.

A cast of twenty-eight will stage the children's favorite, "Jack and the Beanstalk," Saturday afternoon, April 21, and Saturday morning and afternoon, April 28.

Members of the cast met yesterday afternoon at the playhouse for rehearsal with Miss Rosamond VanCamp, director.

Adaptation of the story was made by Miss Marion Barnard, who is staging and designing the sets for the presentation. Miss Barnard, graduate of Radcliffe college, has been designing scenery for plays at the theater during the past year.

This is the third play staged this year, to be written for production in children's theaters by affiliates of the Children's Theater. The opening play, "All Baba and the Forty Thieves," was written by Miss VanCamp and "Secret Garden" by Lawrence Hill.

Leading roles will be taken by Billy Shirley, Dick Fitch and John Wildack.

Others in the cast are Betty Soehner, Mary Allen, Martha Hill, Mary Furscott, George Gaston, Lawrence Hill, Billy McDuiffe, Annis Spring, Hugh McDuiffe, Bill Wright, Paul Krauss III, Suzanne Ramey, Dorothy Ann Yates, Betty Carter, Carl Lieber III, Vachel Anderson, John McElwee, Suzanne Leiber, Warren Atkinson, Bob Jackson, Campbell, Dick McDuiffe, Emily MacNab, Jane Carter and Barbara Brown.

DINNER TO PRECEDE DANCE AT CLUB

Misses Harriet Jane and Anne Holmes will entertain at dinner tonight at the Meridian Hill Country Club, preceding the junior dance.

Guests will be Misses Helen Griffith, Jane Adams, Harriet Patterson, Betty Hutchings, Laura Sheerin and Barbara Noel; Messrs. Donald Test Jr., James Darlington, Carter Tharp, Paul Fletcher, Robert Jackson, Jerry Noel, George Mahoney and George Wooling.

Personals

Miss Barbara Herrick and George Hawley Todd, Cincinnati, will be week-end guests of Miss Barbara Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Grinstead and Miss Mary Jo Pavay have returned from Miami, Fla.

Mrs. J. D. Drower Forward, New Albany, has returned home after a trip to Virginia and North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Searle have returned after spending the winter abroad.

Mrs. Oscar N. Tordian and Miss Anna Tordian are at home after a trip to Virginia and North Carolina.

EVANSVILLE COUPLE WED AT CATHEDRAL

The marriage of Miss Agnes Foster, daughter of Mrs. Malinda Foster, Evansville, and Joseph Zimmer, Evansville, took place at 7 o'clock at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit, officiated by the Rev. Joseph Tieman read the service.

The bride wore aquamarine blue with black accessories and carried white roses. She was attended by Mrs. William Gliska, who wore a pinked dress and carried pink roses. Mrs. Gliska was best man.

A breakfast at the Gliska home, 2206 North New Jersey street, followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer are at home at 2206 North New Jersey street.

SORORITY LEADERS WILL ATTEND DANCE

Grand officers of Omega Nu Tau sorority, from Alexandria, Anderson, Indianapolis and Alliance, O., will attend a dance Saturday night at the Lincoln. Music will be given by Bob McKittick and his orchestra.

Officers and members will attend a dinner at the Seville Tavern at 6 o'clock. Local Alpha and Gamma chapters have charge of arrangements.

BURPEE HOME TO BE SCENE OF TEA

Miss Jane Weil will entertain with an informal tea Sunday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Hortense Raub Burpee.

Announcements

U. D. Bethel, Job's Daughters, will hold a pitch-in dinner at 6 tomorrow night at the home of Miss Naomi Manley, 55 North Keating avenue. Miss Manley is the honored queen.

Phone TALEOT 0498

RUG CLEANING

Furniture and Draperies
9x12 Domestic Shampoo & Size $3.00
ORIENTAL RUGS SHAMPOO . . 6c Sq. Ft.
Sew, Wash, Dye, Clean, Repair
—Rugs Expertly Repaired—
ASHJIAN BROS
Est. 1906
Main Office & Plant, 456 W. 16th Pl.

EVANS' E-Z-BAKE FLOUR
FOR ALL PURPOSES

STUDENT OFFICER

Miss Margaret Powell

Student body at the Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music recently elected Miss Margaret Powell vice-president. Other officers are Miss Gene Chenoweth, president, and Miss Lois LeSaunier, secretary-treasurer. Miss Powell is enrolled at both the conservatory and Butler university.

