

Cavalcade Is Top Choice in Pimlico Race

Derby Winner Will Start, Trainer Says, After Fast Trial.

By Times Special
BALTIMORE, May 11.—With Cavalcade, brilliant winner of the Kentucky Derby last Saturday, and his stablemate, High Quest, Wood Memorial winner, as the favorites, nine or more stellar 3-year-old turf campaigners will battle for the Woodlawn Vase and $25,000 added prize money in the Preakness at Pimlico tomorrow.

Rob Smith, trainer for the Brookmeade stable, announced yesterday that the Derby winner probably would start in the Maryland classic after the big star had turned in a fine mile and eighth workout in 1:54.

Discovery, A. G. Vanderbilt's star and second in the Derby, ranks as third choice in the betting.

Other probable starters include Agrarian, third at Louisville; Riskus, Agua Caliente Derby winner; Time Supply, Spy Hill, Swiftsport and Snappy Story.

With fair and cooler weather promised, Pimlico officials are expecting a capacity crowd. All boxes have been sold since May 2.

After putting Cavalcade through his paces yesterday, trainer Smith said the star was in top condition. He wound up the training test full of run. Mack Garner, who was aboard in last Saturday's Derby victory, again will be up on Cavalcade, with little Duke Relizzi piloting High Quest.

Only three thoroughbreds have turned in triumphs in both the Derby and Preakness—Sir Barton, Gallant Fox and Burgoon King. Cavalcade will be out to equal the record.

PURDUE MAY SELECT FEHRING FROSH COACH

By United Press
COLUMBUS, Ind., May 11.—William (Dutch) Fehring, star of Purdue's basketball, football and baseball teams for three years, is expected to be named head freshman coach at the Boilermaker school next fall, Noble Kizer, athletic director, said in an address here yesterday.

Fehring, a former Columbus high school star, will be graduated from Purdue in June.

"If our plans go through as expected, Fehring will coach freshman football, basketball and baseball," Kizer said in a luncheon talk.

Fehring would take over the coaching work of Jim Purvis who would be placed on the varsity staff.

JACK TORRANCE SETS RECORD IN SHOTPUT

By United Press
HAMMOND, La., May 11.—Jack Torrance, stellar Louisiana State university weight man, surpassed all records in the shotput with a heave of fifty-six feet five inches in an exhibition match at Southeastern college yesterday.

The mammoth Torrance's throws measured fifty-five feet or more in the other tries. He recently bettered the world mark with a record of fifty-five feet one and one-half inches at the Drake relays.

He will be graduated from Louisiana State in June.

Tops Redskins

Harry Rosenberg

THE Indians' left fielder, Harry Rosenberg, jumped off to a fast start at the plate this year and after nineteen games, the California fly chaser is leading the team with the bludgeon with an average of .382.

Harry walloped three hits in a row last night to help defeat the Milwaukee Brewers, and on his fourth trip to the platter he was struck by a pitched ball, giving him a perfect record under the lights.

Only three thoroughbreds have turned in triumphs in both the Derby and Preakness—Sir Barton, Gallant Fox and Burgoon King. Cavalcade will be out to equal the record.
