

DIGEST POLL TO TEST NEW DEAL

15,000,000 Ballots to Be Mailed in Roosevelt Sentiment Vote.

The American people's reactions to Franklin D. Roosevelt and his policies will be known soon. The Literary Digest is launching another of its nation-wide polls in an effort to ascertain public sentiment on the new deal.

More than 2,500,000 ballots, the first allotment, already have been mailed to voters in Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin. At least 15,000,000 will be sent out before the poll is closed.

"Do you approve on the whole the cost and policies of Roosevelt's first year?" is the question each voter will answer. He also will be asked to indicate whether he voted for Roosevelt or Hoover in 1932. Thus the Digest hopes to ascertain what, if any, change in sentiment has occurred since the election.

In the past, Literary Digest polls have made astonishing records in predicting the state of popular sentiment. Not only have they predicted unfailingly the outcome of presidential elections, but they also recorded the swing of popular favor from prohibition to repeal.

The Theatrical World

Dick Powell's New Film Opens Here Tomorrow

—BY WALTER D. HICKMAN—

THE Circle theater has decided to change from Bing Crosby and "We're Not Dressing" to another movie, "Twenty Million Sweethearts."

This movie makes a star out of Dick Powell. It has music and so does he.

Dick Powell started very humbly in this city. We used to see him at the Ohio theater, the Indiana theater, and other places.

His Pittsburgh stand made him famous. Then came Hollywood. Today he is a star. He might change tomorrow.

The fact is that his first starting picture will open tomorrow at the Circle.

Lyric Has Special Event

JACK GWYNNE, producer of the stage revue, "Secrets of the Harem," now at the Lyric, has arranged with Charles M. Olsen for the presentation of a special mid-night show at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow night, the show to be known as "Jack Gwynne's Spook Party."

For his "Spook Party," Gwynne, who is a magician, will incorporate a number of new illusions into the running order of "Secrets of the Harem."

Members of the local magical fraternity have been invited to participate together with delegations from the various magical "rings" throughout the state.

The magicians will attend as guests of Gwynne and Olson and each guest will be given an opportunity to perform his favorite or most difficult trick.

El Haren, astrologer, who is a special attraction at the Lyric, on the mezzanine floor of the theater, will also appear on the stage at the midnight show.

On View Here Today

INDIANAPOLIS theaters today offer "Secrets of the Harem" on the stage at the Lyric, "The House of Rothschild" at Loew's Palace, the Indianapolis Symphony at the Murat, "Stand Up and Cheer" at the Apollo, and "Massacre" and "The Crime Doctor" at the Indiana.

Mt. McKinley, the loftiest mountain in North America, is ice plated for 14,000 feet below its summit.

MAN, WIFE HURT IN AUTO SPILL

Couple Found Along Road, Brought to City Hospital.

Found lying in the ditch on State road 46, near Belleville, last night, following an automobile accident in which their car had overturned, Forest Laynes, 44, and his wife, Mrs. Maria Laynes, 44, of 1020 West Twenty-eighth street, are in city hospital today. Mrs. Laynes is in a critical condition and Mr. Laynes' condition is "fair."

Both were injured about the body and suffered internal injuries. Mrs. Laynes has spinal dislocations. Mrs. Laynes said they were driving toward Indianapolis and started to pass a car and swerved back into line of traffic to avoid a head-on collision. In doing so, he lost control and his car was overturned in a ditch.

Stabbed, City Man Keeps Mum

Stabbed in the left shoulder, Oscar Johnson, 42, of 222 East Wabash street, was taken to city hospital last night and ordered held on a vagrancy charge. He refused to tell police details of the stabbing.

WARFARE DENOUNCED BY DR. FOSDICK IN 'PENITENT' ADDRESS

By United Press

NEW YORK, May 8.—When he was a younger man, the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, John D. Rockefeller's pastor, spent months in the trenches telling those who were about to kill and be killed that they acted for God and mankind.

Last night before a large audience, Dr. Fosdick arose and addressed himself to the Unknown Soldier.

"I stimulated raiding parties to their murderous tasks," he said. "Do you see why I want to make it personal? I lied to the Unknown Soldier about a possible godly consequence of the war. There are times I don't want to believe in immortality—the times I want to think that the Unknown Soldier never can realize how fruitless was his effort. The support I gave to war is a deep condemnation upon my soul."

Dr. Fosdick said he spoke in "penitent" reparation. "I renounce war because of what it does to our men," Dr. Fosdick said. "I renounce it and never again will I be in another war."

He paused, then added: "I'll see you in prison first."

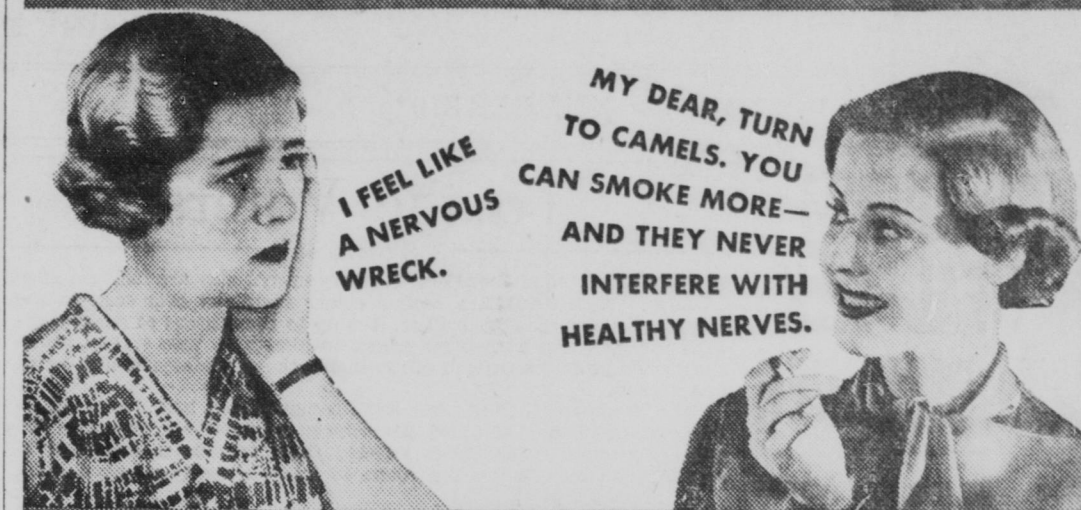

It is said that stammering has become more common among girls in recent years.