Officers to Be Chosen During Dinner Meeting

Mrs. N. Taylor Todd has been announced as candidate for the presidency of the Indianapolis branch, American Association of University Women, by the nominating committee, headed by Miss Mary Rigg.

Election will be held at a dinner meeting at 6 Tuesday in the Food-craft shop, 36 South Pennsylvania street.

The committee, which includes Mrs. Marvin E. Curle and Miss Dorothy David, has named Mrs. A. D. Lange, nominee for secretary, and Mrs. Wilbur Appel and Mrs. Gordon Bateman, directors. Nominations also may be made from the floor.

Miss Jenna Birks, chairman of the legislative committee, has arranged a panel discussion program by Misses Belle Ramey, Frances Graine, Evelyn Carpenter, Vera Morgan and Belle Scofield. The committee whose research subject during the year has been "The State Support of Public Education" will lead discussion of the following topics: Sources of revenue for schools; what bears the tax burden; distribution of taxes; comparison of school expenditures with other departments; proposed plans of other states for a greater base of support; comparison of Indiana with other states; federal government and proposed support, and future dangers.

Proposed constitutional revisions, planned by Mrs. Arthur E. Focke, Mrs. H. Hinkle and Mrs. John T. Wheeler will be voted on. Proceeds from the dinner, arranged by Miss Rigg, also fellowship chairman, will be added to the fellowship fund.

MISS SCHEEFERS, W. C. MANY WED

Bishop Elmer J. Ritter read the marriage ceremony this morning at the SS. Peter and Paul cathedral for Miss Leona Mary Scheefers and William C. Many.

The bride is a daughter of Charles Joseph Scheefers, 1621 North Delaware street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Nell Many.

Miss Helen Shepard, organist, played during the ceremony.

A breakfast at the Church house followed. The couple left on a motor trip west. Mrs. Many traveled in a navy blue outfit with a gray fox trim and gray accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Many will make their home in Indianapolis.

The bride wore light blue matelasse crepe with matching hat and carried call lilies, and her attendant, Miss Cyrella Scheefers, wore ashes of roses crepe and carried Briarcliffe roses.

MRS. HUGHES TO BE BRIDGE CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Frank Hughes will be chairman of the luncheon and bridge party at Hillcrest Country Club at 4 tomorrow. Her assistants will be Mrs. W. H. Bridges and Mrs. J. H. King.

A bonus of 250 points will be given guests arriving promptly. Both auction and contract bridge will be played.

Auxiliary Elects

Mrs. Ralph Cradick was chosen president of the women's auxiliary to the Railway Mail Association at a meeting yesterday in the Woman's Department Club. Mrs. Eugene Thompson is first vice-president; Mrs. Theodore Caldwell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred Hendrickson, executive committee member. Mrs. C. J. Finch was endorsed for the presidency of the Seventh District Federation of Clubs.

The Finest Waves at Lowest Prices

Don't put off getting your permanent as cost supplies will soon force the prices up. Come in Now!

The Ekselon
Our Biggest Value. Originally
sold for $5. NOW
Complete

Personality Permanent Wave	Marvell Permanent Wave	Oil-Of-Flower Permanent Wave
Originally $1. Now $1.40	Originally $1. Now $1.40	Originally $1. Now $1.40
Complete $3.25	Complete $3.25	Complete $3.25
Double Shampoo, Rinse, Wave and End Curls included with all waves.
Tonic Fingerwave, Shampoo, Rinse and End Curls. Our Regular price 90c. Now 50c

Shampoo, Fingerwave, Rinse and End Curls. Now 25c. Regular price 60c. Now 25c. All 4 for $1.00. ALL WEEK. Downtown & Mass. chusetts Avenue Shops. Other Shops—Mon., Tues., Wed., Only. (Thurs., Fri., Sat., Sun.)

McMICKLE'S
Beauty Shops—All Over Town

Modern Drug Store Stock Is Vastly Different From That of Apothecary Shop

Units in Haag Group Offer Food, Household Furnishings, Sports Goods and Automobile Supplies.

BY HELEN LINDSAY

WHEN the modern householder finds on a holiday or Sunday that he is in need of something for his home or automobile, there is one store where he knows he can obtain it. It is the corner drug store. Differing greatly from the old-time apothecary shop, where only drugs and medicine were dispensed, the drug store of today has departments where merchandise of almost any kind can be purchased.

