

W. O. M'KINNEY FUNERAL IS SET FOR TOMORROW

G. O. P. Politician Killed in Plunge at State Convention.

Funeral services for William O. McKinney, 85, of 245 North Oxford street, who died yesterday at city hospital of injuries sustained when he fell down stairs in Cagle tabernacle, will be held at 10 tomorrow in the residence. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

Mr. McKinney was attending the Republican state convention Tuesday when the accident occurred. He had been active in Republican politics for years. Surviving him are the widow; a son, Clarence McKinney, Cleveland, and a number of grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Former City Woman Dead

The body of Mrs. Nora C. Clarke, 81 North Hawthorne lane, who died Wednesday in the home of her son, Hamilton M. Clarke, Watertown, S. D., will be returned to Indianapolis for funeral services at 2 tomorrow in the Flanner & Buchanan funeral home.

Miss Clarke had lived in Indianapolis fifteen years. She was visiting her son. She was a member of the Emerson Avenue Baptist church.

Surviving her are the widower, the Rev. Charles M. Clarke; the son, Hamilton M. Clarke; another son, David C. Clarke, Indianapolis; her mother, Mrs. Charles P. Munger, Valhalla, N. Y.; two brothers, Dr. C. W. Munger, New York, and Dr. L. P. Munger, Hart, Mich., and four sisters, Mrs. Clarence Banghart, Walston, Mass.; Mrs. J. W. Alden and Mrs. L. B. Bishop, Chicago, and Mrs. Bonnie Hitchcock, Florida.

Frank Shook's Rites Today

Funeral services for Frank Shook, 73, of 1436 King avenue, who died Tuesday, were to be held in the Royster & Askin funeral home at 2 today. Burial will be in Washington Park cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Shook are the widow; a daughter, Mrs. Beulah Paul; a son, Beulard Shook; two sisters, Mrs. Alice Cosier and Mrs. Dora Davis, and three brothers, Charles, Claude and Ira Shook, all of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Julia Dugan Dead

Mrs. Julia A. Dugan, 65, of 713 North King avenue, died yesterday at her home, following a week's illness. She had spent almost her entire life in Indianapolis.

Funeral services will be held at 8:30 tomorrow in the home and at 9 in St. Anthony's Catholic church. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

Surviving her are the widower, John N. Dugan; two daughters, Miss Mary Dugan, teacher in the Von Steuben high school, Chicago, and Miss Celeste Dugan, Indianapolis; two sons, Bernard Dugan and Joseph Dugan, Indianapolis; and two sisters, Sister Anna Louise of the Holy Trinity convent, Evansville, and Mrs. Agnes Carliss, Brownsville.

102 ARE GRADUATED AT INDIANA CENTRAL

Commencement Address Given by Ball State Teachers' Chief.

"If we are going to master these mechanical servants, that mastery must come from within."

This declaration was made in tracing changes growing out of modern inventions by Dr. L. A. Pittenger, Ball State Teachers' college president, in an address to 102 members of the graduating class of Indiana Central college, yesterday.

The faculty and trustees were guests at the commencement exercises. Dr. I. J. Good, president of the college, conferred the degrees and presented the diplomas.

INDIANA STAMP CLUB TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Ceremonies Scheduled for Tonight at the Lockerbie.

Newly elected officers of the Indiana Stamp Club will be installed at a meeting at the Lockerbie tonight.

They are: Dr. F. Tully Hallam, president; Peter Van Geyt, vice-president; William F. McNairy Jr., treasurer; Ray H. Maguire, secretary; Raymond J. Hinshaw, corresponding secretary, and J. Lester Williams. Dr. Harry A. Washburn, C. L. Johnson and Floyd Shockley, members of the executive committee.

KOVNO PLOTTERS HELD

20 Lithuanians Face Trial for Abortion Bid for Power.

By United Press
KOVNO, Lithuania, June 8.—Twenty officers were under arrest today, charged with participating in an unsuccessful attempt of former Premier Augustinas Voldemaras to seize power.

