Watson's Face Is Saved by Sanders' Resignation

Jim Now Unable to Present Robinson's Name to State Convention.

BY DANIEL M. KIDNEY
Times Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Whether or not he is chosen as the successor to Everett Sanders, also a Hoosier, who resigned yesterday as Republican national chairman, former Senator James E. Watson of Indiana must be feeling good today.

For Mr. Sanders has called a meeting of the G. O. P. national committee for the purpose of electing his successor at Chicago on June 5.

That is the very date that the Indiana state convention is scheduled at Indianapolis.

That is the date that former Senator Watson was scheduled to present to the state convention the name of his long-time political foe and still no personal friend—Senator Arthur R. Robinson—to succeed himself as the Republican nominee.

So, win or lose, the national chairmanship, the nonpareil Hoosier politician, our Jim, will be at the Chicago meeting and politely can wiggle out of his very unpleasant scheduled task.

That Senator Watson actively has been boosting his own candidacy for the national chairmanship generally is conceded here, that is, it is conceded by most every one but Senator Jim, which in many opinions from press and politicians makes the score perfect.

Asked regarding his "campaign," when the Sanders' resignation was made public last night, Senator Watson was somewhat indignant.

"In no sense am I an active candidate for the place," he declared. "Should the majority of my party feel that with me in the chairmanship the discordant elements could be brought together, I should be glad to serve."

The general belief here is that if the national committee were polled tomorrow, Senator Watson would have more pledged votes than any one would think.

But it also is being predicted that he can not overcome the opposition of such powers as Charles D. Hilles of New York, big behind-the-scenes man in G. O. P. party councils.

Colonel Frank Knox of the Chicago Daily News is mentioned most prominently as a likely candidate at the moment. The idea that he is a busy publisher, the national chairmanship a thankless task and he could not be lured to take it, is being discounted. He has been exceedingly active in political speech making the last few months, delivering a harangue against the new deal recently at the annual beefsteak dinner of the Columbia Club at Indianapolis.

Yet our Jim must be happy. Win or lose the chairmanship, the date of the meeting remains June 5.

HART PROMISES EFFICIENCY IN CLERK'S OFFICE

G. O. P. Candidate Says He Will Combine Units If Elected.

Courteous, dependable and economic administration of the county clerk's office was promised today by Edgar Hart, who is seeking the Republican nomination for that office.

Mr. Hart expressed himself in favor of combining various units of the office in an effort to eliminate expense and keep persons who are on the pay roll occupied throughout the day.

If nominated and elected, Mr. Hart said he would not jump at conclusions about the office management but would make a personal study of the duties of each man or woman now on the pay roll. This merely would be along the lines a man would follow in conducting his own business, Mr. Hart said, and would enable him to combine jobs and do his part in reducing the tax levy.

As county clerk, Mr. Hart stated he not only would suggest that any overlapping duties of employees in his office be eliminated but also would advocate elimination of such overlapping, throughout the entire courthouse and county administration.

Several years as proprietor of the J. C. Hart Shoe Company and as the present proprietor of a chain shoe repair business well qualifies him to conduct the office of county clerk in a businesslike manner, Mr. Hart declares. He was president of the state shoe dealers' association and organized the local shoe repairmen's association.

He has lived in Indianapolis forty-five years, served the Republican party faithfully for years as precinct committeeman and ward chairman. For the last two years he has been county chairman.

Mr. Hart is a member of the Blue lodge, Scottish Rite, is immediate past potentate of the Murat Temple Shrine lodge, is a member of the Salvation Army board and Tabernacle Presbyterian church.

He is married, the father of two boys, and resides at 135 East Thirty-sixth street.

U. S. FLEET IS HEADLINER BIT IN NEWSREEL

Navy Ships Vie With Dillinger in Times-Universal Screen Offering.

The combined squadrons of the United States fleet passing through the locks of the Panama canal in a spectacular war maneuver, on their way from Pacific waters to the Atlantic ocean, are to be seen in the current issue of The Times-Universal Newsreel, which has Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer, as its talking reporter.

The canal force works at top speed to send the huge "battle wagons" and the slim destroyers through the great locks, under simulated war-time conditions. Gobs are without sleep for many hours but when they get shore leave they're just as wide awake as ever, shopping for souvenirs and seeing the sights in old-fashioned carriages.

Other late news events in the current issue include views of the nation's star athletes competing in the Penn relays at Philadelphia; John

Dillinger's father describing his reactions to his son's exploits at Mooresville, Ind., and a scientist at Berkeley, Cal., bringing a dead dog back to life by a recently perfected method of serum injections.

Popularity Begins at Breakfast

Popular people are usually well people. They are the people who feel fine, who enjoy life, who see the bright side of things—and almost always you'll find that they are the people who eat right.

If you want to be popular, if you want to go places and do things, try Shredded Wheat with milk and fruit at least one meal a day.

Shredded Wheat is a most nourishing food—whole wheat, boiled and baked—in easily digested and delicious form. It contains the carbohydrates needed for energy; the proteins needed for tissue building; the mineral salts needed for bone structure; the vitamins that help you resist disease; and bran to keep you regular. Nature might have made a better food than wheat—but she didn't!

Shredded Wheat is mighty economical, too. Start it today and see if popularity doesn't depend on the way you feel!
