

KENNETH DUGAN, I. U. STUDENT, KILLED IN CRASH

Local Youth, Captain of Crimson Nine, Dies;
3 Others Hurt.

Shocked by the death of Kenneth Francis Dugan, 24, captain of the Indiana University baseball team, who was killed in an automobile accident in the 6500 block East Thirty-eighth street yesterday, an air of mourning prevailed over the campus at Bloomington today.

Three other students of the university were hurt in the fatal traffic accident, one of whom may die. Death of Lee Burgess, 23, R. R. 4, Box 551, in another automobile crash at Harding street and Center Church road Saturday night, brought the total number of auto deaths in Marion county since the first of the year to fifty.

Little hope of recovery was held for Verne Olsen, 25, East Chicago, who was hurt in the accident in which young Dugan was killed. Wallace De Hone of 5717 Broadway, who suffered a fractured right shoulder, and Herbert Allison, 20, of 4709 North Pennsylvania street, driver of the car, who suffered lacerations and bruises of the face and body, will recover.

At Methodist hospital, where the injured were taken following the crash, Mr. Olson was reported to be in critical condition.

Visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. C. C. Nave, 5401 Central avenue, last night, Mr. Dugan and his three companions had some of Mr. DeHart's home on Broadway and started across Thirty-eighth street, headed east.

Two miles east of the city limits, Mr. Allison, who was driving the coupe in which the collegians were riding, momentarily was blinded by the headlights of an approaching car.

He lost control of the coupe, which careened down an embankment and rolled over several times.

A saddened and crippled Indiana baseball team will attend Captain Dugan's funeral here at 8:30 Wednesday. Last rites will be held in St. Joan of Arc's church and interment will be in Holy Cross cemetery. Members of the baseball team will act as pallbearers.

Kenny Dugan was graduated from Cathedral high school, where he was a "three-letter" man in baseball, football and basketball. He entered Indiana university from Cathedral, majoring in physical education. He was captain of his freshman baseball team, and in his sophomore year was a star on the varsity baseball team, which won the Big Ten championship.

Survivors are his mother, Joseph Dugan, a brother, a former I. U. star; his father, Patrick Dugan, and two uncles, Detective Sergeant John Dugan and Hugh Dugan, juvenile court bailiff.

SCHROEDER PAROLE DRAWS CRITICISM

Action 'Breach of Faith,'
Says Judge Baker.

Sharp criticism of the quiet parole given Harold Herbert Schroeder, convicted of the murder of the youth found in a blazing automobile on the High school road four years ago, greeted the discovery Saturday that the convict was free.

Herbert E. Wilson, Marion county prosecutor; Criminal Judge Frank P. Baker and Fred Simon, detective chief, were outspoken in their resentment at the action of the parole board of the Indiana state prison at Michigan City in releasing Schroeder.

Schroeder, The Times learned, was paroled from the institution March 31 last after serving three years of a two to twenty-one year sentence for the bizarre "torch murder" outside Indianapolis on May 31, 1930, after the Speedway race.

Terming Schroeder's release "a breach of faith" Judge Baker said that members of the parole board had promised him and Prosecutor Wilson that Schroeder never would be paroled.

Fred Simon, chief of detectives called the convict's parole, "a mockery of justice." Governor Paul V. McNutt stated today that his office had made no attempt to conceal the parole of Schroeder from the public. He said that the parole papers do not come through his office.

The Governor cited a statute which provides that a prisoner may be paroled at the end of the minimum term. He stated that the policy of the parole board is to avoid publicity in the release of prisoners to prevent "stigma" attaching itself to their names.