In the Haag Drug stores in Indianapolis, from 10,000 to 12,000 different articles are on sale. There is a hardware department, where carpet tacks, screw drivers, and other articles are kept. For the sportsman, there are golf balls, clubs and bags; basketball equipment, swimming suits and accessories.

With the spring house cleaning season approaching, mothballs and wall paper cleaner are available. Foods are kept for the housewife who finds at the last minute that she is in need of some essential for a meal. For the motorist, the Haag stores carry headlights, motor oil and radiator anti-freeze. Grass seed for the replanting of lawns and fertilizer can be bought in the drug store. Paints and varnishes are available there.

Practically all Haag stores have lending libraries and magazine stands. At the fountain, cooling drinks and light lunches are served.

Electric appliances vary from irons to heating pads. Since repeal, all kinds of liquors and mixers for them are to be found in drug stores.

Metal Case Hospital in Miniature

FOR a proper appreciation of the modern drug store, the average person should visit the 104 northern posts of the Hudson Bay Company, according to a recent article in the American Druggist. The Eskimos and Indians living in these regions bring in a harvest of rich furs, but they have only a limited store of medicines from which to draw in illness. To these still primitive people, the standard medicine chests maintained by the Hudson Bay Company are magic chests, to be resorted to when the tribal medicine men fail.

Three centuries ago, according to Goodrich MacDonald, writing in the American Druggist, the only medicine brought to Hudson Bay was Jatamara rum. Today, when the supply ship pays her annual visits to the Canadian Arctic, she brings calomel and quinine, pills, castor oil and argyrol. Copper cement is brought to stop toothaches and catgut to sew wounds, for these factors of the company must be dentists and surgeons, as well as dispensers of medicine. The company has become the great medicine man of the Arctic.

Treatment Prescribed by Radio

THE standard medicine case maintained by the factors is of heavy Japanese metal, which is a miniature hospital. If the factor can not cope with the particular case, he sees into consultation by machine to the nearest government radio station. This may be several hundred miles away, as there are only three stations in the straits.

From one station, probably at Resolution Island, the trader broadcasts the symptoms which baffle him. Hundreds of miles away to the south in Ottawa, the Dominion capital, a health department physician listens in. He makes a diagnosis, and from a medicine case similar to the one kept by the trader, outlines directions. He directs an ounce of one number, so many times a day, or an application of another. In an emergency, he even can supervise an unskilled operation, with the certainty that the requisites are there in the medicine case, numbered just as they are on the list before him.

MRS. MARTIN HOLDS CLUB PRESIDENCY

New Era Club elected officers at a meeting Monday at the home of Miss Blanche McFadden, 967 Lexington avenue.

Re-elected officers include Mrs. Thomas F. Martin, president; Miss McFadden, first vice-president; Mrs. I. W. Riggins, second vice-president; Mrs. Cora L. Mason, recording secretary; Mrs. E. E. Padgett, corresponding secretary; Miss Amy Champ, treasurer; Mrs. W. L. Tillson, delegate to Seventh District Federation of Clubs, and Mrs. Eva Donson, alternate.

Newly elected officers are Mrs. Payne Clark, assistant recording secretary and press correspondent; Mrs. John W. Jacobs, delegate to Indianapolis Council of Women and Mrs. J. D. Davy, alternate.

CANDIDATES WILL BE LEAGUE GUESTS

Candidate meetings of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters, which had been scheduled to start today, will open instead next Wednesday at the Rauh Memorial library, it was announced yesterday at a meeting of league directors at the home of Mrs. Sylvester Johnson, 3666 Central avenue.

Mrs. Lee M. Gardner, chairman of the efficiency in government committee, announced that there would be no study group meeting this week.

Board Will Meet

Mrs. Robert A. Dennis will preside at a meeting of the board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery at 10:30 tomorrow at the home, 542 Lockerie street.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Candidacy Indorsed

Mrs. Tilden Greer, nominee for first vice-president of the Seventh District Federation of Clubs, was indorsed by the Monday Afternoon Reading Club at its meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Bull, 950 Congress avenue.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.

Board Will Meet

Board of managers of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association will hold its monthly meeting at 10 tomorrow morning at the nursery home. Mrs. R. A. Dennis will preside.