They were expected to be tried in a civil instead of military court because they avoided bloodshed during the attempted uprising.

NOW Everybody Can Have Vitamin "D"
This Delicious Way
"ORBIT"
VITAMIN "D" GUM.

Vitamin "D" Builds Straight Bones in Kiddies. Fights
Tooth Decay, Aids the Appetite of Children and Grown-Ups. Get It in This Low-Cost, Tasty New Form.

GENERAL MOTORS EXHIBIT DRAWS FAIR VISITORS

60 CITY NURSES ARE GRADUATED

Commencement Exercises
Are Held at Methodist Hospital.

Awards for proficiency in theory and practice were announced at commencement exercises for sixty graduates of the Methodist hospital school of nursing last night in the North M. E. church.

Dr. John G. Benson, general superintendent, presented the diplomas. Dr. Harry B. Gough, speech professor at De Pauw university, spoke on "The Lady With the Lamp in the World Today." Arthur V. Brown, chairman of trustees, presided.

Miss Ruth Summa, Columbus, received first award for seniors; Miss Doris Morton, Lebanon, second, and Miss Marguerite Elzler, Salem, third. Dr. J. O. Ritchey, medical staff society president, presented the awards, which all were cash gifts.

Miss Emma Beaver of the junior class received two awards, second for her class, and a special prize offered by Dr. W. D. Gatch for proficiency in surgical nursing.

Miss Fannie R. Forth, superintendent of nurses, presented the graduating class. Donald C. Gilley, organist, played the processional and recessional.

NEW AIR MAIL SERVICE HERE STARTS SUNDAY

Direct Route to Washington to Be Feature.

American Airlines will start air mail service linking Indianapolis with Chicago on the north, and Cincinnati and Washington on the east, Sunday, it was announced today by W. H. Rose, local traffic manager.

The company already is carrying passengers and express on the line.

Air mail service on the route was halted when the government canceled previous air mail contracts.

This will be the first time Indianapolis has had direct air mail service to the national capital.

WHITE CROSS GUILD ENTERTAINS CHILDREN

Tom Thumb Wedding Features
Methodist Program.

The company already is carrying passengers and express on the line.

Air mail service on the route was halted when the government canceled previous air mail contracts.

This will be the first time Indianapolis has had direct air mail service to the national capital.

The faculty and trustees were guests at the commencement exercises. Dr. I. J. Good, president of the college, conferred the degrees and presented the diplomas.

INDIANA STAMP CLUB TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Ceremonies Scheduled for Tonight at the Lockerbie.

Newly elected officers of the Indiana Stamp Club will be installed at a meeting at the Lockerbie tonight.

They are: Dr. F. Tully Hallam, president; Peter Van Geyt, vice-president; William F. McNairy Jr., treasurer; Ray H. Maguire, secretary; Raymond J. Hinshaw, corresponding secretary, and J. Lester Williams. Dr. Harry A. Washburn, C. L. Johnson and Floyd Shockley, members of the executive committee.

KOVNO PLOTTERS HELD

20 Lithuanians Face Trial for Abortion Bid for Power.

By United Press
KOVNO, Lithuania, June 8.—Twenty officers were under arrest today, charged with participating in an unsuccessful attempt of former Premier Augustinas Voldemaras to seize power.

They were expected to be tried in a civil instead of military court because they avoided bloodshed during the attempted uprising.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."

Perched on the fake horses is Miss Augusta Bell King. Left in the carriage is Mrs. D. C.

These three women are learning at first hand modes of transportation of years ago, exhibited at the General Motors show for "old Dobbin."

Cooling off in the air-conditioned room (lower) at the General Motors show are Miss Margaret Allen, 1020 Central avenue (left), and Mrs. Wallace O. Heller, 650 West Forty-third street.

Stachler, Miss Vivian Marshall, right, gayly waves the whip for "old Dobbin."