

WILCOX FILES SUIT AGAINST RICKENBACKER

$100,000 Damages Are Asked From Speedway Head by Driver.

The Indianapolis Motor Speedway and Colonel Edward V. Rickenbacker, its president, were sued for $100,000 damages in circuit court here today by Howard (Howdy) Wilcox, Indianapolis race driver and second place winner at the Speedway in 1932.

The suit, the second of its kind to be filed for Wilcox by Attorney T. Ernest Maholm, arises from Wilcox's disqualification as an alleged epileptic just before the start of last year's race.

One Suit Pending

A suit for the same amount is pending against Dr. Frank Allen, track physician, who, according to the complaint, first advised Wilcox that he was subject to epileptic fits and would not be allowed to race.

The nature of the action is said to require the filing of separate suits and the delay in suing Colonel Rickenbacker is said by Mr. Maholm to have resulted from inability to serve him personally with a summons.

Signatures Obtained

It sets forth that, after Dr. Allen's ruling the day before race day last year, Wilcox obtained the signatures of all other contestants to a petition asking that he be allowed to drive his car in the race.

Presentation of this petition to W. D. Edenburn, American Automobile Association official, and to Colonel Rickenbacker brought apparent acquiescence from the latter, Wilcox alleges, and Wilcox's car was allowed on the track in its qualifying position of sixth while photographs were taken.

Greeted By Parents; Evades Discussion of Suicide Attempt.

NEW YORK, May 22.—Thalia Fortescue Massie, central figure of the Hanoluh attack case, arrived from Italy today aboard the President Van Buren, apparently fully recovered from a suicide attempt two months ago. She was greeted by her father and mother, who have been separated.

Slightly nervous and showing the strain of meeting her parents for the first time since she slashed her wrists on a Mediterranean vessel, Mrs. Massie evaded mention of the incident. After perfunctory "yes" and "no" replies to questions regarding her voyage, she darted back into her cabin with her father.

Limerick Ale and Dublin Stout Ready for Market.

Following introduction of Patrick Henry beer several weeks ago, the Kiley Brewing Company, Marion, has begun distribution of three other brews, it was announced today.

The new brews include Limerick Ale, and two other malt beverages, Old Dublin Stout and Kiley's original Half-and-Half, both of which are patterned after popular beverages of the British Isles, it is said. KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 22.—Rexford G. Tugwell, ambassador of a liberal administration to the national convention of the nation's social workers, last night told an audience of 4,000 to consider means of eliminating the causes of poverty as well as merely caring for the distressed.

"You must in some measure devote yourselves to constructive thought as to how we can best prevent the American people from needing your services except in rare and accidental cases," he said. The audience cheered Tugwell, assistant secretary of agriculture and member of the "brain trust," for five minutes when he concluded.

"WAS TAKING EVERY KIND OF DRUG FOR CONSTIPATION"

Then ALL-BRAN Brought Relief

Read this very enthusiastic letter: "I am 34 years old and as far back in my life I have been constipated. I was so bad that I had one bowel movement every five or six days. I was taking every kind of drug known for constipation.

"Now for the last two months I have been eating a little ALL-BRAN night and morning and I have at least two to three bowel movements each day."—Mr. Frank Piratzky, 40-66 98th St., Corona, Long Island, New York.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN is also a fine source of iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, this clears out the intestinal wastes.

Isn't this safer than taking harmful patent medicines? Two table-spoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Severe cases with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

You'll enjoy eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream—sugar or honey or fresh fruits added. Or, to use in cooking. In the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

DILLINGER AID CASE IS ENDED

Federal Jury Prepares to Judge on Sweetheart of Gangster.

By United Press. ST. PAUL, May 22.—A federal court jury prepared today to pronounce judgment on John Dillinger's half-Indian sweetheart, Evelyn Frechette, with the girl's passionate declaration of love for the hunted man the last note of her trial for giving him aid.

Lawyers defending Miss Frechette, Dr. Clayton May and Mrs. Augusta Salt rested late yesterday and the case was expected to go to the jury about noon today. Miss Frechette, an attractive quick-witted brunette, contended vigorously on the witness stand that no course was open to her except to conceal and help the man she loved.

She referred to the outlaw as "Mr. Dillinger" and admitted without hesitation that, although she is the wife of a convict in Leavenworth penitentiary, she had traveled over half the country with Dillinger.

She asserted that she had begun action to obtain a divorce, planning to marry her sweetheart as soon as possible. Her co-defendants said they were compelled to treat a gunshot wound for Dillinger by threats of violence. Dr. May said he was so frightened by the threats that he cut short his office hours and shunned his home. Mrs. Salt, a nurse in whose home Dillinger lay convalescing for three days, said she was influenced by the same motive.

May said he was not paid for his services.
