

PRISON REFORM
IN STATE URGED
BY WHITTAKER

Untrained Guards Blamed for Unrest by Son of Noted Penologist.

"About 95 per cent of the prison population does not need to be restrained by bars and walls."

This statement, made by Theodore Roosevelt when president, is reiterated today by Ralph S. Whittaker, candidate for the state legislature, who has made a thorough study of prison methods.

Belief that the large majority of prisoners are anxious to serve their sentences and to start life over again was expressed by Mr. Whittaker.

"Only about 5 per cent of the inmates of our penal institutions wish to escape," he declared. "It is this small group, however, that constitutes the ring-leaders in the trouble, riots and wholesale escapes that are so prevalent."

Father Famed Penologist

As a young man, Mr. Whittaker studied prison methods under his father, Will H. Whittaker, who served as superintendent of several penal institutions.

Mr. Whittaker grew up at the District of Columbia penal institution at Occoquan, Va., where his father was in charge. Later, the elder Whittaker was superintendent at the state prison, Michigan City, and at the state reformatory at Jeffersonville. While at these institutions, he largely was instrumental in formulating the state penal policies.

Criticism of the fiasco at the Michigan City prison in which five prisoners walked out last week was expressed by Mr. Whittaker.

Blames Untrained Guards

The fault lies with the fact that the prisoners rankle under the surveillance of untrained and inexperienced guards, he asserted.

"When crude methods of handling men are employed, there is bound to be trouble," Mr. Whittaker said. "Evidently the present administration does not realize that it is dealing in the business of human beings," he said.

Mr. Whittaker condemned political interference in the state penal system. One of the facts that contributed to the escape in September of ten prisoners, among them members of the Dillinger terror mob, from the Michigan City prison, was the fact that Warden Louis Kunkel had no voice in the choosing of his personnel, he declared.

State Once a Model

Mr. Whittaker suggested that the official personnel of all penal institutions consist only of qualified men with training and experience, regardless of political affiliations.

Although twenty-five years ago Indiana was looked upon as having the model prison system of the nation, the state has fallen far from that standard, he declared. One of the reasons for this decline lies in the discarding of established theories of penal management in favor of a political spoils system, Mr. Whittaker asserted.

STATE AID INCREASED
BY $104,668 FOR MAY

Allotment for Special Work Hikes
Sum to $1,854,668.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, May 1.—In addition to the $1,750,000 for general poor relief in Indiana for May, another $104,668 has been added for special expenditures, Harry Hopkins, federal relief administrator announced today.

The additional sum includes $65,800 for transient relief; $11,670 expenses of NRA administration for re-employment and $27,190 for state aid students.

This makes the grand total allotment of federal funds for the state for May $1,854,668. The general allowance was set at $1,750,000, as compared to $1,500,000 for April.

Relief for the majority of states were reduced instead of increased.

M'MILLAN TO SPEAK AT INDIANA U. CEREMONY

Grid Coach Among Speaker for Founders' Day Celebration.

A. N. (Bo) McMillin, head football coach at Indiana university, will speak tomorrow night at the Founders' day banquet in the Columbia Club.

He will arrive from Manhattan, Kan., to attend the celebration, which is in honor of the 114th anniversary of the university. The banquet has been arranged by Indiana University Club of Indianapolis, of which John F. Lance is president.

Other speakers include President William Lowe Bryan, Dean W. G. Catch of the I. U. medical school and Dean F. R. Henshaw of the school of dentistry.

GIN FOR THE KIDNEYS

Gin mixed with buchu extract for many years was the stand-by remedy for many kidney and bladder ailments. It still is good but to get enough value from the gin involves the use of too much alcohol, which is a detriment.

Here's how to get the gin effect without the alcohol. Gin is made from juniper berries. Get juniper oil, buchu extract, etc. in little green tablets. Ask for BUKETS the bladder laxative. Make this 25c test if you are bothered by getting up nights, backache, leg pains, irregularity or irritation. Take 12 of them in 4 days. If not satisfied your druggist will refund your money. BUKETS are as valuable to the bladder as castor oil to the bowels. You are bound to feel better after this dosing and you get your regular sleep. BUKETS guaranteed by Hook Drug Stores.—Advertisement.
