ARMED UPRISING IS PLEDGED BY FOES OF LONG

'Last Warning,' Shout 30,000 Irate Citizens of Louisiana.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 13.—Thirty thousand citizens were pledged today to armed uprising against Senator Huey P. Long's political administration in Louisiana.

Demonstrators from every parish of the state thundered affirmation to a threat "to write more of the history of the state as it has been written in the past—in blood."

The threat from an angry crowd which surged within and for a block around the community house voiced "the last oral warning" protesting passage of "usurping" laws.

The pending bills would levy new taxes, set up a state department with control over local budgets and establish a state police force with power to invade cities and make arrests on equal footing with local authorities.

Chairman William H. Hodges of Bossier Parish propounded to the inflamed gathering a stirring history of Long's "tyrannical reign of corruption" in which "men have been kidnapped and at least one slain."

The meeting decided on appoint-

POLISH OFFICER CROSSES OCEAN IN TINY SLOOP

Trip Takes More Than a Year; Hopes to Visit World's Fair.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Lieutenant Andrew Bohomalec, 33, Polish cavalry officer, today sought to arrange extension of his army leave so that he could take his twenty-four-foot sloop Dal, in which he arrived yesterday after crossing the Atlantic, to the World's fair in Chicago.

Bohomalec and a companion, George Swiechowski, sailed the tiny sloop into the harbor after an adventurous trip from Gdynia, Poland, that took more than a year.
