

HIGH PAY, LOW PRICES, GOAL OF BOYNTON MOORE

G. O. P. Mayoral Candidate Promises Board Jobs to Unemployed.

Boynton J. Moore, candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor, spoke last night at 701 South Meridian street and detailed the points in his platform.

He said, in part: "I believe in high wages and low prices which can be achieved through the removal of political parasites and reduction of public utility rates."

"If nominated and elected, my board appointments will be made from among the unemployed. I possess a keen appreciation of the city's needs."

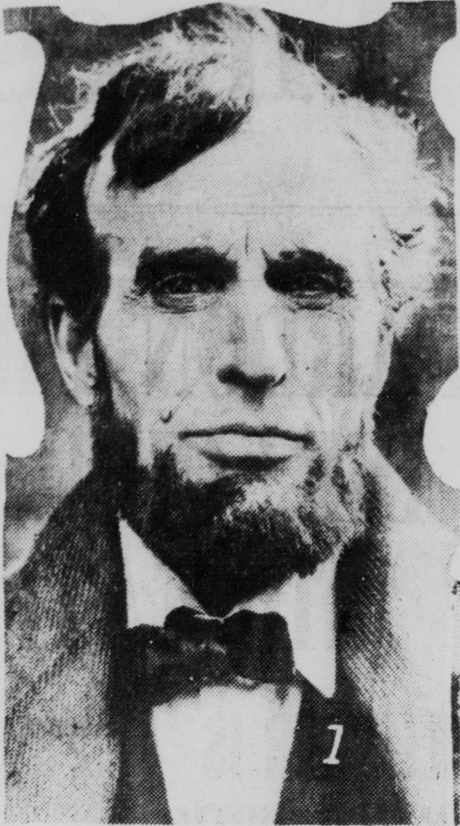

Charging that a minority group of five self-constituted bosses were attempting to cram a slate of hand-picked candidates down the throats of Democratic voters, Chalmers Schlosser, candidate for the Democratic nomination for judge of superior court room 5, at a meeting last night at 744 Virginia avenue, said in part:

"Roosevelt stands for a new deal in government and we must have a new deal in Democratic politics. Our party stands for a clean primary, but these men who have been wallowing in the sop of special favors would traduce the principles of the party in a vain attempt to nominate their hog-tied, jellyfish candidates. They will not take heed to the lessons learned when the Republican party attempted to do the same in that party."

FAMED IMPERSONATOR OF LINCOLN IS DEAD

George Billings, noted Abraham Lincoln impersonator, who died in obscurity in a California soldiers' home, visited Indianapolis in 1924, during the height of his film and stage career.

By Times Special.
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., April 19. — Death has claimed George Billings, 63, whose greatest claim to fame was a striking resemblance to Abraham Lincoln, it was revealed today.

He was made yesterday in various sections of the city. Speakers were the Rev. A. J. Miller, Andrew Jacobs, attorney; Dr. L. B. Meriweather and Miss Leora Chavers.

A group of sixteen Negro candidates for precinct committeemen of the First ward spoke at a meeting last night at 2038 Columbia ave-

Mr. Billings died in the national soldiers' home at Sawtelle Sunday, but the public which had seen his portrayals of Lincoln on stage and screen, was unaware of his passing until after taps had been sounded over his grave.

nue. No candidates for public office spoke. R. S. Coleman presided. Russell J. Dean, candidate for the Democratic nomination for prosecutor, speaking at Castleton high school last night, said: "I will see that there are efficient men appointed to the posts of deputy prosecutor, if there are to be any vacancies in the ranks of the present staff."

"There will be some constructive revisions in criminal procedure, if I can bring them about by enlightening the legislature along that line. If I am elected there need be no fear of bias or prejudice creeping into the prosecuting of any case or any one."

CHURCH IS DOOMED, EPISCOPALIANS TOLD

Russian Example Cited by Educator Who Demands Changes.

By United Press.
PHILADELPHIA, April 19. — A warning that the Episcopal church, if it does not mend its ways, may "have to be blotted out, as it was in Soviet Russia," was given at the sixtieth annual Protestant Episcopal church congress in session here.

"The church is in danger of becoming one of the greatest obstacles in the realization of the kingdom of God," the Rev. Dr. George A. Barton, professor of New Testament and language at the Philadelphia Divinity school, said.

