

Giants 'Out of Tune, Old Zip Gone,' N. Y. Writers Cry as Terrymen Drop 5 Out of 8

National League Champions Appear Tired, Experts Moan After Cards Hand Club 5-to-4 Lacing for Eleventh Win in Twelve Starts; Cubs Next on Bill.

NEW YORK, May 11.—It seems somewhat premature to be writing about the world champion Giants "crack-up," but there's no need of borrowing an observatory telescope to see they've lost their 1933 fighting edge.

Their performances while losing five out of eight games against western teams actually alarmed New York baseball writers traveling with the club. They lost one of three to Cincinnati, two of three to the Pirates and two straight to the Cardinals, dropping from first place to a third-place tie.

Writers with the Terrymen expressed their concern as follows: Red Rennie, Herald-Tribune—The entire team is out of tune. It has no life. The old Zip is gone. Tom Meany, World-Telegram—The Giants are playing like a lot of tired old men. Gone is the fight, flash and fire which they showed in the early games at home. Will Wedge, Sun—The Giants somehow don't look right. Here in the west.

There is not the 1933 spirit and hustle in the club. Garry Schumacher, Journal—They've bogged down in every department. . . . They're listless and indifferent.

After playing the Cards today and tomorrow, the Giants step into a three-game series with the formidable Cubs. Their outlook for the present, is somewhat dreary.

Cubs Troughed Dodgers Yesterday, the Cards dragged them into a third-place tie by winning, 5 to 4. It was the Cards' fourth straight victory and their eleventh win in twelve starts. St. Louis won in the seventh when the marginal tally came in after singles by Rothrock and Frisch and Medwick's long fly. Hal Schumacher allowed the Cards' eleven hits.

The Cubs strengthened their lead by trouncing the Dodgers, 12 to 8, in a game featured by six home runs. Chuck Klein captured the major's home run leadership with his eighth. His mates, Hartnett and Bill Herman, also hit for the circuit. Frey, Leslie and Cuccinello made Brooklyn homers.

Cincinnati downed the Braves, 5 to 2, with Lombardi leading the Reds' nine-hit attack with a triple and single. Philadelphia at Pittsburgh was rained out.

A's Tied for Second In the American League, the Athletics rose into a tie with idle Washington for second place by beating Detroit, 5 to 3, for their fourth straight triumph. Home runs by Bob Johnson and Pinkey Higgins featured the A's attack, while Mahafey and Benton held the Tigers to four hits.

New York strengthened its lead by smashing the White Sox, 10 to 3, for Jimmy Dykes' first managerial defeat. Lou Gehrig drove in seven Yankee runs with two homers and two doubles in four trips.

Cleveland rose to fourth place by shading the Red Sox, 11 to 10. This dropped Boston from a third-place tie with the Athletics to fifth position. The Indians won in the eighth when Joe Vosmik made a homer with two aboard. Averill had done likewise in the fifth. Boston got 0 to a six-run lead in the first, but four errors contributed to their downfall.

St. Louis at Washington was washed out.

Joe Hauser Gets Two More Homers A dust storm was not enough to stop Joe Hauser from smashing two home runs, his sixteenth and seventeenth of the season, for the league-leading Minneapolis Millers, who beat Toledo, 15 to 7, in a walk-away game. The Millers collected thirteen hits off four Mud Hens' pitchers.

Louisville strengthened its hold on second place and deposed Kansas City from third place by beating the Blues, 6 to 5. The Colonels required eleven innings to score the victory on a triple by Radcliff in

The largest profit since the state athletic commission was established by the 1933 legislature was reported today for the month of April by Al G. Feeney, director.

Net receipts totaled $2,818 for the month. Gross receipts were $3,306.92 and expenses, $488.19.

Brightwood A. C. will play Beantons at Rhodus No. 2 next Sunday in a Municipal League game. Errors back of Harold Oliver caused the A. C. to lose their last played game, 5 to 0. Oliver allowed six scattered hits and struck out the batsman. Jake Oakley led the team honors at first base and R. Kolling led at the plate with three hits.

Cubs Follow the Leader

As Klein Goes, So Goes the Bruins—and Chuch Is Setting a Fast Pace Right Now.

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, May 11.—The Chicago Cubs are winging away in first place in the National League pennant race and the big No. 1 reason is Charles Herbert Klein, the Indianapolis powerhouse. The Cubs started at a dizzy pace, behind Klein's power, went into a slump when he lost his batting eye for a few games, and then picked up their speed once more as soon as he found the range again with his deadly mace.

Klein easily is the most valuable player on the Cubs team for the twenty-two games they have played, and the figures prove he's the most valuable man in the league up to now.

Although batting only .348—It's Klein's idea that .348 is a small batting average—Klein leads the league in hits and home runs, is tied for the lead in runs batted in, and is second in runs scored. No other player can boast of that kind of a batting record thus far.

He has been to bat 87 times, made 32 hits, scored 21 runs and driven in 23 runs. Ducky Medwick, Cardinals, is tied with him in runs batted in, but Arky Vaughan, Pirates, has scored four more runs than he has. Klein has hammered out eight home runs.

In addition to leading the Cubs' offense, Klein is covering left field for them as he has never been covered in years. He is making circus catches, and holding doubles to singles with his fast play.

Klein had a sty on his eye shortly after the season opened, but refused to allow Manager Charlie Grimm to take him out of the lineup. "The sty may have had something to do with his batting slump of last week when he went through eight games and thirty-four times at bat with only four hits, but he didn't complain. Klein is that kind of a ball player and he doesn't hurt the morale of a team any."

When Babe Herman was in a bad slump and waving his bat at the air, Klein, hitting ahead of him, would say:

"Come on, Babe, let's connect together."