"The so-called sects are in many ways doing more in reaching people and bringing them to God than we who sometimes think we have a pipeline to the Holy Spirit through the historical episcopacy."

AVOID UGLY PIMPLES

Does a pimply face embarrass you? Get a package of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights, if you are like thousands of others. Help cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

Thousands who take Olive Tablets are never cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition, pimply face. Olive Tablets are purely vegetable compound, known by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take lightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c, 30c, 60c. —Advertisement.

AUSTRIA DRAFTS FASCIST BILL

New Charter Leaves Way Open for Return of Hapsburgs.

By United Press.
VIENNA, April 19. — Austria's long impending transformation into a Fascist state became imminent today when it was announced officially that the constitution had been completed.

The cabinet will decide at meetings during the remainder of the week when the constitution will be promulgated, and perhaps leave the way open for the return of Archduke Otto, head of the Hapsburg house, to become regent and eventually king.

Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss proposed as part of the work of turning the baby republic into a Fascist state to subvert the resignation of his government to President Wilhelm Miklas in order to reorganize it.

Prince Ernst von Starhemberg is destined to become his chief aid, as vice chancellor, and Major Emil Fey to take over the duties of minister of public security and interior. It was said on reliable authority that the constitution would repeal, in principle, the laws that prevent the Hapsburgs from returning.

'Through the Centuries' Ranks as Great Educational Film

BY WALTER D. HICKMAN
A SPLENDID and intelligent example of how the screen may be used for educational as well as entertainment purposes is revealed in "Through the Centuries," which shows the growth of the Catholic church and the march of civilization.

At a preview yesterday at the Emerson theater, where it is being presented today as part of the regular program, it was easy to see that "Through the Centuries" was a cleverly assembled picture.

The early scenes show Jesus and the birth of Christianity. The crucifixion scene has been impressively and dramatically handled.

The picture then takes up the mission of the missionaries in spreading Christianity. The idea of the movie is to show the march of Christianity from the viewpoint of the Catholic church.

There is entertainment in seeing great works of art and the scenes showing the priceless art collections of the Vatican makes this picture one of fine entertainment value.

I never have seen the splendors of the Vatican photographed as clearly and as beautifully as in "Through the Centuries."

Much footage has been given to Pope Pius and his activities. He is shown visiting the radio station in Vatican City, riding in an automobile, at prayer, and blessing the multitude.

The movie concludes with the history of the centuries by showing what the Catholic missionaries, priests and members of the sisterhoods have accomplished in Alaska, Africa, China and South America.

THE scenes showing the work accomplished among many lines in China and the leper colonies are tremendously interesting. This drama was written by Francis X. Talbot, S. J., and the narrator is Pedro De Cordoba of the legitimate stage whose voice records beautifully. The musical background is full of great beauty and reverence. This picture is to be considered as educational theater, and as such it is a splendid example of what may be accomplished on the talking screen.

Regardless of one's church affiliation, every one will be able to enjoy the great treasures of the Vatican as well as receiving a store of knowledge.

Arrangements are being made for a downtown showing.

Hale MacKeen Resigns

It became known today that Hale MacKeen, director for the last three years of the productions of the Civic theater at the Playhouse, has resigned and that his resignation has been accepted by the board. When Mr. MacKeen finishes directing "The Devil Passes" which will be presented for an engagement starting Tuesday, April 24, he will relinquish his post.

"In the next program," Harold Thorp, president of the board, said today, "the resignation of Mr. MacKeen will be announced and the regrets of the board stated."

"Last spring Mr. MacKeen made it known that he would serve only one more year and from then on we have had a change of directors in mind."

Several applicants are being considered by the board but as yet no decision has been made.

Since Mr. MacKeen has been here, he has built up a splendid box office draw and to accommodate the crowds the engagements of several plays this season were extended over the scheduled run.

Mr. MacKeen has not announced what he will do in the future.

AH, FLEETING FAME! REPORTER FAILS TO IDENTIFY ED JACKSON

A young newspaper man who covers the statehouse for a news service was chatting with an attorney in the corridor.

The attorney said something that the young man thought might make a story. On the alert for news, he casually inquired: "By the way, what is your name?"

Somewhat taken aback, the attorney responded: "Why, my name is Jackson."

Sensing something wrong, the reporter departed. Later he asked a statehouse attaché who "that fellow Jackson was that I was talking to."
